The Chinese work is carried on at five different stations—Oakland, Alameda, Los Angeles, San Rafael and San Francisco. The first two are under the immediate superintendence of Dr. and Mrs. I. M. Condit, whose names are so well known to the churches.

We regret to record that Mrs. Condit's ill health, begun more than a year ago, still continues; though it is believed that she is making a slight progress toward recovery. Dr. Condit is finding abundant opportunity to use, in behalf of his beloved Chinese, the wisdom he has been accumulating from an experience of many years.

Of these two stations the only items of expense to the Board are: Dr. Condit's salary, the use of the Board's property and the annual taxes upon the aforesaid property.

The statistics are as follows: Oakland: Present membership 51, added on confession 1; average attendance upon services 24; contributions to the work of the Lord $303.00. Alameda: Present membership 15; added on confession 4; average attendance 13; contributions $233 45; losses during the year 3.

The Los Angeles station is faithfully looked after by Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Stewart. Two-thirds of Mr. Stewart's salary are paid from the Board's treasury; all other expenses of the station are borne by the Chinese Christians, or by the local churches.

The statistics for the year are as follows: Added during the year, by letter, 8; average attendance 12; ditto in children's department 14. The members subscribed for mission work in South China $1355.00 of which only a small proportion has as yet been paid in cash. While it is a grief that the year records no additions on confession of faith, yet the missionary's faith is cheered by the fact that even now four persons seem almost decided to come out on the Lord's side, and such other evidences of growth are visible as to make him believe that the last is the best of all the years he has been connected with the work.

San Rafael receives no money gifts from the treasury in New York, but a semi-monthly visit from one of the Board's Chinese preachers in San Francisco. Yet for a long time that station has witnessed a good work carried on for the Chinese. During the week a night school is regularly taught by volunteer workers from the Presbyterian Church, and on Sunday evenings from twenty to twenty-five young men assemble for a Scripture study with Mr. Charles H. Fish, father of another missionary to Korea, Mrs. Alice Fish Moffett. For more than twenty years Mr. Fish has been the faithful teacher, counsellor, and friend of the Chinese in San Rafael, and, although he is a successful business man, he testifies that his work for the Chinese has been the happiest and most satisfactory of his life.

In San Francisco the usual services have been conducted throughout the year, without a single intermission and the same organizations kept up as were reported last year. The average attendance upon the morning church service has been 120, and upon the evening 65; Sunday-school 60; weekly prayer meetings 13; C. E. Society 16; Y. M. C. A. 25; and night school 30.

To the King's Daughters five new members were added, making a total of forty. The annual contributions of that society ($52.00) are paid into the Board's treasury for mission work in South China.

The church has received 16 new members on confession and one by letter, making an active list of 151 and a reserve list of 86 members. The year's contributions to the Lord's work were as follows:

For Congregational Expenses .....	$481.70
For Y. M. C. A. ....	302.25
For assessments for Presbytery, etc.....	32.15
For Home Missions .....	9.00
For Foreign Missions .....	601.00
Total .....	$1426.10

Although the gains of the year have not been great in numbers, they have been promising in quality. Four belong to the student class, two in the University of California, one in a public school of this city, and the fourth serving as editor of one of the principal Chinese daily papers. One of these students, son of an official in China, is exceedingly bright and diligent, doing, in a foreign language, a two years' course in the preparatory department of the University, in one.

Of the three daily papers in Chinatown, the four editors of two of them are now in our church. Since these papers are, both here and in China, exerting a tremendous influence, it is a great gratification to know that the influence, is not unfriendly to our Christ. So marked a man had one of these editors, Mr. Ng Poon Chew, become that a few months ago the citizens of Chinatown sent him east as their representative in an effort to influence public sentiment in favor of the down-trodden race. In the principal eastern cities he delivered many lectures and addresses of such excellence as to impress all hearers with an appreciation of his great ability, was introduced to various ambassadors and other great men at the national capital, had audience with the President and is said to have been easily the star speaker at the Conference on Immigration, which was held in the City of New York.

Another editor, who received baptism in 1904, is now helping with evangelistic work and looking forward, when his engagement with the newspaper is completed, to a period of study for the ministry.

It was a pleasant surprise to the missionary that two or three of this year's converts united with the church just as they were started for a visit to China, saying that they wished to go back as Christians rather than as heathen. One of them asked me to write back to a Pennsylvania pastor in whose parish he had lived and whose exhortations he had for years disregarded to inform the faithful minister that he had at last heeded and given his heart to the Saviour.

We have lost a faithful, active assistant-pastor in the person of Rev. Wong Yuk Shing, who in December returned to his native land. He was born, and born again, in the City of L'ien Chow, and had there undergone cruel persecution for his faith. To this day he bears on his body the marks of the Lord Jesus. He was expecting to spend another year with us before going back to China, but when news came of the dreadful massacre which left in that station only two out of the seven missionaries who had been there, he said at once: "I must go back, I am needed," and in spite of the remonstrances of anxious friends, go he did. Alert, industrious, clever, eloquent, indefatigable in good works, devoted to his Lord, let us hope that his brave sacrifice may accomplish wonders in that needy field.

More and more we feel the importance of winning China-town to Christ. The influence of the American Chinese upon their own nation at home is greater than that of any other body of men. The millions of China are looking this way, in the present crisis, for counsel and they are getting it. Oh that it were all sweetened by the knowledge of and love for Jesus and not embittered by coldness, suspicion, rebuff, insult, active persecution on the part of those whom they suppose to be Jesus' disciples!

JAPANESE MISSION.

The 60,000 Japanese in the western portion of the United States come from every province of Japan, many of them from remote villages where the Gospel has never been preached. For a season these wanderers come under the influence of our California Missions, but sooner or later they nearly all return to their own land, to scatter the good seed far and wide.

Another great advantage is found in the superior quality of the material which comes for a time under our moulding influence. Most of the Japanese found in our large cities belong to the student class. They are the sons of the Samurai and are gentlemen by birth and education, being almost as familiar with the Chinese Classics as with their own literature. These are the men who become the ministers, lawyers, physicians, editors and leaders in all branches of knowledge in their own land. We find that the gospel appeals with especial force to this intelligent class. Though we have established missions for the Japanese in country towns, for the purpose of reaching the farm laboreres we find that even in such places the majority of the converts belong to the educated class.

It is interesting to know that in the City of Tokyo five influential men who have been connected with our San Francisco Mission are giving their entire time to religious work. Three others after completing a three years course in the San Francisco Theological Seminary, are expecting to return to Japan next summer to spend their lives in preaching the gospel. The wonderful patriotism of the Japanese causes them to go back to their native shores to spend and be spent for the land they love. For this reason strong Japanese churches cannot be built up in America. It is more important that these young Christians should go back to the home-land to take an active part in the development of the nation which is so rapidly becoming the school-mistress of Asia.

Five Japanese Missions have been established in California. Two of these are in the largest cities, while three are in agricultural districts. Four of these missions have comfortable homes into which young men are received and surrounded by Christian influences. They are instructed in our language, situations are found for them, as far as possible a watchful eye is kept over them and every assistance is given them in the building up of Christ-like character.

San Francisco.—The San Francisco Mission comes first on the list, having been founded a little more than twenty years ago. Into the church connected with this mission, 433 members have been received. Never has a Communion season passed since the church was organized without some accessions.

During the past year 40 new names have been added, 32 of these were on examination, the other eight bringing letters from churches in Japan. These are only a few of the Japanese who received some instruction in the Bible through the Sabbath School preaching and other religious services.

The San Francisco Japanese possess a large mission building, but during the winter season it usually proves too small to accommodate all who would avail themselves of its advantages. Much of the success of this work must be attributed to the untiring efforts of Rev. I. Watanabe, Mr. T. Hosokai and Mr. S. Kimishima, who have done all in their power for the physical, mental and spiritual betterment of their people.

Los Angeles.—This mission in Southern California has been in existence about three years and has been successful from the start. This year as the fruitage of this work, the First Presbyterian Japanese Church of Los Angeles was organized with 46 members. Rev. J. K. Inazama recently transferred to this station was elected pastor and two men of excellent character named N. Ohno and S. Shimizu were ordained as elders. This church reports a gain in membership of 27 for the past year. The active and associate members of this mission now number 79. There seems to be a bright prospect before this mission.

Watsonville.—The reports from the rural districts are not so encouraging as those from the larger cities. Mr. K. Miyozabei, who is in charge of the Watsonville Mission Reports three young men baptized during the year, making the number of Christians at present connected with the mission 23. The Japanese at Watsonville have purchased the property now used as the head-quarters of the Mission, but there is a mortgage of $1500.00. Much praise is due to Mrs. J. A. Patton, who for several years past has devoted herself to the Japanese of this section.

Salma.—The Salma's Mission reports 21 Christian members, but only one conversion during the past year. The members, however, are manifesting a spirit of self sacrifice, so that almost enough money has been subscribed to purchase the property now occupied as a Mission home. This Mission has received no help from the Board. Mr. M. Kobayashi, who is in charge of this mission has done the best work possible under the circumstances.

Wintersburg.—This mission is situated in Orange County in Southern California.

Rev. B. H. Terasawa, who commenced this work about a year ago, has already won for himself a large place in the hearts of his countrymen and the Americans of that district. This mission is union in character, receiving support from Methodists as well as Presbyterians. Mr. Terasawa preaches and teaches and as a result of his labors several have been baptized and united with various churches in that neighborhood. Rev. John W. Miller has been deeply interested in this work for the Japanese and through his efforts a part of the money needed for the support of the evangelist has been raised.

Self-Support.—About $4,000.00 per year is all that the Board is expending for the evangelization of the Japanese on the Pacific Coast. This is about half the sum needed to carry on the work as at present conducted. A little financial aid has been given by the Presbytery of Los Angeles, but the Japanese themselves have borne a large share of the burden. Most of the Japanese Christians are students, working their way through school and college, but all have contributed something toward the expenses. As a result of the year's work about 70 young people have been added to the membership of the churches and much good accomplished.

PORTLAND, OREGON.

The work of the Mission has gone steadily forward in all the departments. There has been good interest shown in the Night School. The tendency has been to seek more instruction and, for this reason, several of the students have had a personal teacher. There has also been steady attendance in the day time by young men who could not get away at night. The Mission has been open continually both day and evening to meet the needs.

The total enrollment has been 40. This is more satisfactory than when the total has been larger but the attendance more irregular. We have had a good class of teachers and they have been faithful. There has been increased interest in the study of music and the pupils have employed, for a part of the year, a special teacher of singing, who has come to the School after the study hour which closes at 9.30 p. m.

Sunday Services.—Ordinarily all the Christians attend these services. It is not common for them to remain away either from Church or prayer meeting. In connection with the Sabbath meeting there are Sunday-school and also the young men's meeting. Prayer meetings are always held on Wednesday evening and, usually, all the pupils remain for this meeting.

Little Dispensary work has been done, but all cases to which attention has been called have received the care needed through the courtesy of medical friends of the Superintendent. No one in any need of help has ever been turned away for any reason.

Additions to the Christian membership have been four on examination. One infant has been baptized. The Chinese are very faithful in this respect. No parent connected with our Mission and a professing Christian has ever delayed to have the children brought to the public service for baptism.

The outlook continues good. The number of Chinese residents shows little if any change. The prospect is that the great calamity which has recently overtaken San Francisco will drive many Chinese from that city to Portland. Already we have heard of some who will come here as soon as they can do so.

The following sums have been raised during the year :

For Foreign Missions directly .....	$5.15
For the Maintenance of the Mission .....	800.00
Miscellaneous .....	85.40
Special .....	150.00
Total .....	$1040.55

OCCIDENTAL BOARD.

Doubtless on account of the earthquake and fire, no report from the Occidental Board has been received. The Board knows, however, from its general correspondence that the work was energetically well done until the great catastrophe of April 18. The Rescue Home for women and girls was never more useful. It sheltered a large number of Chinese who had escaped and who had been rescued by the courageous and indefatigable efforts of the Superintendent, Miss Donaldina Cameron.

The following extracts from the letters of Mrs. Denniston are of pathetic interest. "Our finance committee have given much careful thought to expenses, for in our desire to be as economical as possible, we cannot forget the absolute needs of the work. Our employees, including Superintendent, Matron and Teachers, are paid less than they would receive in any other charitable institution. Were they not consecrated Christian women, gladly giving their talents to this work, we could not obtain such women for these positions, for they are all women of ability; and we cannot take any others.

"The Occidental School, we have re-organized, putting it on a stronger basis, and will employ only an English teacher, at the small salary of $32.50 per month, which is the amount formerly allowed for this school. The teacher who will occupy this position is Miss Grace Russell, formerly our Missionary at Urumia, and we will consider that we are fortunate in securing her.

"We feel that we must raise Miss Cameron's salary to $600.00. As you know, she is an exceptional woman for the place. The high respect in which she is held, not only among the Chinese, but in the Courts and with the Government officials, easily testifies to her Christian character and wonderful ability.

"We constantly need interpreters, both in the Home and to attend the Courts, for there are law-suits over the rescue of many of our girls, and we must have those who can be trusted. To conduct any cases in the Courts we have a very able lawyer, who kindly gives his services.

"The cost of living is constantly increasing here, and the strain to keep within our appropriation is telling on all who supervise this work. When you consider that our family to be cared for is never less than forty in number and that we only ask for a total of $2700.00 for the actual living expenses of food, clothing, fuel, water, lights, etc., at an average of $67.50 per year per person, we think that you will concede that only an economical administration could accomplish the care of such a family on so small a sum.

"In the work of the Occidental Board there are no administration expenses, as the members of our Board give their time and effort to this work, and we are happy to do this. We have not one salaried officer, not even a clerk or stenographer. Many are the days which are given up to this work. Social affairs are willingly put aside when it is a question of attendance at a meeting, whether regular or called, and they are not a few.

"The worry and anxiety of conducting the affairs of the Station are telling on our women who have been years in the work, with a constantly decreasing appropriation, for they see the absolute necessity of the amounts asked for, and are always careful to ask for nothing not absolutely necessary.

"We have a family averaging forty, in number, of Chinese and Japanese girls, and these girls perform all the household duties of the Home, under the Superintendent and Matron.

"The officers of the Occidental Board, all of whom give their services, have thought and planned and prayed and worked, under the reduced appropriations, until they are on the verge of a nervous breakdown."

The schools in connection with the Home are faithfully taught, and the training given and the strong Christian influence of the place was developing these unfortunate girls into fine Christian women. It is well known that Chinese men are not as averse to marrying women who have fallen as American men are, and every year several of the girls are happily married to Christian Chinese. The character and antecedents of every such Chinese are carefully investigated and no girl is allowed to leave the Home until the Superintendent is sure that the proposed husband will give her a proper home and take good care of her.

On Sundays the girls regularly attend the Chinese Presbyterian Church and their earnest and excellent behaviour are always manifest. Several sing in the choir and two were baptized during the year.

The disaster that destroyed this beneficent institution is greatly to be deplored. The ladies of the Occidental Board have toiled unceasingly to build it up and maintain it. There is no more Christlike Mission work done in America and we earnestly hope that it will soon be possible to start this work on firmer foundations than ever.

NEW YORK.

The work for Chinese in New York City has been carried on as heretofore by a local committee of the Presbytery of New York. The Board simply makes a grant to the Presbytery, but the larger part of the expense is made up by contributions of churches and interested friends. The Rev. Huie Kin, who has been for so many years the successful pastor of the Chinese church, has added another year to his efficient labors. The school is a prominent feature of the work and through it many Chinese are reached.

The entire work of the Board for the Chinese and Japanese in our country well deserves the sympathies and prayers of the church. The best friends that the Chinese have in this country are the superintendents of these Missions.

REPORT OF THE TREASURER

No comprehensive idea of the following report can be obtained without a careful study of the reports from each field under the charge of the several Secretaries. In the light of the great progress in the work of the Board, the deficit which must be reported this year will be more clearly understood, and it is not altogether discouraging since the very success of the work itself is the chief cause of the financial lack. Special attention is called to the large increase in donations from the churches, amounting to $73,122.61 over last year. This is indicative of splendid work on the part of pastors and an awakened zeal throughout the congregations, and is a cause for devout thankfulness. There has been a falling off in the total from the Women's Boards and from individual givers, but the largest decrease is found in legacies, amounting to $71,619.50, almost the total amount of the deficit which amounts to $72,538.00.

The appropriations and disbursements (Schedule 3) amounted to $1,241,821.20, and receipts applicable to this large expenditure amounted to $1,169,283.20, leaving a deficit for the year 1906 of $72,538.00. The deficits remaining from the years 1904 and 1905 amount to $38,380.71, leaving a present deficit of the Board of $110,918.71.

The increase in receipts for the year were as follows:

From Churches.....	$73,122 61
Sabbath-schools.....	3,312 97
Young People's Societies.....	5,155 07
		$81,590 65

Receipts by months and quarters are scheduled below:

May.....	$36,931 14

February.....	$112,534 24
March.....	186,009 85
April.....	318,079 84	616,623 93	4th quarter.

In this connection it will be noted that by far the largest quarter is at the end of the year, half a million dollars coming in during the last two months. This is no doubt due to the fact that a great many churches take their annual collection at this time of the year, making it necessary for the Board to borrow funds during the second and third quarters.

The following table, showing the rank of various Presbyteries according to the total amount given and the per capita gift, will be found interesting:

The net profit to this Board from operating the Presbyterian Building was $16,649.31.

In January, 1906, the mortgages on the building were paid by both Boards, leaving it free and clear of all indebtedness. This is the culminating act in the financing of the building known throughout the world as the Presbyterian Building, and Presbyterians everywhere will rejoice that this property has emerged from the severe struggles of former times and been placed on a basis where it produces a fair income.

The mortgage of this Board amounted to $60,000 at the close of the year 1905. The payment was made up as follows:

From special gifts received for the reduction of the mortgage debt.....	$30,468 29
Balance of profit from operating building, 1905.....	15,446 12
From profit from operating building, 1906 .....	14,085 59

There remains a balance of the profits of 1906 of $1,610.11.

From the operation of No. 5 West Twentieth Street, the annex to the Presbyterian Building, there is a profit for the year of $2,209.19.

It is interesting to note that during the year Special Gift Agreements have been issued to double the number issued last year, twelve in all, aggregating $23,800.

EXPENSES.

NEW YORK, May 8, 1906.

HON. DARWIN R. JAMES, Chairman Finance Committee,
The Board of Foreign Missions, New York.

SIR :—

We have examined the accounts and vouchers of the Treasurer of your Board for the year ending April 30, 1906, and have verified the Balance Sheet published herewith, which in our opinion presents the correct financial condition of the Board.

In verifying the receipts for the year, we have checked the amounts received with the detailed monthly statements published in the Assembly Herald, with the exception of April, which has not yet been published, and have ascertained that all of the moneys shown therein have been properly accounted for.

The statements of disbursements by Field Treasurers for the fiscal year just closed have not been received in New York at this date, and the deficit shown in the Balance Sheet is subject to change, according as the expenditures have been more or less than the appropriations for the past year.

Cash and securities have been verified either by actual count or evidences of deposit, and we believe the margin of safety between the book value and market value of securities is ample.

Respectfully submitted,

PATTERSON, TEELE & DENNIS,
Certified Public Accountants.

EIGHTY-SEVENTH ANNUAL REPORT.

The Board of Education respectfully report to the General Assembly that they began the year with a cash balance of $402.69, belonging to the current account; that they have received in the course of the year from all sources $89,034.05, of which $52,560 came from churches, Sabbath-schools, Young People's Societies and individuals; being an increase of $3,299.53 from churches, etc., and a decrease of $453.98 from individuals.

The Board decided at their June meeting that they could prudently give to college and seminary students a maximum of $100, and $90 to the exceptional students taken under care during their preparatory course. It was found necessary again to make special provision for some of the foreign students, and for the same reasons that made this course necessary last year.

The same favoring circumstances which have long kept at a low figure the administrative expenses, enabled the Board to conduct its work during the past year at a cost not exceeding $7,493.50.

MEMBERSHIP OF THE BOARD

The Board deeply regret that circumstances have made necessary the retirement, after long service, of Charles H. Mathews, Esq., and George Peirce, Esq. A suitable expression of the Board's estimation of the great value of their services was spread upon the Minutes. Henry D. Moore and Samuel D. Oliphant, Esq., have been elected to fill the places thus left vacant, and to serve from 1906 until 1909, subject to the approval of the General Assembly.

On the 12th day of June last Dr. James M. Crowell was elected President; Dr. Charles Wadsworth, Jr., Vice-President; Dr. Edward B. Hodge, Corresponding Secretary, and Jacob Wilson, Recording Secretary and Treasurer.

The time for which the following were elected, to wit: Charles Wadsworth, Jr., D.D., William Henry Oxtoby, D.D., Rev. John Calhoun, and George W. Bailey, M.D., having expired, their re-election is recommended.

CANDIDATES

The Board have enrolled during the year 699 young men, of whom 219 are new men and 480 are renewals. The increase in numbers over last year is 41. There is, however, a decrease of 6 in the number of new candidates.

These candidates have been studying in sixty-five different colleges, thirty-four preparatory schools or departments, and in the twelve theological schools which have the approval of the General Assembly. In the Menaul School at Albuquerque, the Board have had under their care three Spanish-speaking students. In Biddle and in Lincoln University sixty-four negro students have been studying under the care of the Board, besides twelve at preparatory schools. Our German candidates number this year, together with the Italians, Hungarians, Bohemians and others of foreign extraction, seventy-four. It is pleasant to report that the Presbytery of Havana in Cuba have already two young men to recommend as candidates for the ministry, who will probably get their theological education in the Divinity School under the care of our missionaries in Mexico.

COMPETITIVE SCHOLARSHIPS

An examination was held during the year with a view to awarding the Mutchmore Scholarship, but the way did not prove clear for the granting of it. The Secretary's Scholarship has been offered for competition to students of the San Francisco Seminary, and it is hoped that an examination of competitors may be held in the Fall. Candidates under the care of the Board at Auburn Seminary will compete for the Mutchmore Scholarship.

CONFERENCE OF CORRESPONDING SECRETARIES

By invitation of the Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Education of the Reformed Church in America, the Rev. Dr. Gebhard, a conference of Corresponding Secretaries was held in New York last November, and proved to be of so much interest that arrangements have been made for a similar conference to be held in Philadelphia in the Fall of the present year. The following Churches were represented in the conference: The Reformed Church in America; the Congregational Church; the Protestant Episcopal Church; the Methodist Episcopal Church; the Baptist Church; the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.; the Lutheran Church, and the Reformed Church in the United States.

RELIGIOUS INTERESTS OF COLLEGE STUDENTS

In view of the action of the General Assembly with regard to the religious interests of students in State Universities, the Board appointed a Committee to confer with the representatives of the several agencies interested in this special work, to wit: the College Board, the Evangelistic Committee of the General Assembly, and the International Committee of the Young Men's Christian Association. The Rev. Dr. Minton and the Corresponding Secretary of the Board attended the meeting in New York, at which the whole subject was fully discussed, and a report of the conference was presented to the Board by Dr. Minton on the 27th of November last, and will be found spread in full upon the book of Minutes of the Board. The matter appeared to be of so much importance that it was determined to supplement the work of visitation of schools, colleges and universities, which has been a part of the duty of the Corresponding Secretary, by sending representatives of the membership of the Board to as many of the institutions of learning as could well be reached at that time. The Corresponding Secretary has during the year visited Princeton University, Biddle University, Lincoln University, Lafayette College, and Princeton and Lane Theological Seminaries. Rev Dr. Minton has visited the University of Florida, Rollins College in Florida, Henry Kendall College in Indian Territory, Washington College, Tennessee; Tusculum College and Maryville College in same State, and Central University, Danville, Kentucky. The Rev. Dr. Cochran has visited the Universities of Wisconsin and Minnesota, Poynette Academy, Wisconsin, and Carroll, Beloit, Macalester and Carleton Colleges. The reports of these gentlemen of their visitations are very interesting and important, and it is evident from information received that they were able to make a deep impression upon the minds of the students with regard to personal religion and the duty and privilege of giving the Gospel to their fellow-men. The cost of this supplemental visitation has been provided for by a constant and generous friend of the Board.

By direction of the Board an appropriate Minute was prepared in view of the death of Dr. John S. MacIntosh, who served the Board most faithfully during a period of more than eighteen years, and lately distinguished himself by his eminent services in the cause of theological education as President of San Francisco Theological Seminary.

At the request of the General Assembly's Committee on Church Coöperation and Union, the Board referred to a Special Committee a consideration of the question "Whether there are any legal and corporate rights and powers of the Board which must be safeguarded" in connection with the proposed union with the Cumberland Presbyterian Church. The Committee presented an extended report, which will be found spread upon the Minutes in the book of records of the Board, and of which the concluding portion only is quoted here, as follows:

"The ample powers of the Board of Education of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. permit the holding of property and trusts from any source, when such trusts are not contrary to the law of Pennsylvania. If the 'Educational Society of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church' is to be merged in the 'Board of Education, etc.,' or in a new Board which is to take over the property and to become the legal successor of both, the Cumberland body in either case would have to determine their willingness and legal ability so to do. And if it should appear that the last-named body holds special funds and trusts which are to be administered under special limitations as to their use, a serious question may then arise as to the power of the 'Board of Education, etc.,' to take and administer the same, or for a new Board, duly constituted, so to act.

"In the taking over of the property and trusts of the Cumberland Society, either by the existing Board of Education of the Presbyterian Church or by a new Board to be duly constituted, the legal rights and powers of the Board of Education and of the Educational Society of the Cumberland Church must be fully protected, so that no questions can arise hereafter as to the lawful use in the United Church of any of the property and trusts which the Board of Education or the Educational Society of the Cumberland Church now hold or control by donation, devise or bequest."

After conference with the Sub-Committee of the General Assembly's Committee on Coöperation and Union, it was determined to arrange for a conference between representatives of the Board of Education and representatives of the Educational Society of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church. Such a conference was held in the city of Cincinnati, March 22, 1906; the Educational Society of the Cumberland Church being represented by the Rev. Dr. Darby and the Rev. Dr. Hubbert, and the Board of Education by Dr. Minton, Mr. Finney, S. Spencer Chapman, Esq., and the Corresponding Secretary.

The object of the conference was to agree upon a modus vivendi for the conduct of the operations of the two agencies during the coming year and until such time as a legal consolidation can be effected; it being assumed that a union of the two Churches would be consummated next May.

Entire harmony prevailed throughout the discussion, and the following method was unanimously agreed upon as the recommendation of the conference:

That during the year extending from the meeting of the General Assembly of 1906 to the meeting of the General Assembly of 1907, in case union is consummated next May in accordance with the plan formulated, the Educational Society of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, while necessarily maintaining a legal corporate existence, shall perform no active functions in the collecting of money from churches or individuals, or in receiving or acting upon Presbyterian recommendations in behalf of candidates, or making appropriations in behalf of such candidates; but shall receive and hold in trust any money that may come to it from investments, or from any other sources, with a view to handing over all such receipts to the Board of Education of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., as soon as authorized to do so by the proper court or legislature.

It was agreed further to recommend that the Presbyteries of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church be requested to forward all recommendations in behalf of candidates to the Board of Education of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. on the forms in use by that Board, and to be acted upon by that body in accordance with the rules at present regulating their operations, and with such authority for dealing with exceptional cases for the existing temporary emergency as the General Assembly of 1906 may see best to grant.

It was agreed to recommend that all churches of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church be requested to forward their contributions for the cause of Ministerial Education to the Treasurer of the Presbyterian Board of Education in the U. S. A. But the conference, while expressing a preference for this plan, recorded its judgment that, in the matter of contributions, the General Assembly should prescribe, if possible, a uniform plan for all the Boards.

It was agreed to recommend that the Corresponding Secretary who may be elected by the Educational Society of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church be requested to coöperate with the Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Education of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. in the work of the year, by helping to put into effect the proposals just mentioned in any ways which may be found practicable.

It was agreed to recommend that the Board of Education of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., in case of a consummation of the union, ask of the General Assembly a measure of discretion in the application of their rules to candidates who may be recommended by Presbyteries previously in the Cumberland Presbyterian connection, until the incoming Presbyteries with their candidates have learned to adjust themselves to the new conditions; and in particular with regard to candidates pursuing their studies in the theological seminary of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church at Lebanon, Tennessee, which has not at present the approval of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., and which is organized under a Constitution which must be modified in order to secure such approval, that the Board of Education of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. ask authority to make appropriations in aid of candidates there studying upon condition that, and as soon as, assurance shall have been given that the changes in the Constitution necessary to make it eligible to the approval of the General Assembly will be made.

The representatives of the Educational Society of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church reported that they had examined into the feasibility of transferring to the Board of Education of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. the property and trusts belonging to it, and in their opinion such transfer was entirely practicable, and that it can be accomplished at any time.

It was agreed that the proper method of securing the merging of the Educational Society of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church with the Board of Education of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. would be in securing from a court of competent jurisdiction a decree directing said Educational Society to transfer to said Board of Education all its property and assets, including an order providing that, upon conveyance as aforesaid, the charter of the Educational Society of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church shall be revoked and its corporate existence annulled or terminated.

DISCRETION ASKED

The Board, under the circumstances described above, request this General Assembly to accord to the Board, in case the proposed union with the Cumberland Church is at this time consummated, a measure of discretion in the application of their rules to candidates who may be recommended by Presbyteries previous to this time in the Cumberland Presbyterian connection, until the newly received Presbyteries with their candidates have learned to adjust themselves to their new conditions; and, in particular, they ask authority to make payments to duly recommended candidates studying at the theological seminary at Lebanon, Tenn., provided that assurance is given that any changes in its Constitution necessary to make it eligible to the approval of the General Assembly will be made.

CHANGE IN RULES

The Board have found much inconvenience in carrying out the present rule which provides that payments to students shall ordinarily be made on the 1st days of October, January and April. The strict carrying out of this rule has become practically impossible. The October payment is never made before November, owing to the impossibility of getting Professors' reports, which are the warrants for the payments, at an earlier date. In many of the colleges the mid-winter examinations occur in January, and the reports cannot be had earlier than February. The April reports are practically the same as those furnished in January. It is proposed that the rule be altered so as to read the "1st days of November and March," instead of the "1st days of October, January and April."

EDUCATION OF MEDICAL MISSIONARIES

The attention of the Assembly is directed afresh to the question of the proper means to provide for the suitable training of medical missionaries. Many choice young men who do not feel that they have a call to the ministry, but are full of zeal for Christian service, are turning their attention to medical missions. It is very important that candidates for this service should be highly educated men, taking both the college and the medical course, and, if possible, securing hospital experience besides. Such a course can only be pursued at great expense; and, in order to encourage the seeking of full equipment, it seems desirable to provide scholarship aid for the purpose. We believe that great advantage would be secured if candidates for medical work were to take their course under the supervision of the Church, as is the case with candidates for the ministry, and we raise at this time the question whether the Board of Education may not wisely be authorized to accept and apply to this purpose any funds that may be specially designed for the work. The attention of the General Assembly is called to the fact that in 1851 the Old School General Assembly passed the following resolution: "For the purpose of contributing to some extent in bringing forward promising young men of suitable character other than candidates for the ministry, the Board of Education are hereby authorized to apply to this object whatever funds may be thus specifically appropriated by the donors."

The charter of the New School Permanent Committee, of which the Board of Education is heir-at-law, authorized the receiving and expending of money "for educational purposes," and for superintending the whole course of education in behalf of the General Assembly. Whatever is undertaken on this subject should be done after very careful consideration, and with formulation of well-guarded plans.

THE DISPOSITION OF A LEGACY

In the latter part of the year 1905 or early part of 1906, the Board was informed that the Rev. M. A. Parkinson, domiciled in Washington County, Pennsylvania, had left a will wherein he bequeathed $1,200 to Emma L. Mansfield, whom years before he had taken into his family and treated as a child, although legal proceedings for her adoption had never been taken by him. Afterwards she married a gentleman by the name of Mansfield, by whom she had several children, daughters. She pre-deceased Mr. Parkinson, the testator, by over a year; and as a consequence, upon his death, the legacy of $1,200 left to her lapsed and fell into the residuary estate which was left, under the terms of Mr. Parkinson's will, to this Board. The matter was referred to the counsel for the Board, who, in January last, advised it that had Mrs. Mansfield been legally adopted, her heirs, under the Act of April 8, 1833, would have been entitled to receive the amount; but that, inasmuch as she had not been adopted, her heirs could not inherit, and that the legacy, together with any other residuum of the estate, belonged to the Board.

A large number of letters were received by the Board requesting it to waive its rights in favor of the children, who were represented to be needy, on the ground that it was Mr. Parkinson's intention that Mrs. Mansfield and her children should be benefited by this bequest. Having been advised as to its legal position, the Board felt that, as Trustee for the fund belonging to this branch of the Church work, it could not properly make a gift of what actually and legally belonged to it, for a purpose outside of the scope of its powers; and, by resolution, directed the Secretary to communicate with the representatives of Mrs. Mansfield's children, stating to them that, upon the adjudication of the account and a formal award of the fund to the Board, it would take such further action looking to the moral and ethical side of the case as was necessary.

The account of the personal representative of Mr. Parkinson's will has been adjudicated, and there has been awarded to and received by the Board the sum of $1,632.41, being the amount of the residuary estate.

At a meeting of the Board, held on April 9, 1906, it was resolved that the facts relating to this matter be referred to the General Assembly, with the recommendation that the General Assembly direct the Board to pay over to the children of Mrs. Emma L. Mansfield said sum of $1,200, which under the will of the Rev. M. A. Parkinson, as above stated, had been given to their mother, but which, owing to her pre-deceasing the testator, had lapsed and come to this Board.

ACTION ON A REFERENCE

The Board took duly into account the Report of the Special Committee of the Alliance of Reformed Churches throughout the World holding the Presbyterian System (Western or American Section) on the subject of candidates for the ministry. They find that their own views are generally in harmony with the statements contained in the Report as to the causes for the decline in the number of candidates for the Gospel ministry, and the remedies suggested. They look upon the whole subject as one of very great importance, and recognize the value of the Report as a contribution to their fund of information, and hope to make use of the same in their continued efforts for an increase of the ministry. They are grateful to be able to tell of an encouraging measure of success attending these efforts, and of the promise of still greater results from the systematic visitation of our colleges and State Universities recently made by a Committee of the Board. The facts brought out in the Report emphasize in the strongest manner the necessity of importunate prayer throughout the Church on the part of congregations, church courts, families and individuals, and of constant diligence on the part of ministers, parents, teachers, and others in positions of influence, in bringing the subject of the evangelization of the world to the attention of young men as a matter of high privilege and pressing obligation.

DAY OF PRAYER

Reports from many institutions give pleasing evidence of the attention paid to the Day of Prayer for Colleges and of the happy influences and results of the same. The need of special prayer for the conversion of college students and their consecration to the work of the ministry was probably never more pressing than now, and the Board repeats the request of many years that the General Assembly emphasize the importance of the observance of a day of prayer for the conversion of the youth of the Church, and for the increase of the ministry from among their number. They recommend that the last Thursday of January, 1907, be designated for this purpose. With thankfulness to God for a year of fruitfulness and progress, the above is submitted by order of the Board.

EDWARD B. HODGE,
Corresponding Secretary.

ACTION OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

The Eighty-seventh Annual Report of the Board of Education was presented to the General Assembly, in session at Des Moines, Iowa, May, 1906, and was referred to the Standing Committee on Education. The Committee consisted of:

Ministers.

Elder C. W. DABNEY, Chairman.

DAVID H. CRAVER,
W. D. SEXTON,
W. J. ROWAN,
U. S. GREVES,
WILLIAM F. GIBBONS,
A. J. ALEXANDER,
JULIUS F. SCHWARZ,
A. M. LITTLE,
C. K. CRAWFORD,
CHARLES G. WILLIAMS,
W. F. SHIELDS.

Elders.

H. JOEL RICE,
FRANCIS FRENCH,
JOHN W. GALBREATH,
G. W. RUBINKAM,
W. W. BOYD,
J. F. SEELEY,
W. T. MITCHELL,
JAMES BLACK,
J. A. COFFEY,
HARRY E. THOMPSON,
J. H. ATEN.

This Committee subsequently presented their report to the General Assembly. It was accepted, and the appended resolutions were unanimously adopted, as follows:

1. That the election by the Board of Henry D. Moore and Samuel D. Oliphant, Esq., to take the places made vacant by the retirement of Charles H. Mathews, Esq., and George Pierce, Esq., and to serve from 1906 to 1909, be approved; also, that the term of office of the following members of the Board having expired they be re-elected, to wit: Charles Wadsworth, Jr., D.D., William Henry Oxtoby, D.D., Rev. John Calhoun, and George W. Bailey, M.D.

2. That the accounts of the Treasurer, having been carefully kept and properly audited, be approved, and the Minutes of the Board for the year 1905-06 be approved.

3. That the Board is authorized and directed to pay over to the children of Mrs. Emma L. Mansfield the sum of $1200, which under the will of Rev. M. A. Parkinson was bequeathed to their mother, but which owing to the occurrence of her death before that of the testator, said Parkinson, had lapsed and come into the possession of the Board as residuary legatee.

4. That the rule providing for payment of the students on the "1st day of October, January and April" be altered to authorize these payments on the "1st day of November and March."

5. That in extension of permission given last year, the Board be given authority to make special provision for the assistance of certain of the foreign-language-speaking students, if found necessary.

6. That the last Thursday in January, 1907, be designated as the Day of Prayer for Colleges, and its observance be urged upon the churches.

7. That, in case of the consummation of the union with the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, authority is given the Board to use its discretion in dealing with exceptional cases of Cumberland Presbyterian candidates, and in the application of their rules to persons recommended by Presbyteries now of that connection.

8. WHEREAS, The importance of thorough preparatory professional and practical training for those who wish to dedicate their lives to the work of medical missions is very evident, and the medical missionary ought also to be in sympathy with the doctrines and principles of the Church to which his work is auxiliary, the question is of importance whether the training required should not be pursued under some degree of church supervision, and with some degree of church assistance, especially as the full equipment for medical work is very expensive; and

WHEREAS, The Board of Education would seem to be the most suitable agency for rendering such aid;

Resolved, That the Board is directed, therefore, to inquire into the practicability of their undertaking such work, and to report what changes, if any, are needed in their Constitution for the purpose, what regulations and safeguards are necessary, and if the way be clear, to prepare a plan to be laid before the next General Assembly.

9. That the Board of Education is authorized and directed to enter into correspondence with the Education Committees of the several Synods, with a view to all possible coöperation with them in the forming and forwarding of plans for the supply of the religious needs particularly of Presbyterian students in attendance upon State Universities and Colleges, and the proper presentation to them of the duty and privilege of preaching the Gospel to their fellow-men.

10. That the General Assembly commend the Board for their consistent efforts to encourage and promote in all the Presbyteries the maintenance of the high standard provided for in our Book for the ministry of the whole Church, so that the minister ordained in any one Presbytery may have full credit in every other, and for all that they are doing to promote the thorough training of candidates for the holy ministry in complete sympathy with the doctrines and government of the Presbyterian Church.

11. And finally, that the General Assembly once more solemnly charges all our heads of families, pastors, elders and teachers with the responsibility of laying upon the consciences of youth the duty and privilege of giving the Gospel to their fellow-men, and enjoins upon all Presbyteries the duty of presenting to our people the new and urgent needs of the Board of Education for means with which to do the rapidly growing work of the Church.

For the Committee,

CHARLES W. DABNEY, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Education presented a supplemental report on papers referred to it, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on Education has carefully examined Overtures 254 to 258, from the Presbyteries of Corning, Dubuque and Iowa City, asking for a rule by which the Board of Education shall require a written contract to be made by all candidates under their care, which shall bind them to offer themselves to the Board of Home Missions or to the Board of Foreign Missions for a service of at least three years at a given salary.

The Committee recommends that in view of the fact that the Board of Education has already made a detailed study of this general subject, the matter be referred to it to make a report to the next General Assembly with regard to the practicability of the scheme.

RULES OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION

RELATING TO

CANDIDATES FOR THE MINISTRY.

I.—DEPENDENCE OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION UPON THE PRESBYTERIES OF THE CHURCH.

1. The Board of Education shall receive and aid candidates for the ministry of the Gospel only upon the recommendation of a Presbytery of the Church ; and the Presbytery is responsible for their examination, subsequent care, and the designation of the annual amount of aid to be granted to them, within the limits set by the General Assembly.

2. The Board will in each case look especially to the Education Committee of the Presbytery for filling out and forwarding the form of recommendation required for the reception of a candidate, and also for the pastoral care of the same until his entrance upon his official duties.

3. As a general rule the Board will receive any young man of whose examination and recommendation, in conformity with its requirements, proper notification has been given, but it shall be at liberty to refuse new candidates beyond its ability to support them ; and it will not give aid to students from the foreign missionary field unless they have been recommended by our foreign missionaries abroad, or have come to study in this country by a special invitation given from this Board upon the request of other duly recognized Church authorities, or of missionaries resident on the fields from which they come.

II.—RECEPTION OF CANDIDATES.

1. The encouragement of a young man to enter the Gospel ministry is a matter of serious concern both to himself and to the Church, and it should be given only by those who have proper knowledge of his mental and moral character, accompanied with much counsel and prayer, and directly by a single desire for the glory of God. Every candidate should join that Presbytery to which he would most naturally belong, and he should be introduced to it either by his pastor or by some member of the Education Committee after such acquaintance as will warrant his taking the responsibility of so doing.

2. The Presbytery, in examining students with a view to their recommendation for aid, must embrace such points as are indicated by the following questions, to which definite answers, by the direction of the Assembly, will invariably be required by the Board : Give name of candidate in full. Age? Residence? Has Presbytery (or the Education Committee in the interim between the meetings of Presbytery) examined him on the following points, and were his answers satisfactory : Piety? Motives for seeking the ministry? Talents? Health? Promise of practical efficiency? Is he free from expensive and injurious habits? How long has he been a communicant in a Presbyterian church? Give the name of the church. If in an academy, give name of academy and class. If in college, or ready to enter, give name of college and class. If in seminary, or ready to enter, give name of seminary and class. If in a Theological Seminary, has he pursued a full collegiate course? If so, give the name of the college of which he is a graduate. If not a college graduate, has he had the equivalent of a college course? If so, send a detailed statement of his previous studies and career. Has he been recommended to Presbytery by his Church Session? Can he recite the Westminster Shorter Catechism? What is the smallest amount required to meet his really necessary expenses to the end of the fiscal year, viz.: April 1? Has he read a copy of the rules? Does he accept the requirements contained in them?

3. Every candidate seeking aid from the funds of the Board of Education is required to set forth in a paper over his own signature the extent of his inability to provide for himself the necessary funds for his education. The same paper shall contain his pledge that he will refund to the Board of Education all moneys received by him therefrom in any of the contingencies mentioned in Rule III, 8.

4. No candidate shall be received by the Board who has not been a member of the Presbyterian Church, or some closely related body, for at least one year; who has not been recommended to the Presbytery by the Session of the church of which he is a member, and who is not sufficiently advanced in study to enter college, except in extraordinary cases.

III.—SCHOLARSHIPS.

1. The annual scholarships to candidates shall be the same in amount for theological and collegiate students, and not exceed $150; for those in the preparatory course the amount shall not exceed $100.

2. These scholarships shall be paid to a student only on the reception of particular and satisfactory reports from his professors, embracing the following points: Christian Character? Scholarship? Rhetorical Ability? Punctuality? Economy?

3. The Board may increase or diminish, in a general ratio, the scholarships in case of unusual surplus or deficiency in funds.

4. No payment shall be made in advance. Each payment shall be acknowledged by a receipt signed by the candidate or by the person authorized by him to receive it. And this receipt shall contain a pledge to return the amount given, with interest, in case he of his own accord turn aside from his ministerial calling.

5. In order to make the times for payments correspond with the date when reports can most readily be secured from the professors, the first payment shall be made on or about the first of November, and the second on or about the first of March.

6. The Board will in no case be responsible for the debts of students, but it is expected of them that the scholarship shall be first applied to the payment of tuition and boarding.

7. The payments to the candidates shall cease regularly at the close of the collegiate year, or earlier, when the time for which they were recommended by the Presbytery has expired, and also as soon as it is determined that they are suffering from prolonged ill health, which may unfit them for the work of the ministry, or as soon as their private circumstances enable them to dispense with assistance; and if they have been manifestly improvident, or have contracted debts without reasonable prospect of payment, or if they have married since the last payment, or if they have received assistance from any other educational board or society, further payments shall be forfeited.

8. The sums of money appropriated by the Board shall be refunded to it, with interest, in case a student fails to enter on or continue in the work of the ministry (unless it appears that he is providentially prevented), or if he ceases to adhere to the standards of the Presbyterian Church, or if he changes his place of study contrary to the directions of the Presbytery, or continue to prosecute his studies at an institution not approved by it or by the Board, or if he withdraws his connection from the Church of which this Board is the organ without furnishing a satisfactory reason.

9. A scholarship afforded by the Presbyterian Church, through the Board of Education, is to be regarded by the candidate who receives its benefit as the Church's cheerful contribution to facilitate and expedite his preparation for the holy ministry, and may be accepted as a gift with the understanding that he is thereby simply obliged to a warmer interest in her efforts for the advancement of the Redeemer's kingdom, and especially to the use of the means necessary to instruct and stimulate her members in the duty of multiplying and sending forth preachers of the Gospel of salvation to all the world. If, however, any candidate should prefer to receive it as a loan, the Board of Education is given authority to lend the amount without interest, and to give the borrower a credit of $150 for each year of service spent, at the conclusion of his education, upon a mission field at home or abroad.

10. While the Church in providing scholarships for her candidates, makes no specific conditions as to the particular kind of service in the ministry which they will be expected to render upon the completion of their theological training, nor as to the character or situation of the place where they shall labor, nevertheless her judgment is that they ought to cultivate a missionary spirit, as Christlike, apostolic and timely, and that it would be highly becoming in them, under all ordinary circumstances, to offer their services, at the conclusion of their education, for work in missionary fields, ever remembering the abounding destitution in our own country as well as in foreign lands; the peculiar fitness of young men for such work; the honor, privilege and advantage pertaining to it; the natural expectations of the Church which has trained them in the hope that they would endure hardness as good soldiers; and, above all, the spirit of the last command of our ascended Lord.

IV.—CARE OF CANDIDATES.

1. Candidates are required, except in extraordinary cases, and then only with the explicit permission of their Presbyteries, to pursue a thorough course of study, preparatory to that of theology, in institutions that sympathize with the doctrinal teachings of the Presbyterian Church; and, when prepared, to pursue a three years' course of theological studies in some seminary connected with the same Church, and no work of preaching is allowed to interfere with the diligent and faithful prosecution of their prescribed studies until the close.

2. The Board can rely only upon the Education Committee of each Presbytery for the regular care of its own candidates, which should include the constant exercise of a parental oversight over them in spiritual things, and the bestowment of the counsel they need as to their mode of preparation, their place of study, their trials, and the occupation of their time, while not engaged in study, in employments which will tend to qualify them for effective usefulness as pastors or evangelists.

3. The Board shall assist the Presbytery in its care of candidates by furnishing annually to the Education Committee a summary of information from the professors' reports as to the standing of each student; and the Corresponding Secretary shall exercise a general supervisory care over them, also visit and address them, when practicable, at the institution where they are, in regard to their duties and the claims of the office which they have in view.

4. The recommendation of each candidate must be annually renewed by his Presbytery, if possible at the spring meeting, in connection with one from the Session of the church of which he is a member, and a specification must be made of the amount needed by him; and until the notification of these points has been received a student will not be considered as upon the roll for the year.

5. Recommendations, or renewals of them, made by an Education Committee in the interim of the sessions of a Presbytery, shall be received as sufficient, provided its action is reported to the Presbytery at the next session and not countermanded to the Board.

6. If at any time there be discovered in a student such defect in capacity, diligence, and especially in piety, as would render his introduction into the ministry a doubtful measure, it shall be the sacred duty of the Board to communicate without delay the information received to the Education Committee of his Presbytery, and if, on careful inquiry on the part of the Presbytery, no satisfactory explanation of the defect can be obtained, or if no response be received by the Board from the Presbytery or from its Committee on Education within the current quarter, it shall be the duty of the Board to withdraw its aid altogether.

7. Special care should be exercised by the Presbytery in the examination of students who are about to enter upon the theological course, according to the instructions of the Form of Government (Chap. XIV, Sec. 3); and this examination should be conducted by the Presbytery, and be entirely satisfactory as to the "real piety" of the students "and the motives which have influenced them to desire the sacred office," before they are allowed to take the final step toward assuming its great responsibilities.

8. The annual report, occasional publications of this Board, and a copy of the Confession of Faith shall be sent gratis to all students under its care who request them.

V.—PARTICULAR DUTIES OF CANDIDATES.

1. Inasmuch as the great aim of the Church in the establishment of the Board of Education is the increase of holy and faithful preachers of the Gospel, the young brethren who look to this work are earnestly and affectionately reminded that all intellectual acquisitions are of little value without the cultivation of piety, and that they are expected and required to pay special attention to the practical duties of religion, such as reading the Scriptures, secret prayer and meditation, occasional acts of special consecration of themselves to Christ and to His service, as their Redeemer and as the Lord of all, attendance at regular meetings on the Sabbath and during the week, endeavors to promote the salvation of others, and the exhibition at all times of a pious and consistent example.

2. Inasmuch as the scholarships granted by the Board will necessarily fall short of a full support of the students, it will be expected that they and their friends will make all proper exertions to supply whatever may be wanting.

3. When a student shall find it necessary to relinquish study for a time in order to increase his means for support by teaching or otherwise, he shall first obtain the consent of the Education Committee of the Presbytery or of the Board; and if, when given, he shall not be absent from study more than three months, his scholarship will be continued, but if longer, it will be discontinued, or continued in part, according to circumstances.

4. It shall be the duty of each candidate connected with the Board to report himself, soon after the meeting of the General Assembly, to the Education Committee of his Presbytery as to his progress, wants and prospects; and when any of the requisitions of the Board which affect him may not be carried out by teachers or others, it becomes his duty to see that they are attended to, that delays and losses to himself may be prevented.

5. The reception of a scholarship by a student shall be considered as expressing a promise to comply with all the rules and regulations of the Board.

VI.—EXCEPTIONAL CASES.

1. The Board will not ordinarily take under its care as candidates for the ministry any who have not completed a course preparatory to college. If exceptional cases are recommended by Presbyteries the Board should be certified that there has been a season of thorough trial and approval under competent teachers through two or three years.

2. Such students are not to expect the benefit of scholarships for more than two years before entering college.

NOTE.—In stating the place and stage of study of the candidate, name the class and institution in which he will be under instruction for the year which the recommendation is intended to cover; e.g., if the recommendation is made out in the spring, name the institution and class which the candidate is to enter in the fall.

Presbyterian Recommendation of a Candidate to "The Board of Education of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A."

Do not fail to send note accompanying Professor's Report giving excuses or explanations for any "Low" or "Medium Minus" marks, and also for any marks for Character, Punctuality or Economy less than "High."

Professor's Report to the Presbyterian Board of Education, 511 WITHERSPOON BUILDING, PHILADELPHIA.

As to students at ..... (Location) .....
 (Date) ..... (Signed) ..... In behalf of the Faculty.

This form is for the use of teachers or professors of literary or theological institutions, in reporting to the Board the progress and character of students for the ministry under their care, who have been recommended by the Presbyteries for aid from the funds of the Church. The grade or opinion on the points specified may be given in the terms High; Medium Plus; Medium; Medium Minus; and Low; or in such other terms as will best express the views of the Reporter. Under "Scholarship," the class standing may be inserted.

The report should be made carefully and conscientiously; and returned, without inspection by others, by the authorized teacher or professor directly to the Secretary of the Board. Any additional remarks or statements will be gratefully received and may be very useful to the Board.

Regular appropriations are made at the meetings of the Board in November and March. The blanks above for the name and locality of the institution, and the date of sending, should be filled up; and the reports should be mailed in time to reach the Office of the Board before the period mentioned.

It is respectfully suggested to instructors that it would be well to privately remind students, before the spring meetings of the Presbyteries, of the necessity of the annual renewal of the Presbyterial recommendation to the Board, in order that aid may be continued.

Do not write in these two columns	NAMES.	STAGE OF STUDY.	CHRISTIAN CHARACTER.	SCHOLARSHIP.	RHETORICAL ABILITY.	PUNCTUALITY.	ECONOMY.

HINTS to the Chairmen of Education Committees of Presbyteries as to the Recommendation of Candidates to the Presbyterian Board of Education.

1. The Board desire to emphasize particularly the importance of a full and complete answer to every question pertaining to each particular case under consideration. They cannot act upon an incomplete recommendation whether it be a "renewal" or a "new case," and omissions, with the consequent necessity for correspondence, cause delay often greatly to the inconvenience of the candidate.

2. Make sure, before any other action is taken, that the candidate has been recommended to Presbytery by the Session of his Church, as this is the fundamental requirement.

3. Always use the recommendation blanks provided by the Board.

4. Never put renewals on blanks intended for first recommendation; never put first recommendations on renewal blanks. You will thus prevent serious confusion at the office of the Board.

5. Write the recommendations plainly in ink; never use pencil.

6. Do not write anything on the recommendation blanks other than is required by the answers. Additional notes of explanation which may be necessary should be sent in an accompanying letter.

7. In stating the place and stage of study of the candidate name the class and institution in which he will be under instruction for the year which the recommendation is intended to cover; e.g., if the recommendation is made out in the spring, name the institution and class which the candidate is to enter in the fall.

8. Use new Recommendation blank for all candidates who have never been accepted and enrolled by the Board, no matter how many times recommended in past years. Use Renewal blank for all candidates who have been at any time enrolled by the Board even though subsequently dropped.

9. If a candidate, who has at any time previously been under the care of the Board, comes to you from another Presbytery, send to us your recommendation in the form of a renewal; and give us the name of the Presbytery from which you receive him.

10. Recommendations for new candidates should be sent in as early as may be convenient; but renewals should ordinarily be deferred until Presbyteries have had time to consider each case in the light of all information obtainable as to candidate's conduct and work during the year. Such cases are not in the least imperiled by the delay occasioned by this patient consideration.

11. If the candidate does not propose to pursue his studies, preparatory to theology, in an institution which sympathizes with the doctrinal teachings of the Presbyterian Church [as our rules require, except in extraordinary cases], send us the assurance that he has the explicit permission of his Presbytery, and the reason for the permission.

12. If the candidate is from a foreign country, the assurance must be sent to us that he intends to exercise his ministry in connection with the Church in the United States.

13. In corresponding about a candidate, always mention the Presbytery to which he belongs. This will help us greatly in looking up his case.

14. Do not mutilate the recommendation blanks, but mail them, properly folded, in a large envelope. This will aid us in filing and indexing.

15. Take no action without careful study of the printed rules prescribed for our mutual guidance by the General Assembly.

REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE ON PUBLICATION AND SABBATH-SCHOOL WORK.

Presented to and approved by the General Assembly at Des Moines, Iowa, May 23, 1906.

Your Committee on the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work respectfully reports as follows:

This Board carries on four lines of activities: Missionary, Sabbath-school Training, Literary and Commercial.

In the last named, it differs from all other Boards of the Church. It is organized into three distinct Departments: (1.) The Sabbath-school and Missionary Department, which is immediately under the direction of the Secretary of the Board, the Rev. Alexander Henry, D. D., who, in addition to his duties as general Executive, superintends the work of this Department. The Rev. James A. Worden, D. D., who has been appointed by the Board Superintendent of Sabbath-school Training, has been given the special work of developing greater efficiency in Sabbath-school organization and methods. (2.) The Editorial Department, which is under the superintendency of the Rev. J. R. Miller, D. D., supervises, prepares and edits its publications of all kinds. (3.) The Business Department, under the management of Mr. John H. Scribner, conducts a number of book stores, called Depositories in different parts of the country, and attends to the printing, publishing and circulating of the publications of the Board. Two-thirds of the net profits of this Department are paid annually into the Sabbath-school and Missionary Department for its missionary work; the other third is added to the capital of the Board.

Your Committee has examined the Minutes of the Board, considered the papers transmitted to it, and conferred personally with the representatives of the Board. We find the Minutes kept in an entirely satisfactory manner, and that the accounts of the Treasurer of the Trustees, and of the Treasurer of the Business Department, have been duly audited and found correct. The officers and members of the Board have been faithful, diligent, and efficient in the work committed to them, performing their duties in no perfunctory manner. This important branch of our Church's work seems to us to be administered with Christian wisdom and devotion.

In all three Departments the past year was one of gratifying progress. In the circulation of its literature, in the number of workers on the field, in contributions received to the Missionary Department, and in the amount of sales at its Depositories, this has been the best year in the history of the Board.

THE EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT.

During the past year the Board has published few books. This is due partly to the decrease, as reported to us, in all quarters of the demand for certain classes of religious books, so that some recent publications of the Board have resulted in a financial loss, and partly to the difficulty in securing suitable manuscripts of the kind that our Board can publish. For the present, therefore, the Board deems it safer to use its resources in the line of Church publications, periodicals, and Sabbath-school helps, rather than of general religious books.

In this line, however, we may point with pride to periodicals and Lesson Helps, which for completeness in scope to meet all the wants of schools using the International Lesson Series, and for quality in the various grades, are not, in our opinion, surpassed, if, indeed, they are equalled. Particularly would we call attention to "The Westminster Teacher," and to the paper "Forward," as being of the highest order of merit.

Your Committee, however, feels that a restriction for which the Board is not responsible, hampers its efforts after the highest degree of efficiency from a pedagogical standpoint, in its Lesson Helps, by reason of the insistence of a large part of the Church upon adherence to the International Series of Lessons. The very form of this Series—fragmentary, limited to a few verses, and often interrupted by special lessons—makes systematic Bible instruction in Helps based upon it, a practical impossibility. To meet this defect, the Board has, indeed, prepared an excellent series of Supplemental Lessons, which we strongly commend to Sabbath-schools. But we fear that so long as the Sabbath-school session is limited to one hour a week, with devotional exercises, any attempt to introduce a double set of lessons cannot hope for the largest measure of success, and must be regarded as an emergency device to meet an evil inherent in the present form of the International Lessons.

We feel, therefore, that with the rising demand for greater efficiency in Sabbath-school organization and methods, the time has come for our Church, through its representative General Assembly, to voice a protest against the continued employment of scrappy, disconnected or widely separated Scripture selections as a basis for Sabbath-school instruction, and a demand for the adoption of a more scientific scheme of study which shall give our pupils a wider and more intelligent comprehension of the Bible as a whole, combined, perhaps, with the minuter study of its richer and more important sections in their natural place.

THE SABBATH-SCHOOL AND MISSIONARY DEPARTMENT.

The work conducted by this Department is evangelistic, pastoral, Sabbath-school development, and even, at times, the administration of physical relief. Its missionaries often go far in advance of the Home missionary, finding the scattered sheep and lambs and shepherding them, gathering the nuclei of future churches into preliminary organizations, and cherishing them until they can have pastors. They are the circuit riders of Presbyterianism, its scouts reconnoitering for the advancing army.

We shall not weary you with many figures. These can be read in the Board's Report. Suffice it to say, that last year 151 Sabbath-school missionaries and colporteurs were engaged in this work in all parts of our land from New York to Washington, and from Minnesota to Texas and Florida; in 30 Synods, among Americans and foreigners, white and blacks; in cities, country districts and mining and lumber regions. They visited in homes, praying with the people, selling and giving away periodicals, tracts, books and Bibles; they held evangelistic services, organized and cherished Sabbath-schools, conducted Conventions and Institutes, and distributed over $4,000 worth of clothing to the needy.

In the Sabbath-schools under their care, during the year, they ministered to 135,798 persons, organized 715 new schools, and revived 317 lapsed Sabbath-schools; and developed from former schools 82 churches—74 of which were Presbyterian. An average of 53 churches a year for the past 18 years has grown out of the work of these missionaries.

Two features of the work of this Department, in lines recently opened, especially attract our attention:

1. Most commendable efforts are made by our Board, with the limited resources at its command, to meet the religious needs of the vast numbers of foreign immigrants which are flooding some localities in our land. During the past year 24 colporteurs have labored among Italians, Magyars, Bohemians, Slovacks, Croatians, Ruthenians, Lithuanians, Russians, Poles, French, Spanish and other foreigners in Pennsylvania, New Jersey, West Virginia, Delaware, Maryland, Illinois, Ohio, Texas, Nebraska and California. Special publications are provided in the languages of some of these peoples, including a weekly paper in the Bohemian and a monthly in the Hungarian language.

2. Valuable work for improving the method and increasing the efficiency of our Sabbath-schools has been done by Dr. Henry, Secretary of the Board, and by Dr. Worden, Superintendent of Sabbath-school Training. This has been sought by the holding of Sabbath-school Institutes and Conferences, by lecture courses delivered by Dr. Worden in theological seminaries, and by new emphasis laid upon the subject of Teacher Training.

Teachers adequately taught for Sabbath-school work are one of the great needs in all churches to-day. We would earnestly commend to the Sabbath-schools of our Church the "Westminster Teacher Training Course" as the best book for the training of Presbyterian Sabbath-school teachers.

The General Assembly notes with profound regret the fact reported by the Board of the decreasing use of the Shorter Catechism. It is of the first importance that our young people be systematically instructed in the fundamental teachings of the Scriptures, as well as in a comprehensive knowledge of the Book itself. No such concise, accurate and balanced statement of these teachings, within brief compass, exists in our language as that found in the Westminster Shorter Catechism.

THE BUSINESS DEPARTMENT.

The volume of business during the past year was larger than ever before, but the net profit was about $13,350 less than last year. This was due to several causes, chiefly to the very conservative inventory of the Board's stock at the end of the year, and a forced sale of stock necessitated by the removal of the store in the Witherspoon Building to the second floor. The cost of the manufacture of books and periodicals has increased largely, reducing the rates of profit, so that even with larger sales, smaller actual profits have accrued. In addition, there have been some extraordinary expenses, among them that of literature supplied to the Temperance Committee and the Permanent Committee on Young People's Societies, at the direction of the last General Assembly.

This Department has, nevertheless, been able to transfer $17,995.29 to the Sabbath-school and Missionary Department, and to add $8,997.64 to the permanent capital of the Board.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

We would respectfully present the following recommendations for adoption:

1. That the General Assembly approve the Minutes of the Board and the Treasurer's reports, and commend the fidelity, efficiency and wisdom with which the officers and members of the Board have discharged their duties.

2. That the election of the Rev. Samuel McLanahan, to fill the unexpired term of the Rev. Thomas McBride Nichols, resigned, be confirmed.

3. That the following members of the Board, whose terms expire next month, be re-elected to serve three years :

Ministers:

WILLIAM BRENTON GREENE, D. D.,
LOYAL Y. GRAHAM, D. D.,
MERVIN J. ECKLES, D. D.,
SAMUEL McLANAHAN.

Elders:

WILLIAM W. ALLEN,
THOMAS W. SYNNOTT,
GEORGE HALE, M. D.,
JOHN H. CONVERSE, LL. D.

4. That this General Assembly approves the appointment by the Board of the Rev. James A. Worden, D. D., as Superintendent of Sabbath-school Training, in connection with the Sabbath-school and Missionary Department; and it earnestly recommends that our Sabbath-school workers heartily coöperate with all these efforts of the Board to elevate and improve our Sabbath-schools.

5. That the thanks of the General Assembly be extended to the American Bible Society for its generous grants of Bibles and Testaments for distribution by our Sabbath-school missionaries among people destitute of Scriptures.

6. That the General Assembly approves of this continuance, by this Board, of the publication of literature for the Permanent Committee on Temperance to the value of $1,000.

7. That the General Assembly approves of the steps already taken looking towards coöperation between the missionary Department of this Board and the Board of Home Missions, and recommends the continuance of efforts in this direction, and especially, where advisable, the placing of the work of the Sabbath-school missionary and the pastor-at-large, within the bounds of the same Presbytery, into the hands of one person, when a suitable man can be found.

8. That the efforts of the Board in prosecuting special work among foreigners be heartily commended, and the Board be encouraged to press forward as rapidly as possible in the same. In order to provide funds to enable it the better to do so, the General Assembly urges our Sabbath-schools to make liberal offerings on Rally Day for that purpose.

9. That the General Assembly commends the plan known as the Forward Movement in Sabbath-school Missions, by which the support of particular missionaries is assumed by Presbyteries, churches, Sabbath-schools and individuals, and recommends its wider adoption.

10. That, in view of the nature and increasing importance of the work of the Sabbath-school missionary, and of the value of special training for those engaged in it, the General Assembly, in accordance with a suggestion from the Board, recommends to such institutions of learning under the control of our Church, as may find it desirable and practicable to do so, the inauguration of a Two Years' Course of special instruction and training for persons intending to enter this work; and recommends that the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work should urge all such persons to avail themselves of such a Course.

11. That this General Assembly re-affirms the action of former Assemblies in recommending the teaching of the Westminster Shorter Catechism, and urges upon parents, pastors, sessions and Sabbath-school officers, the importance of seeing that such instruction is given in the home and in the Sabbath-school.

12. There is referred to this Committee a joint request from the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work and the Permanent Committee on Young People's Societies, addressed to this Assembly, viz :

"That an additional Department of this Board be created, to be known as a Department of Young People's Work, and a Secretary or Superintendent be employed by the Board for this purpose."

We recommend the following action by this General Assembly: This General Assembly does not approve of the employment of an official, any part of whose duties shall be to attempt, for the present, to introduce new organizations among our young people. This General Assembly recognizes the great value of Christian Training Courses, such as have been inaugurated by the Committee on Young People's Work, but adapted and offered, as these are, not alone to young people but to all who may desire such help, and this Assembly should strongly recommend the further development and perfecting of such courses by it, should the proposed new Department of the Board be formed.

With these definitions of its mind and purpose, the General Assembly refers the whole matter of the creation of such a Department and the development of such a work to the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work, to be carried out in such ways and at such times as it may deem best.

13. That in the case of moneys left or given to it without designation as to the use of such money, or as to the securities in which it shall be invested, the General Assembly hereby authorizes the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work to apply such moneys at its discretion toward the reduction of the indebtedness secured by the mortgage on the Witherspoon Building.

14. That the General Assembly authorizes the Trustees of the Board, through the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work, as requested by it, to invest the funds derived from the estate of the late George W. Farr, according to the provisions of his will, in securities other than those known under the laws of Pennsylvania as "legal" securities.

15. Overture No. 84, asking for a periodical in the Hungarian language, has been referred to this Committee. In view of previous action by this Assembly, involving the same subject, we recommend no action on this Overture.

Respectfully submitted in behalf of the Committee.

(Signed) T. V. MOORE,

SIXTY-EIGHTH ANNUAL REPORT
OF THE
Presbyterian Board of Publication and Sabbath-School Work.

APPROVED BY THE BOARD MAY 1ST, 1906.

With gratitude to God for past and present blessings, the Board presents to the General Assembly this, its Sixty-eighth Annual Report, covering the year beginning April 1st, 1905, and closing March 31st, 1906.

The year just closed has been a year of progress. The circulation of our lesson helps and papers has increased; the contributions to our Missionary Work have been greater, and more missionaries and colporteurs have been employed than in any previous year.

Our aim has been to advance steadily along the lines of effort laid down in previous years, while we have, at the same time, undertaken new lines of work. Among these, the more prominent are the publication of religious literature in foreign languages; the holding of Missionary Conferences and Sabbath-school Institutes; and the delivery of courses of lectures on Sabbath-school Work in our Theological Seminaries.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S WORK.

The General Assembly of 1905 referred the whole subject of the employment of a Secretary for Young People's Work to the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work and the Permanent Committee on Young People's Societies, to report fully to the next Assembly.

In pursuance of this action, a conference was held between a Committee of the Board and a Committee representing the Permanent Committee on Young People's Societies. At this meeting the following joint report was agreed upon, which was subsequently approved and adopted by the Board:

"This joint Committee recommends to the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work and the Permanent Committee on Young People's Societies, that each body should request the next General Assembly to assign the work of the Young People to the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work; and that an additional department of that Board be created, to be known as the Department of Young People's Work, and a Secretary or Superintendent be employed by the Board for this purpose."

RELIGIOUS LITERATURE FOR OUR FOREIGN-SPEAKING POPULATION.

The Board was instructed by the last General Assembly to enter into negotiations with the Chairmen of Committees on Foreign Work and with representatives of the Presbyteries of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, in order that plans should be formed for providing religious literature for our foreign-speaking population at the earliest possible date.

Conferences were held and plans agreed upon; and during the entire year this question has received the earnest consideration of the Board and of a Special Committee appointed to deal with this important subject. As a result, we are able to report to the General Assembly that a sixteen page weekly religious paper in the Bohemian language, with a paid circulation of more than 1,500 subscribers, is being published. We have also entered into an agreement with the Reformed Church in the United States for the joint publication of a monthly Sabbath-school paper in the Hungarian language. In addition to this, we are publishing Bible picture cards, with appropriate texts and comments, in the Italian, Spanish, Bohemian, Hungarian, Polish and Ruthenian languages. These cards are used in foreign-speaking Sabbath-schools of various denominations, both in America and Europe, and are distributed by our colporteurs.

THE INDEBTEDNESS ON THE WITHERSPOON BUILDING.

The General Assembly of 1903 appointed a Special Committee, of which the Rev. William H. Roberts, D. D., was made Chairman, for the purpose of securing contributions for the discharge of the indebtedness resting on the Witherspoon Building. This Committee reported to the Assemblies of 1904 and 1905, and was continued.

On the 23rd of November, 1905, this Committee met with the Business Committee of the Board. At this meeting it was agreed that the proper time had come to undertake the work of removing the indebtedness. An Executive Committee was accordingly appointed, and a "Statement and Appeal" prepared, which will be used in the effort to secure the desired contributions.

It is earnestly hoped that we may be able to report to the next Assembly that the indebtedness resting on the Witherspoon Building, now amounting to * $410,000, has been provided for.

CO-OPERATION WITH THE BOARD OF HOME MISSIONS.

It is the desire of this Board, as we reported to the last General Assembly, cordially to co-operate with the Board of Home Missions in carrying on the missionary work of the two Boards.

To plan for this co-operation, a conference was held in New York on the 6th of October, 1905, between Committees appointed by the Board of Home Missions and the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work.

At this conference, plans were formed which we trust

* Since the close of the fiscal year, $25,000 have been paid on this indebtedness, reducing it to $385,000.

will result in harmonious and effective work on the missionary fields. A letter signed by the Secretaries of the two Boards, was sent to Stated Clerks and Chairmen of Committees on Home Missions, and Publication and Sabbath-school Work, in every Presbytery in which our Sabbath-school missionaries are laboring, asking that efforts be made to secure more effective co-operation; and especially that the Committees representing the Boards, shall have frequent conferences, and shall so plan the work that it may be carried on in a wise and economical manner.

In the Sabbath-school missionary conferences that have been held during the year, this subject has received attention; and the question of closer co-operation with the Board of Home Missions has been discussed. In every instance it was found that our Sabbath-school missionaries were favorable to the plans proposed, and would do all in their power to make them effective.

In the interest of co-operation, the Sabbath-school missionary work of our Board in Cuba, was transferred during the year to the Board of Home Missions; and in the self-supporting Synods we have placed our colporteurs laboring among foreigners under the direction of the Committee on Home Missions, or the Special Committee on Foreign Work, wherever such a Committee has been appointed.

It was also agreed that the work at Ellis Island, for the incoming foreigners, should be done jointly—the Board of Home Missions providing the missionary, and the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work supplying him with religious literature for distribution.

A SPECIAL COURSE OF TRAINING FOR MISSIONARIES.

Our Board has experienced considerable difficulty in securing men possessing the peculiar qualifications necessary for successfully performing the work of a Sabbath-school missionary.

This fact has been emphasized by the increasing demand for Sabbath-school missionaries, occasioned by the numerous appeals we are receiving from Presbyteries all over the country.

It seems evident that the Board must secure a larger income, and increase its force of missionaries. These missionaries will have to be obtained, for the most part, from the ranks of our earnest and consecrated laymen. The consideration of these facts led to the adoption of the following resolution by the Board:

“In view of the experience of the past and the outlook of the future, the Board is of the opinion that those who contemplate taking up such work as that conducted by the missionaries under the charge of this Board, ought to have the opportunity of preparing themselves, by special study and training along appropriate lines, for the most efficient and successful prosecution of the work to which they may look forward.

“The Board is also of the opinion that instruction and training along these kindred lines, should be furnished in one or more of the institutions of learning which are under the control or direction of our Church.

“The Board therefore requests the General Assembly to take the matter into serious consideration, and, if the views hereinbefore expressed shall meet with its approval, to devise some plan to accomplish the desired result.”

LITERATURE FOR THE PERMANENT COMMITTEE

ON TEMPERANCE.

During the year the Board has printed for the Permanent Committee on Temperance literature to the value of one thousand dollars, for free distribution among our churches and Sabbath-schools.

In view of the importance of instruction upon this subject, the Board proposes, with the approval of the General Assembly, to publish, in conjunction with the Permanent Committee on Temperance, an equal amount of temperance literature during the coming year, for the same purpose.

THE ELECTION OF MR. McLANAHAN.

The Rev. Thomas McBride Nichols, having resigned his position during the past year as a member of the Board, the Rev. Samuel McLanahan, of Lawrenceville, New Jersey, has been elected to fill the unexpired term.

The Assembly is respectfully requested to confirm Mr. McLanahan's election.

EXPIRATION OF TERM OF OFFICE.

The term of office of the following members of the Board will expire next month:

Ministers:	Elders:
REV. WILLIAM BRENTON GREENE, D. D.,	WILLIAM W. ALLEN,
REV. LOYAL YOUNG GRAHAM, D. D.,	THOMAS W. SYNNOTT,
REV. MERVIN J. ECKELS, D. D.,	GEORGE HALE, M. D.,
REV. SAMUEL McLANAHAN.	JOHN H. CONVERSE, LL. D.

The Board respectfully recommends to the Assembly that these Ministers and Elders be re-elected to serve for three years.

TO REPRESENT THE BOARD.

The Hon. Robert N. Willson, President of the Board, and John H. Converse, LL. D., have been appointed to represent the Board, in connection with the Secretary, at the meeting of the General Assembly.

SABBATH-SCHOOL AND MISSIONARY WORK.

THE FIELD. The Sabbath-school missionaries of this Board labored during the year in Washington, Oregon, California, Nevada, New Mexico, Arizona, Utah, Idaho, Montana, Colorado, North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas, Oklahoma, Indian Territory, Texas, Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Arkansas, Wisconsin, Illinois, Michigan, Indiana, Ohio, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, New York, West Virginia, Kentucky, Tennessee, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, Florida, and, for seven months, in the island of Cuba.

THE WORKERS. In these States and Territories, and in Cuba, the Board has had at work 127 Sabbath-school missionaries, and 24 colporteurs, laboring within the bounds of 30 Synods and 113 Presbyteries. Of these 16 were Synodical, and 135 were Presbyterial workers, making a total of 151.

NEW SABBATH-SCHOOLS ORGANIZED. They have organized 715 new Sabbath-schools, and revived 317, a total of 1,032, into which have been gathered 3,461 officers and teachers, and 33,022 scholars, making a total membership of 36,483.

DEVELOPING MISSION SCHOOLS. Our missionaries have also cared for and nurtured 2,581 Sabbath-schools which they had organized in previous years. The membership of these schools is 99,315.

WORK OTHER THAN ORGANIZATION. These missionaries have made 110,352 visits upon families, and have held 5,022 evangelistic services, in which 2,881 conversions came under their observation. Sabbath-school institutes and conventions to the number of 592 have been held.

In the homes and Sabbath-schools which they have visited, the missionaries have distributed large numbers of periodicals and tracts; and, in addition, have sold and given away 19,045 volumes. They have also distributed, by gift and sale, 8,920 Bibles and Testaments. (This includes the literature distributed by our missionary colporteurs).

CHURCHES DEVELOPED. The number of churches developed by our missionaries from their schools during the past year is 82, of which 74 are Presbyterian and 8 of other denominations.

PRESBYTERIAN BUILDINGS. The number of Presbyterian buildings erected last year as the outgrowth of the labors of Sabbath-school missionaries is 75. The value of these buildings is $127,310. Thus through the efforts of our Sabbath-school missionaries, over 80 per cent of the entire cost of the Sabbath-school and missionary work was returned to the Presbyterian Church in the money value of the buildings erected.

SABBATH-SCHOOLS ORGANIZED UNDER THE BOARD'S OFFER OF EQUIPMENT. In addition to the hundreds of struggling Sabbath-schools aided during the year by grants of periodicals, hymnals, libraries, and other supplies, 57 new Sabbath-schools, organized by others than Sabbath-school missionaries, have taken advantage of the Board's offer to furnish supplies free for the first year. Without this help it would have been impossible, in many cases, to maintain the school.

CLOTHING DISTRIBUTED.

Through the generosity of Women's Missionary Societies, Mission Bands, and Sabbath-schools, our Sabbath-school missionaries have been able to relieve much distress among those who were found without sufficiently warm clothing. The Woman's Board of Home Missions has taken formal action extending their co-operation in such work, and has offered to do what they can to furnish such help as may be needed by the families of Sabbath-school missionaries who may require such assistance.

Our Sabbath-school missionaries distributed during the year 100 boxes and barrels, valued at $4,191.

REVIEW OF EIGHTEEN YEARS' WORK.

The value of Presbyterian Sabbath-school Missions is demonstrated by the simple statement that in eighteen years 966 Presbyterian churches have grown from our mission Sabbath-schools, an average of 53 new Presbyterian churches every year. Other denominations, also, have shared in the fruits of the work and have gathered from them 513 churches. The whole number of churches, organized since 1887, is 1,479—an average of over 82 churches every year.

PRESBYTERIAL COMMITTEES.

We have been gratified to note the cordial response to the special efforts which we have made during the year to magnify the office and work of our Presbyterial Committees on Publication and Sabbath-school Work. Plans have been placed in operation by which the scope of these Committees will be widened and their work given the important place which it deserves.

The Secretary of the Board has prepared and distributed a manual for the guidance of such Committees.

It is planned to hold a Sabbath-school Institute, annually, in each Presbytery, for the improvement and training of Presbyterian Sabbath-school workers, and to bring the Sabbath-school Missionary work of our Board more prominently before the pastors, elders, and congregations. Through these Committees, laboring earnestly along these practical lines, we look for an advance movement in Presbyterian Sabbath-school work.

THE FORWARD MOVEMENT IN SABBATH-SCHOOL MISSIONS.

Our plan of securing the support of newly appointed missionaries, and of missionaries already at work, has met with encouraging responses.

There are 54 of our missionaries now supported by churches, Sabbath-schools and generous individual contributors; and in some cases by the combined gifts of all the Sabbath-schools of a Presbytery. In this way intelligent information is imparted, and the constituency at home is brought into living touch with the work on the field.

GRANTS.

Grants amounting in value to $9,770.46 were made as follows (see page 17) :

Periodicals, books, and tracts to Sabbath-schools, churches, pas- tors, and missionary workers.....	$6,446 32
Bibles as rewards for memorizing Shorter Catechism.....	1,104 34
For publication of Bohemian Sabbath-school paper.....	300 00
For publication of Bohemian weekly paper (Christian Journal)..	1,570 44
Grant of Westminster Teacher to Foreign Missionaries.....	349 36
	$9,770 46

Contributions to the amount of $2,291.13 were made through the Board to aid in the erection of chapels, and to other special objects, as designated by the donors.

CHILDREN'S DAY AND RALLY DAY.

An increase in the interest of Sabbath-schools in our work is evident from the generous gifts of the past year on Children's Day, and Rally Day, the total receipts from these celebrations amounting to $64,272.29. The number of Sabbath-schools using our programs on Children's Day was 4,050; 905 Sabbath-schools used our Rally Day programs, and took an offering for our work among foreigners, in accordance with the recommendation of the General Assembly.

MISSIONARY BIBLE FUND.

The total amount credited to the Missionary Bible Fund, from the interest on the Benjamin, Guthrie and Pinkerton legacies for the "distribution of Bibles and Testaments among the destitute" is $1,467.60.

Our Board gives away a large number of Bibles and Testaments each year, through our colporteurs, and the value of these will hereafter be charged against this fund. This will be done on account of the fact that our Board is compelled to purchase all Scriptures in foreign languages distributed by our colporteurs; the American Bible Society being unable, through lack of sufficient funds, to grant these editions.

MISSIONARY WORK AMONG FOREIGNERS.

During the year we have had 24 colporteurs laboring among Italians, Hungarians (Magyars), Bohemians, Slovaks, Croatians, Ruthenians, Lithuanians, Russians, Poles, French, Spanish, and other foreigners, in Pennsylvania, New Jersey, West Virginia, Delaware, Maryland, Illinois, Ohio, Texas, Nebraska, and California.

In the performance of their labors they visited 31,727 families, distributing 14,647 religious books and 497,123 pages of tracts, besides 4,800 Bibles, Testaments and Gospels in many different languages.

The success of our colporteur work among foreign-speaking peoples has demonstrated the adaptability of this form of evangelization to their spiritual needs, and opens to our Board an ever-widening field of missionary effort.

One of our Bohemian colporteurs has been stationed during the entire year at the port of Baltimore, where from 1,200 to 1,500 Slavic immigrants land each week. He places the Gospel in their hands, with a tract; and helps them in every possible way; finding employment or directing them to the distant State where they expect to settle permanently. He also conducts two flourishing Sabbath-schools in the suburbs of Baltimore, composed entirely of children of foreigners. This is but an example. Our Italian colporteurs in Newark, N. J., Wilmington, Del., Bristol, Pa., Devon, Pa., and in many other places, are conducting Sabbath-schools and regular preaching services in addition to their work of visitation. In several places a number of Italians have been received into our churches upon a public confession of their faith in Christ.

As the forerunner of permanent churches among foreign peoples, our colporteur work has been found indispensable. Even in Presbyteries where Home Mission Committees are actively engaged in foreign work, our colporteurs are earnestly sought to secure accurate information and to prepare the ground for the missionary pastor. Presbyteries desiring to inaugurate missionary work among their foreign population have called upon us for the services of a colporteur for a few weeks to introduce the work and to make a thorough canvass. Such requests have been readily granted, with the result that individual churches are beginning to undertake local mission work for these people, establishing night schools for the study of English and bringing them under Gospel influences.

Our Sabbath-schools have done well in partially supporting this work by their Rally Day offerings. We look for a more general observance of the Day this year and for the manifestation of greater interest in the needs of this work, especially by our churches. The possibilities are unlimited, and with the funds to support an increased number of workers to spread the Truth in places where no work has yet been attempted, we believe that the transforming power of the Word in overcoming the darkness of ignorance and superstition will be clearly manifested.

The total sales of Bibles, Testaments, books, tracts, etc., by our colporteurs among foreigners amounted to $1,873.53.

SABBATH-SCHOOL TRAINING.

The value of the work being done by the Sabbath-school is being more and more highly appreciated by the Church.

It is being recognized that the Church has no more important or profitable work than the improvement and development of its Sabbath schools.

In the recent reorganization of the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work, it was possible for us to give greater prominence to this work than it had heretofore received.

The Rev. James A. Worden, D. D., as Superintendent of Sabbath-school Training, has given his entire attention during the past year to this important phase of our work. Efforts have been made in various ways to instruct and inspire the Sabbath-school workers of our Church, setting before them the most approved methods of Sabbath-school work, and encouraging them to make use of these methods.

This has been done by the preparation of leaflets on various subjects, which have been sent to pastors and superintendents; by correspondence; by visits to Presbyteries and Synods; and by encouraging Presbyteries to hold annual Sabbath-school Institutes.

A plan for the organization of a Presbyterial Sabbath-school Association has been prepared, and already a number of Presbyteries have adopted it.

Special attention has been given to Teacher Training. The subject has been brought to the attention of pastors and superintendents by letters, leaflets, and addresses delivered at Institutes and Conferences. As a result of these efforts, we can report that the number of Teacher Training classes is growing, and that the attention of our Church is being turned to this subject as never before.

A variety of text books are being used in these classes. It is our desire and our effort to introduce, whenever it is possible, the Westminster Teacher Training Course prepared by our Board. It is somewhat more difficult, but we believe that it is decidedly the best book for Presbyterian Sabbath-school workers. This is especially true of the Course for the second year, which contains lessons that it would be well for all Presbyterians to learn, upon the history, the doctrine, the polity, and the missionary and benevolent work of our Church.

The General Assembly of 1905 recommended our Theological Seminaries to provide instruction for their students in the principles and methods of modern Sabbath-school work.

To assist the Seminaries in carrying out this recommendation, a series of lectures on Sabbath-school topics has been prepared. These lectures have been delivered in the Cumberland Theological Seminary at Lebanon, Tennessee, the Kentucky Presbyterian Theological Seminary at Louisville, the Omaha Theological Seminary, the Princeton Theological Seminary, and in Lincoln University.

SHORTER CATECHISM.

We regret to report that the teaching of the Shorter Catechism seems to be decreasing in our Sabbath-schools. Out of 8,681 schools only 3,326 report that the Catechism is being taught. This is 272 less than last year. An effort will be made to keep this subject before the minds of our Sabbath-school workers.

One way to do this is by the more general distribution of our Catechism Reward Bibles. To enable us to do this without drawing too largely upon our missionary funds, an effort is being made to secure a fund of $25,000, the interest of which shall be used for the purchase of these Reward Bibles.

We have received two subscriptions of one-tenth each of the entire sum. We hope during the coming year to secure the entire amount.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.

The Board acknowledges with gratitude, the promptness and generosity of the American Bible Society in responding to its applications for grants of Bibles and Testaments for distribution by our Sabbath-school missionaries among those who are destitute of the Scriptures. In so doing it has greatly assisted our labors.

To the Secretaries of the Board of Home Missions, and to the Synodical and other Missionaries of that Board, our gratitude is due for their valuable co-operation in every field of missionary work.

We express our appreciation of the faithful supervision of our work on the field by the Synodical and Presbyterian Committees on Publication and Sabbath-school Work, and of the help which they have extended in making the Sabbath-school Work of our Church more efficient.

During the past year our contributions from churches, Sabbath-schools and individuals showed an increase of $4,968.45 over the contributions of the previous year. This increase in our funds enabled us to make corresponding increase in our expenditures for missionary work amounting to $4,752.52. Thus it will be noted that as our receipts have increased, we have enlarged our work proportionately. The percentage for administration is 5.50. This expense is more than covered by the appropriation from the profits of the Business Department.

The total amount expended in carrying forward the work of the Sabbath-school and Missionary Work is $27,512.39 in excess of the total amount contributed by churches, Sabbath-schools and individuals, showing that the Board itself added 21 cents to every dollar given for this work.

THE LESSON HELPS

The following is a brief description of the character and purpose of the periodicals published by the Board:—

The Westminster Teacher is a monthly magazine, specially prepared for teachers and officers of Sabbath-schools and for use in adult classes. It contains full and varied expositions of the International Bible Lessons. Professor John D. Davis, D. D., LL. D., the Rev. E. Morris Fergusson, Professor Amos R. Wells, A. M., the Rev. A. H. McKinney, Ph. D., Miss Josephine L. Baldwin, and Miss Marion Thomas furnish departments of the lesson work. The Editor writes the "Application of the Lesson." This magazine is published in octavo form, each number containing from 48 to 60 pages, with cover. Price, single copy, by mail, per annum, 60 cents; school subscriptions, to one address, 50 cents per copy.

The Westminster Primary Quarterly, Teachers' Edition prepared by Miss Marion Thomas, is exclusively for teachers. It includes the notes formerly given in the Westminster Teacher besides the notes for the scholars. It contains 70 pages. Subscription price, 40 cents a year, or 12 cents a quarter.

The Westminster Senior Quarterly is used in older and adult classes. The principal work on this Quarterly is done by the Rev. A. H. McKinney, Ph. D. Each number contains full lesson material for three months, with Orders of Service, Maps, and other valuable matter, and contains 42 pages. Its wide circulation attests its popularity. School subscriptions, to one address, 16 cents a year; single copies, 20 cents.

The Westminster Intermediate Quarterly is designed for scholars of the Intermediate grade. It is prepared chiefly by the Rev. E. Morris Fergusson. It contains full lesson text, with notes, questions, and practical teachings. In it are found, also, Maps, Orders of Service, etc. Each number contains 42 pages. ## ILLUSTRATED PAPERS

Forward continues to grow in interest, as its increasing circulation, now considerably above a quarter of a million, attests. It is admittedly, both as to form and matter, a paper of the highest class. It is filled every week with the choicest things for its readers. The best writers for the young in all the country are among its contributors; and from readers of all ages we receive continually the most cordial and appreciative commendations. While intended primarily for older classes in Sabbath-schools, Forward is adapted also for young people in the home, the school, and everywhere. It has a Christian Endeavor Department, with brief notes on the weekly topics, and articles from time to time on the work of Christian Endeavor societies. The low price at which Forward is furnished brings it within the reach of all. In clubs it costs less than one cent a number. Single subscriptions, per year, 75 cents; subscription for two or more copies addressed to one person, 50 cents a year each.

The Sabbath-School Visitor is the oldest of the periodicals of the Board. It is adapted to a younger class of readers than Forward. It is an illustrated four-page paper, each number containing attractive and interesting matter. It is published weekly. Single subscriptions, per year, 50 cents; school subscriptions, to one address, 30 cents.

The Morning Star is issued to meet the demand in some schools for a paper at small cost. It is of the same quality, grade, and style as The Visitor, but only half its size. It is issued every week. Single subscriptions, 25 cents a year; school subscriptions, to one address, 15 cents.

The Sunbeam is a four-page weekly illustrated paper for very little people. It is attractive not only in its appearance, but also in its contents. No subscriptions are taken for less than one month. Single subscriptions, 30 cents a year; school subscriptions, to one address, 20 cents a year for each scholar.

BUSINESS DEPARTMENT.

According to the statement on page 37, there have been published during the year 2,100,665 copies of books and tracts, and 48,406,327 copies of periodicals, which, together with 8,400 copies of the Annual Report for the year ending March 31, 1905, make an aggregate of 50,515,392 publications for the year.

The work of placing these publications on the market is performed by means of the main store in Philadelphia, the Depositories in New York, Chicago, St. Louis, and San Francisco, and seven other houses where the publications of the Board can be obtained.

The Depositories conducted by the Board are as follows:

DEPOSITORIES.

New York, N. Y., C. W. Hippard, Manager, 156 Fifth Avenue.
 Chicago, Ill., W. P. Blessing, Manager, 192 Michigan Avenue.
 St. Louis, Mo., J. H. Springer, Manager, 1516 Locust Street.
 San Francisco, Cal., F. E. Heller, Manager.*

The other houses referred to are these:

Boston, Mass., H. D. Noyes & Co., 250 Devonshire Street.
 Cincinnati, Ohio, Western Tract Society, 420 Elm Street.
 Pittsburg, Pa., Board of Colportage, Sixth Street and Duquesne Way.
 Richmond, Va., The Presbyterian Committee of Publication, 212-214 North Sixth Street.
 Toronto, Ontario, Upper Canada Tract Society, 102 Yonge Street.
 Winnipeg, Manitoba, Russell, Lang & Co., 504 Main Street.
 London, England, Publication Committee Presbyterian Church of England, 14 Paternoster Square.

These houses, with the exception of the one in London, furnish all our publications at the Board's prices.

* Since May 1st the office of the Depository is temporarily located at 2438 Telegraph Avenue, Berkeley, California, owing to the San Francisco fire.

Our periodicals are still further brought to the attention of churches and Sabbath-schools by advertising in Sabbath-school and other papers, and by circulars addressed to pastors and Sabbath-school superintendents. Our missionaries also bring all classes of our publications to the notice of those who dwell in missionary districts.

SALES.

The sales for the year in books and tracts, including our own publications and those of other houses, were $292,025.52; and of periodicals, $373,907.71. These amounts, as they include credit sales, do not agree with the Treasurer's account, which account exhibits only cash received. The Treasurer's account includes cash received for the sales of the current year, and also cash received for the credit sales of preceding years.

The aggregate of the preceding sales includes not only the ordinary sales of the main house, and of the depositories and other houses, but all sales made to the Sabbath-school and Missionary Department. *

CAPITAL AND NET PROFITS.

The capital at the beginning of the year, according to the balance sheet of the last report, was $268,400.01. The net profits of the year were $26,992.93. Of this sum two-thirds, or $17,995.29, have been placed to the credit of the Sabbath-school and Missionary Fund, in accordance with the direction of the General Assembly, and will be paid in quarterly instalments during the year. The remaining third, or $8,997.64, has been added to the capital, making the amount as now reported $277,397.65.

* The Business Department sells all its publications to the Sabbath-school and Missionary Work at "the highest rate of discount allowed on the same class of publications to the most favored branch houses in this country"; the missionaries are required to sell for cash only.

THIRTY-SIXTH ANNUAL REPORT
OF THE
Board of the Church Erection Fund.

Presbyterian Church in the United States of America:*

With gratitude for what it has been permitted to accomplish during the year, the Board of the Church Erection Fund respectfully presents its Thirty-sixth* Annual Report as follows:

With deep sorrow the Board reports the loss by death of two of its most highly esteemed members, Mr. Hezekiah King and the Rev. Dr. Robert F. Sample, the former of whom was with one exception the oldest in office of the members of the Board. The following minutes, adopted respectively June 12 and September 11, 1905, record the appreciation of their fellow-members of the personal worth and distinguished services of their beloved brethren:

“The Board of Church Erection with deep sorrow records the death of one of its oldest and most valued members, Mr. Hezekiah King, who departed this life June 5, 1905.

“Mr. King became a member of this Board at the time of the Reunion in 1870, and for thirty-five years has been active and prominent in its service, being for the larger part of this period, with one exception, its senior member in office.

“While deeply interested in all departments of the Board’s work, its Manse and Loan Funds especially engaged his attention and he was largely instrumental in shaping the plans under which they are administered and in insuring their successful operation. Uniting great practical wisdom and an accurate knowledge of the Board’s work with a deep sense of the importance of its sphere in our Church life, his counsel and his conclusions were valued in the highest degree by his colleagues, while his serene temper and his courteous bearing won and held their sincere affection.

“To the bereaved family it is directed that an engrossed copy of this minute be sent, with the assurance of the sincere and respectful sympathy of all the members of the Board and the expression of their profound sense of personal loss in the departure of their late honored associate and beloved friend."

"The Board of Church Election with heartfelt grief records the death, upon August 12, 1905, of one of its most honored and beloved members, the Rev. Robert Fleming Sample, D.D., LL.D.

"Dr. Sample became a member of the Board in 1887, soon after he assumed the pastorate of the West Twenty-third Street Presbyterian Church of New York. His previous long and influential pastorate of the Westminster Church of Minneapolis gave him an intimate acquaintance with the great Northwestern region now covered by the States of Minnesota, North and South Dakota, and his counsel in the Board in reference to missionary aid was as valuable as his deep and abiding interest in the region where his young manhood had been spent was unflinching and pervasive.

"He was for many years Chairman of the Committee upon Church Applications, and was peculiarly fitted for this position by his great sympathy with his brethren upon the mission field and his practical knowledge of the conditions confronting the young churches of the West.

"In his lifework as a presbyter and pastor Dr. Sample held a very prominent place in our Church. In 1899, when the Assembly met in the church at Minneapolis of which he had been formerly pastor, his long and faithful service was recognized by his election as Moderator. Above all he was a thoroughly conscientious man, quiet and modest in demeanor, but of unflinching zeal in all that pertained to the welfare of the Kingdom.

"Deeply conscious of their own loss, the members of the Board tender to the family of their late friend and associate the assurance of their sincere sympathy and regard."

APPLICATIONS.

The applications received show a decided advance upon that of the previous year, especially those to the General Fund, which exceed in amount asked any previous year in the history of the Board.

In all departments the number of applications was 291, and the total amount of aid requested, either as grants or loans for church buildings or manses, was $272,694. Of the above applications 173, aggregating $135,584, were to the General Fund for church edifices, either for grants (155: $115,634), loans without interest (19: $15,050), or for such loans in addition to grants (5: $4,900); 30, aggregating $64,950, were for loans from the Loan Fund; 63, aggregating $32,160, were for loans from the Manse Fund; 21, aggregating $30,200, were for loans from the Raynolds Fund, and 4, aggregating $9,800, were for grants or loans from the Barber Fund. The total exceeds that of any previous year in the history of the Board, surpassing even the record year of 1904 by 6 in number and $25,259 in total amount. In fact the demand was beyond the resources of the Board, more especially in the matter of loans. Several of the applications to the General Fund were from churches which do not properly come within the sphere of grants. Eliminating these, the Board was finally able to respond to all demands for grants from our younger and weaker churches and to requests for loans in all cases where the need seemed urgent.

APPROPRIATIONS.

Appropriations in response to ordinary applications may be for church edifices either from the General Fund or the Loan Fund; for manses from the general Manse Fund, the Raynolds Fund or the Hoyt Fund. These funds are not restricted in their administration by territorial limits and are the main dependence of the Board in its general work. Aside from these there are the following funds, endowed by special bequests to which are attached conditions, viz.: the Barber Fund, for colored churches not under the care of the Board of Missions for Freedmen; the Buell Fund, to be used exclusively for feeble churches in the West; the Gilchrist Fund, the interest only available and for churches under the care of the Presbytery of Boston; the Van Meter Fund, for the benefit of churches under the care of the Presbytery of West Jersey.

The amount of these special funds will be found tabulated in the summary at the close of the Treasurer's report.

From the above funds the following appropriations have been made, the special grants from the Buell, Gilchrist and Stuart Funds, as subject to the same rules, being included under the report as to the General Fund.

1. General Fund (including Buell, Gilchrist, Van Meter and Stuart Funds).—This fund represents more particularly the original sphere of the Board's work, which was for a while exclusively the aiding feeble churches in the erection of inexpensive church edifices. To this fund go all the offerings, unless otherwise designated, of the churches, as also the interest from invested funds, the money received from the sale of abandoned church buildings, or returned by churches as they have grown stronger. From this fund during the year grants aggregating $105,757 were made to 151 churches, and loans to the amount of $7,850 (to be returned without interest in annual offerings) were made to thirteen churches. Thus the total number of appropriations was 164 and the entire amount appropriated (including, however, $15,400 to 22 churches from the Buell Fund and $471 to six churches from the Stuart Fund) was $113,607. This is an advance over the previous year of 45 in the number of churches aided and $48,036, or more than 73 per cent., in the amount appropriated. To avoid misapprehension it should be added that for special reasons the previous year presented results as much below the average as those of two years ago were above. As compared, however, with that record year, the present shows an advance of six in the number of churches aided and of $24,935, or more than 27 per cent., in amount. Thus, so far as the amount of appropriations is concerned, the year exceeds any other in the history of the Board.

2. The Loan Fund.—This fund represents trust funds which through bequests and otherwise have been committed to the Board for investment that the annual proceeds may be added to the General Fund, from which appropriations are made for feeble churches. In response to an overture from one of the Synods in 1891, the Assembly gave the Board permission to invest this fund in loans to churches which were not proper recipients of aid by way of grants. Such loans have now been made for fourteen years, and have been of substantial advantage to churches by enabling them to spread the expense of building over several years. The result has proved the beneficial character of the scheme, and a table given upon the next page will show precisely the results in each succeeding year. Ordinarily loans are made not exceeding $5,000, to be repaid in annual installments running from five to ten years with an interest equivalent to three per cent.

During the past year loans aggregating $52,875 were voted to 22 churches, the average loan thus being about $2,350.

3. The Barber Fund.—From this fund, the use of which under the terms of the bequest is confined to colored churches not under the care of the Board of Missions for Freedmen, appropriations have been made to three churches—one a loan without interest of $3,000, and two grants to the amount of $2,000. It should be noted that the principal of this bequest is held by the Trustees of the General Assembly and the interest therefrom divided under the terms of the will—one-half to the Board of Missions for Freedmen and one-quarter each to the Boards of Home Missions and Church Erection.

4. The Manse Fund.—From this fund, originally endowed by Mr. R. L. Stuart, and from time to time increased by bequests to a total of about $100,000, there have been 58 loans without interest to the amount of $25,550 and three grants aggregating $1,250—or in all 61 appropriations calling for $26,800. The average loan was $445.61, and the loans are to be repaid in annual installments running usually three years and never exceeding five.

The number of appropriations exceeded that of the previous year by ten and in total amount $3,135, an advance of a little more than 12 per cent.

5. The Raynolds Fund.—From this fund, founded upon the bequest of the late Gen. William F. Raynolds, of Detroit, Mich., there have been for manses 13 loans at a low rate of interest, aggregating $15,500.

At the close of the Treasurer's report will be found a table giving in detail the present amounts of all the permanent funds of the Board.

SUMMARY.

It will be seen from the above statements that the past year indicates a most decided and gratifying advance upon the part of the Church, of which there is no surer indication than in the number and character of the new church buildings erected. Assuming that the percentage of those which are aided through this Board does not greatly vary from year to year, it is evident from the largely increased demand upon its treasury that the year witnessed an advance of a marked character along the whole line.

The indication of this appears more particularly in the number of appropriations from the General Fund, as the other funds, being, permanent and dependent for increase upon bequests or extraordinary gifts, must be limited in their output to the income annually available from the return of previous loans, an amount fairly constant from year to year.

In the following table, in which the results of the year's work are summarized, it will be seen that, owing to instances in which one church received from different funds both a grant and a loan or a special gift in addition to its appropriation, the number of churches is somewhat less than the aggregate of appropriations.

* In comparing the number of appropriations with the number of churches still upon the roll which have been aided, it should be noted, as appears in the columns of payments, that about 5 per cent. do not call for their appropriations, that about the same number have received more than one appropriation, and that others from one cause or another are either dissolved or consolidated, the actual average increase in the number of churches upon the roll of the Assembly being about 65 per cent. of the number reported as organized.

Previous to 1870 the Board of Church Extension (O. S.) did not secure its grants, numbering 1422 and amounting to $518,780, by mortgages. Since then mortgages have been taken securing all appropriations. Of these about 20 per cent. of grant mortgages have been canceled either by repayments or recoveries, and about 50 per cent. of loan mortgages. The Board now holds approximately 4700 mortgages aggregating $2,650,000.

This summary of the work of the year, presenting results larger than those of any previous year in the history of the Board, afford a practical answer to any averment that the Church of Christ is halting in its progress in our land. The unusually large amount indicated as "special" results from the very liberal gifts for the important church at Havana, Cuba; $25,000 of which came from one interested Christian woman.

A third point to be noted is that the demand seems to ebb and flow in successive years, probably synchronizing with alternate years of greater or less prosperity.

The appropriations have reached thirty-six States and Territories, as also Porto Rico and Cuba, and have included 116 different Presbyteries. The largest number of appropriations in any one State has been allotted to North Dakota, $15,680.

As a general result, it may be added that during the year there have been reported to the Board 207 church buildings and manses, of an aggregate value of $664,017, as completed without debt.

The total receipts in all departments have been $317,310.85, and the disbursements $299,995.81. Appended to this report will be found as usual alphabetical and synodical tables, indicating the general distribution of the appropriations, and a map stating the number within the bounds of each State.

As usual, there is given upon the opposite page a table indicating not only the appropriations in the different States last year, but also the total appropriations by States from the beginning of the work. These appropriations somewhat exceed the actual payments, the discrepancy being noted at the foot of the page, and resulting from the fact that a small percentage of churches fail to call for the appropriations for which they have applied and which have been voted them. The number of appropriations compared with the number of churches now upon the Assembly's roll will suggest what is a fact, that not a few of the newly organized churches fail of permanent life. The figures given from year to year indicate that the average increase in the number of churches is about 65 per cent., or a little less than two-thirds of the average number reported as organized. Thus if every church once reported had lived the total number in our body to-day would be nearly 11,000, instead of less than 8,000. This in the changing conditions of our national growth is inevitable and is no ground for discouragement. While it is probably true that some churches have been organized unwisely, yet in the large majority of cases of lapse there was abundant ground for undertaking the enterprise. When new settlements are formed in a rapidly growing country, some are sure to prove shortlived; but which are these no prescience can determine, and our missionary work must not hesitate and lag, waiting to see what is to be the ultimate destiny of villages which appear equally promising.

DISTRIBUTION OF GRANTS.

As the question is frequently asked as to the geographical distribution of grants, it may be of interest to the Assembly to have before it a synopsis of the more distinctively benevolent activity of the Board during the last five years, indicating in what proportion its appropriations are distributed in different sections of our country. Although these details are given for the current year in each annual report, a recapitulation embracing several years will present the matter more succinctly and clearly. The total appropriations for the last five years have been 1,171 and the amount $958,493—nearly a million of dollars; but for our present purpose we are concerned only with the General Fund, from which grants are made for church edifices, and the Manse Fund, from which loans without interest are made for manses, as these two represent the more purely benevolent side of the Board's work. From these two funds there have been during the five years in question 1,024 appropriations, amounting in the aggregate to $599,468. How have these appropriations and this sum of nearly $600,000 been distributed geographically?

Omitting foreign Presbyteries, we may properly divide the field into six groups, viz.:

1. New England States.
2. Eastern (New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Delaware and Ohio).
3. Southern (Atlantic and Catawba Synods).
4. Central West (Illinois, Indiana, Wisconsin, Michigan, West Virginia, Kentucky and Tennessee).
5. Western (all west of the Mississippi).
6. Cuba and Porto Rico.

Taking these in order, we find that the distribution has been as follows:

1. New England, with 47 churches or about six-tenths of one per cent. (0.59) of the whole number of churches, has received:

Appropriations, 9; amount, $8,800, or less than one per cent. (.88) of appropriations and one and a half per cent. of the amount.

2. Eastern, with 2,976 churches or more than 37 per cent. (37.3) of the whole number: Appropriations, 97; amount, $61,782, or 9.47 per cent. of appropriations and 10.30 per cent. of amount.

3. Southern, with 343 churches or about  $4\frac{1}{4}$  per cent. (4.29) of the whole number: Appropriations, 57; amount, \$16,120, or 5.57 per cent. of appropriations and 2.69 per cent. of amount.

4. Central West, with 1,523 churches or 19 per cent. (19.08) of the whole number: Appropriations, 166; amount, $103,911, or 16.21 per cent. of appropriations and 17.31 per cent. of amount.

5. Western, with 2,857 churches or nearly 36 per cent. (35.8) of the whole number: Appropriations, 683; amount, $387,205, or 66.70 per cent. of appropriations and 64.59 per cent. of amount.

6. Cuba and Porto Rico, with 19 churches or one-quarter of one per cent. of the whole number: Appropriations, 12; amount, $21,650, or 1.17 per cent. of appropriations and 3.61 per cent. of amount.

In tabular form the above figures appear as follows:

SECTION.	Number of Churches.	Percent- age of Churehes.	Number of Appropri- ations.	Percent- age of Appropri- ations.	Amounts Appropri- ated.	Percent- age of Amount Voted.
New England . . .	47	0.61	9	0.88	$8,800	1.50
Eastern . . . . .	2,976	38.33	97	9.47	61,782	10.30
Southern . . . . .	343	4.42	57	5.57	16,120	2.69
Central West . . .	1,523	19.61	166	16.21	103,911	17.31
Western . . . . .	2,857	36.79	683	66.70	387,205	64.59
Cuba and P'to Rico	19	0.24	12	1.17	21,650	3.61
	7,765	100.00	1,024	100.00	$599,468	100.00

The above figures indicate that while there are still in our older States districts properly deemed missionary ground and especially among the incoming foreign populations, yet by far the larger part of the grants made by the Board, appropriating the offerings of our stronger churches, are, in accordance with the letter and spirit of its charter, to the feeble churches erecting in-expensive buildings in the young Western States and Territories of our country; while the largest proportional grants have been necessarily to the country's wards in Cuba and Porto Rico. As illustrating the above, it may be noticed that while the Eastern and Western Sections have almost the same number of churches, the latter has received more than seven times as many appropriations as the former and more than six times the amount.

It should perhaps be added that in thus practically confining itself to the character of the work indicated by its charter, and necessitated by its limited income, the Board is obliged from time to time to disappoint churches which appeal to it for aid to erect large and unnecessarily expensive buildings, or to pay heavy debts incurred in the enthusiasm of building far beyond their means.

THE OUTLOOK.

In regard to the probable needs of the coming year, the Board might well repeat what it said a year ago. Its expectation, expressed at that time, that there would be a marked advance in the growth of our Church and in the erection of houses of worship has been abundantly justified by the facts. As has been already said, the applications for grants have been more than ever before; and as our Western States are growing with undiminished rapidity, there is every reason to expect that this large demand upon the resources of the Board will continue unabated, if not increased. Porto Rico and Cuba, where the Board of Home Missions is carrying on effective work, will need a large measure of help in housing the young and rapidly growing Protestant congregations. Our missionaries are everywhere welcomed and find a gratifying response to their advances.

Finally, it is to be remembered that the terrible catastrophe which has overwhelmed San Francisco and many other smaller towns in California, will doubtless result in large and hitherto unexpected demands upon the Board to aid in replacing burned or wrecked church buildings.

This Board and the Board of Home Missions have already sent to the churches a special appeal to the above effect. May it not also be well, in view of this destruction of so many church edifices and the impoverishment of local congregations, for the Assembly to give permission to the Board, in cases of special need, to waive at its discretion the rules in regard to the proportionate amount of aid to be extended either by grants or loans?

The building of an appropriate edifice in Havana, to which reference was made last year, has been carried forward and the edifice is nearly completed; but notwithstanding the liberal responses already made to special appeals, additional funds must be supplied not only to cover the expense of the land, but to provide the needed adjunct building to serve as a manse for the pastor and a home for the school. Such special funds, entirely beyond the power of the Board to furnish from its current income, must be provided by generous friends as personal contributions.

Encouraged by the report of unusual progress which the Board is permitted this year to make, it ventures to press with special emphasis upon the churches the need of more effective support and largely increased contributions.

ELECTION OF MEMBERS OF THE BOARD.

It only remains to add that the terms of the following members of the Board expire at this time:

MINISTERS.

REV. WM. RUSSELL BENNETT,
 REV. DAVID R. FRAZER, D.D.,
 REV. JOHN A. INGHAM,
 REV. DAVID MAGIE, D.D.

ELDERS.

HENRY T. BRONSON,
 WILLIAM H. PARSONS.

It will devolve upon this Assembly to fill these vacancies, as also the vacancy in the same class caused by the death of Mr. Hezekiah King and the vacancies in the class of 1908 caused by the death of Rev. Robert F. Sample, D.D., and the resignation of the Rev. Joseph D. Burrell.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

ERSKINE N. WHITE,
Secretary.

DAVID MAGIE,

Report of the Standing Committee upon Church Erection.

Your Committee, to which has been referred the report of the Board of Church Erection covering its work for the year ending March 31, 1906, would report as follows:

We have been deeply impressed with the great importance of this work. Since its inauguration by the Old School Assembly in the year 1844, it has been steadily growing in practical efficiency and in far-reaching results. We venture to say that without the work which the Board of Church Erection has done during these years, the Church whose 200th anniversary we celebrate at this Assembly would be now but comparatively small, and with but limited contributions flowing to the support of its Boards and its work at home and abroad. This Board builds the material platform on which the rest of the work of our Church stands.

The Board of Church Erection reports this year substantial advancement at every point. The past year has been the greatest in its history.

Your Committee would call special attention to the admirable business methods adopted and enforced by the Board. Its policy is clearly defined (page 13) to help principally feeble Churches erecting inexpensive buildings, mostly in the West. But the combination of general contributions, invested trust funds for specific objects, manse as well as church building, mortgage operations, insurance and loan transactions, introduces a bewildering complexity into management and account keeping, the mastery of which by the Board commands our highest approval.

In addition to receiving and disbursing the contributions—which is a small part of its work—and correspondence involving many thousands of letters, it holds hundreds of active mortgages securing loans, many of them bearing interest, the interest and installments upon which must be annually collected; it holds more than 4,500 insurance policies to the amount of about $2,500,000, which must be renewed and premiums collected at stated periods; it draws up and executes hundreds of legal instruments, such as deeds, releases, assignments, etc.; it holds, in addition to its active mortgages as above, about 4,000 liens upon churches securing grants, of which a number each year must be enforced; it conducts correspondence as to architectural designs and furnishes plans every year to numerous churches, and much else.

In this work of conserving the best interests of the Church in these widely scattered properties is involved the larger part of the expense of the Board's administration.

Your Committee notes with gratification the fact that aid to the extent of more than $40,000 has been given during the year, either by loan or grants, to churches in the building of manses—a work which we desire to commend and urge upon the attention of the Church. The value of a manse to a congregation is twofold. It not only provides a home for the pastor and his family, thereby relieving him from anxiety and expense, but it enables weak churches to secure stronger men than they otherwise could, and tends also to insure more permanent pastorates. The funds now at the disposal of the Board for this worthy purpose, while not sufficient to meet the many demands upon them, have nevertheless by wise management been the means of enabling many congregations to secure comfortable and convenient dwellings for their ministers.

Your Committee is fortunate in having in its membership an Elder of experience in bookkeeping matters. We requested him to examine critically the accounts of the Board as presented in its report, with reference to method, accuracy and clearness. It gives us great satisfaction to be able to report that while the accounts of the Board are elaborate and comprehensive they are so simple and explicit that they are readily understood, and are in themselves a splendid exhibition of the care and economy with which the finances of the Board are managed. The funds of the Board have now increased to the sum of $663,200; in addition to which the Board has a reversionary interest in various church properties amounting to $2,484,000. It is difficult, owing to the various interests involved, to estimate accurately the cost of administration; but basing such an estimate upon the receipts and disbursements of the past year, the expenses have been only 2.7 per cent. of the actual amount of funds handled.

It is an encouraging fact that the appropriations of this past year have reached thirty-six States and Territories, besides Cuba and Porto Rico, and have included 116 Presbyteries, thus extending over four-fifths of the United States and touching nearly one-half of our Church sections. The advance into Cuba and Porto Rico is especially interesting and suggestive; it proves that our Church is at least making an earnest effort to rise to the call of Divine Providence in these new political relations.

As to the outlook, your Committee, with the Board, shares hopes and apprehensions. The marked advance in the growth of our Church during the past years will evidently continue. Applications for grants are increasing in number. In connection with the work of the Board of Home Missions in Cuba and Porto Rico, much help will be needed in housing the young and rapidly growing Protestant congregations; the California catastrophes are already throwing a heavy burden upon this Board in demand for aid in replacing church buildings that have been destroyed, and indefinite possibilities of usefulness loom before the Board in connection with the union with the Cumberland Church.

The opportunities will be large; the work will be limited only by the resources supplied by the churches. There seems to be some inclination to make the annual contribution for this Board one of the last and least to be taken in our churches. Churches and Sunday-schools contributed during the last year only $59,766.04. Your Committee would urge the pastors and elders here assembled to lay this matter closely to their hearts, and to spread through the churches a sense of responsibility which shall stimulate to larger contributions and more general response to the call of Christ through this Board.

We add the following recommendations:

1. That the records and annual report of the Board of Church Erection be approved.
2. That the General Assembly join with the Board in its expression of sorrow at the death during the year of two members of this Board—Hezekiah King, Esq., and the Rev. Dr. R. F. Sample.
3. That the methods of the Board be commended, especially in view of the complexity of its business and the wide extension of its activities.
4. That the congratulations and thanks of this Assembly be extended to the Rev. Erskine N. White, D.D., who has just completed twenty years of service in this Board as Secretary, and to Adam Campbell, Esq., who has nearly completed twenty-one years of service as Treasurer; for work done by them shall stand in time and eternity.

5. In view of the recent calamity upon the Pacific Coast, which has destroyed many church buildings and in large measure impoverished congregations, your Committee recommends that in making grants or loans to aid in rebuilding these churches, the Board be permitted at its discretion to waive the rule in regard to the proportionate amount of aid to be extended.

6. Your Committee also recommends that in the case of loans to aid in providing manses for our missionaries upon the Island of Porto Rico, the Board, in cases where such action seems necessary to secure the needed homes, be permitted also to exercise its discretion in regard to the proportion of the entire cost to be advanced.

7. That the Commissioners to this General Assembly, and the Church at large, be urged to rise to the greatness of opportunity presented in the appeal of this Board; and to prove this by increase of contributions.

8. That the following members of the Board, whose terms expire at this time, be re-elected for the ensuing term: Ministers—Rev. William Russell Bennett, Rev. David R. Frazer, D.D., Rev. John A. Ingham, Rev. David Magie, D.D. Elders—Henry T. Bronson, William H. Parsons.

9. That the Rev. John McDowell, of the Presbytery of Newark, N. J., be elected in place of Rev. Dr. Sample, deceased; and the Rev. Frederic Campbell, Sc.D., of the Presbytery of Brooklyn, in place of Rev. Dr. J. D. Burrell, resigned; both of these to belong to the class whose terms expire in 1908. Also that I. Rensen Lane, Esq., of the Presbytery of Morris and Orange, be elected in place of Mr. King, deceased, of the class of 1909.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

DESIGNS.

CENTRAL PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, DES MOINES, IOWA.

As a matter of interest in connection with this year's report, the above picture of the edifice of the Central Presbyterian Church of Des Moines, Iowa, the host of the present General Assembly, is given. As the Assembly is actually to hold its sessions in the "Auditorium," a representation of that building is given upon the cover of the report.

No. 89.

The above represents the building of the First Church of Hazleton, Iowa.

As will be seen from the ground plan upon the next page, it is 40 by 56 feet in size, and has its Sunday-school room conveniently placed, so that when necessary it can be made part of the main auditorium. The larger room will seat from 150 to 200, and the two rooms 300. The material is wood with shingle gables, and the cost about $4,000. For ground plan, see other page.

No. 89.

Ground Plan.

No. 90.

The above is the home of the First Church of Rowley, Iowa. The main auditorium is 50 x 25, with lecture room about 20 feet square and pastor's study adjoining. The pastor writes that there is a basement with kitchen under the entire building, and that the total seating capacity is 300, provided chairs are placed in the aisles.

"The interior has a ten-foot studding, with a ceiling made of two quarter-circles and one half-circle arch. This makes an attractive interior and an economy of space. The windows are of art glass." The entire cost was about $3,500, and the architect L. B. Valk.

For ground plan, see other page.

Ground Plan.

No. 91.

The above is the Oak Lane Church of Philadelphia. The dimensions and arrangement are given upon the ground plan upon the other page. The main audience room seats 350, and if necessary the other rooms can be opened into it. The architect is Mr. Charles W. Bolton, Witherspoon Building, Philadelphia, who says that it is a popular size. The entire cost is $20,400.

No. 92.

At the present day many of our city and suburban churches feel the necessity of a "Parish House," in which to carry on the various activities and "institutional" work of the congregation, and from time to time requests reach the Board for plans for such a building. The above represents the beautiful edifice for that purpose of the Immanuel Chapel House, Yonkers, N. Y. The arrangement of the different floors are shown in the floor plans upon the adjoining page. The architects are Messrs. Butler & Rodman, No. 16 East Twenty-third street, New York.

Manse No. 26.

This illustration represents the Manse of the Church at Bainbridge, N. Y.

It is a frame building about 32 feet square. As will be seen by the ground plan upon the next page, it gives an unusual number of bedrooms, and has also room for another in the attic. The room back of the library can be used as a study if preferred, instead of the one so designated upon the second story.

The expense of building this house would be, according to locality, from $3,000 to $4,000.

ACTION OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

AT DES MOINES, IOWA, MAY, 1906.

The Standing Committee on Ministerial Relief, of which the Rev. Henry Sloane Coffin, of New York City, was Chairman, presented the following report which was unanimously adopted:

"We have carefully examined the Annual Report of the Board and the Minutes of its sessions throughout the year ending with the first of April, 1906.

"There is much in the Report that calls for thankfulness and praise.

"The past year has been the best in the history of the Board. More money has come into its treasury, fewer churches have failed to make offerings, more cases of relief have been cared for, and a smaller percentage of the money received has been spent in the expenses of administration than ever before.

"Nine hundred and fifty-two names are upon the roll of beneficiaries, of whom 175 are ministers honorably retired, whose average age is over 77, and whose average active service has been nearly forty-three years.

"The receipts of the Board amounted to $240,863.96, an increase of more than $20,000 over any previous year. The legacies and contributions to the Permanent Fund were $39,919.13, being $12,000 less than the amount given in 1904-05. In addition to cash contributions, boxes from woman's societies have been sent to families on the list of annuitants valued at $7,442.25, an increase of $1,669 over the amount given in this way last year. Ninety more churches contributed to the Board, and with the stimulus of the Apportionment Scheme many churches substantially enlarged their offerings.

"Your Committee takes special pleasure in calling attention to the fact that but three and three-tenths per cent. of the receipts of the Board is consumed by the cost of administration.

"But while we rejoice in these gratifying advances, it is our solemn duty to call the Church's attention to its shameful neglect of this great cause. Only five Synods gave more than they drew out of the funds of the Board—the Synods of Pennsylvania, New York, New Jersey, Baltimore and Montana—while nineteen Synods actually gave less than five cents per communicant to discharge their solemn obligation to those who have given their lives to the Church's service. Your Committee earnestly asks the commissioners to this Assembly to look at the record of contributions in the tabular statement appended to the Report of the Board and see how it stands, with their churches and Presbyteries. It is not saying too much to stigmatize as disgraceful the indifference of the vast majority of our churches to the claims of men who have given years of careful study to fit themselves for their high calling in the Christian ministry, have devoted strength and talents to the Church's work at salaries for the most part barely sufficient to provide them and their families with support, and who find themselves penniless in old age, or in invalidism, or who die leaving their widows and orphans in poverty. Is it just, is it Christian that the Church should continue to hold out before those who labor in its ministry the prospect of declining years of failing health, to be endured in penury, or the prospect of death with those they love best unprovided for? When we reflect that according to the statistics of the past, one in every eight of the families represented on the roll of our ministry to-day will come to this Board for assistance, can we afford to give it the beggarly pittance it now receives in all but a very few of our presbyteries?

“Your Committee begs leave to present the following recommendations for adoption :

“1. We recommend the approval of the Minutes of the Board, which we find neatly and accurately kept.

“2. That Presbyteries be directed to exercise care in the appointment of committees on Ministerial Relief; that these Committees be charged to give thorough consideration to every case they commend for help in order that the churches may have full confidence in the wise administration of this fund, to stir up the churches to greater justice in their treatment of this cause, and to coöperate with the Board in safeguarding its moneys as a sacred trust.

“3. That Presbyteries shall require that all applications for relief shall be considered by the entire presbyterial committee appointed for this purpose.

“4. That the Apportionment Scheme be heartily indorsed and that the Presbyterial Committees bring this Scheme to the notice of every church whose contribution does not fulfill the requirements.

"5. That the Committees on Ministerial Relief in all Presbyteries be strongly urged to make efforts to enlarge the Permanent Fund, and to keep the claims of this Fund before the attention of the churches.

"6. That the Presbyterial Committees be instructed to appoint one elder in each church session to make faithful and adequate presentation of the work of the Board of Ministerial Relief and to take measures to increase the offering for this Board.

"7. That this Assembly reiterate the action of a previous Assembly calling on all Presbyteries to require every church that fails to make an offering to this Board to give reasons for such omission, and that these reasons be not sustained unless they be special and providential.

"8. That Rule 16 of the Board be altered at the Board's own request, by the insertion of the words 'or to those who have become chronic invalids in consequence of their care of aged and infirm parents,' at the conclusion of the first sentence, so that the whole Rule as amended will read :

"'Aid may be given to orphans of ministers and lay missionaries, as the General Assembly says, who are under the age at which they are able to earn their own living, and in exceptional cases to orphans who have been from early years chronic invalids, or to those who have become chronic invalids in consequence of their care of aged and infirm parents. The same rule applies in case of orphans asking for aid as in the case of other beneficiaries of the Board in regard to recommendations and annual renewals.' (Minutes General Assembly, 1889, p. 32.)

"9. That Rev. Samuel T. Lowrie, D. D., Rev. Philip H. Mowry, D. D., and Messrs. Henry L. Davis and Robert H. Smith, whose terms expire at this meeting of the Assembly, be re-elected as Directors of the Board."

HENRY SLOANE COFFIN,

ANNUAL REPORT
GENERAL ASSEMBLY

THE PRESBYTERIAN BOARD OF RELIEF FOR DISABLED MINISTERS AND THE WIDOWS AND ORPHANS OF DECEASED MINISTERS, respectfully presents to THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY its Annual Report for the year from April 1st, 1905, to April 1st, 1906.

THIS IS THE FIFTY-SEVENTH YEAR

since the organization of Relief Work by the General Assembly of 1849, and this is the first Annual Report having been made to the General Assembly in 1856 by the Trustees of the Assembly.

THE FIFTY-FIRST ANNUAL REPORT OF THE BOARD,

The Book of Minutes containing the proceedings of the Board for the year 1905-1906 is also herewith presented.

ROLL.

The Board had upon its roll for the year ending March 31st, 1906, 952 names: 378 ministers, 509 widows, 35 orphan families, 1 widow of a medical missionary, 8 women missionaries, and 21 guests in The Merriam Home at Newton, N. J. This is the largest number the Board ever had upon its roll.

MINISTERS ON ROLL OF HONOR.

In the year 1889 the Rule was adopted allowing ministers who are 70 years of age and who have been 30 years in active service in the ministry of our Church, as pastors, stated supplies, or commissioned missionaries of the Home, Foreign, or Freedmen's Boards, to be placed on the Honorably Retired Roll of Presbytery and on the Roll of Honor of the Board, and to be granted, without being annually renewed, an annuity of $300, when they certify that they need that amount.

This has been a very popular arrangement. Since then 368 ministers have availed themselves of this privilege. 21 names have been added to this Roll during the past year; 20 ministers whose names were on this Roll have died during the year. During the past year there were 175 ministers on the Roll of Honor, and their average age has been 77.7 years, and their average active service has been nearly 43 years. 47 of these men were over 80 years of age, and 9 of them were over 90. The amount paid to ministers on the Roll of Honor during the past year was $50,350.

ADDITIONS TO ROLL.

During the past year, there were 107 new names added to the roll of Annuity: 51 ministers, 47 widows, 5 orphans. 1 Foreign missionary woman, and 3 new guests at the Merriam Home.

DEATHS.

Sixty-three of those who were on the roll died during the year: 42 ministers, twenty of whom were on the Roll of Honor, 20 widows and 1 orphan.

AVERAGE PAYMENTS.

The average amount paid widows last year was $150.

The average paid all on the cash pay roll, excluding those at the Home, was $188.38.

The average paid those on the Roll of Honor was $287.71. 21 of these ministers did not ask for the full amount they were entitled to receive in case of need. 155 ministers on the Roll of Honor received each $300.

Other applicants received from $50 to $300, according to their circumstances.

CURRENT FUND RECEIPTS FOR THE YEARS

	1904-1905.	1905-1906.
Contributions from Churches and Sabbath schools, ....	$90,499 95	99,043 48
Contributions from Individuals, .....	10,296 32	13,286 60
Interest from Permanent Fund, .....	72,957 89	76,493 91
Special Funds held by the Synod of Ohio and Other Trustees, .....	493 64	421 54
Unrestricted Legacies, .....	46,281 77	51,618 43
	$220,529 57	240,863 96

In addition to these receipts for the Current Fund, the receipts for the Permanent Fund during the year have been $39,919.13.

BOXES.

Besides the cash contributions to the Board, from churches and individuals, the Ladies' Aid Societies of our Church have sent to families on our roll, gifts of money and boxes of clothing and groceries amounting to the value of $7,442.25.

NUMBER OF CONTRIBUTING CHURCHES.

The Board received during the year, collections from 4,441 churches. 3,385 churches have failed to send any contributions to this hallowed cause during the year. The non-contributing churches are nearly all non-self-sustaining churches. 90 more churches contributed to the Board during the past year than ever contributed to it in any previous year.

THE ANNUITY FUND.

The Board has an account termed the Annuity Fund. This consists of money given directly to the Board of Relief by various persons, on which it pays the donors a reasonable interest as long as they live. This arrangement has its very decided advantages.

1. There is no contest in the courts over money given in this way to the Board, as there is sometimes over wills in which the Board is a beneficiary.

2. The donors are absolutely certain to receive their interest semi-annually at the time it is due.

3. This has brought, and will continue to bring, helpful revenues to the Board.

EMERGENCY FUND.

It had been the custom of the Board of Relief to put all unrestricted legacies into the Permanent Fund up to the year 1897, when the following change was made.

“Resolved. That this General Assembly approves the change the Board has made in By-Laws, Art. 4, Sec. 5, and authorizes the Board to transfer to the Current Fund, unrestricted legacies with which to pay its indebtedness and to meet special emergencies.”

The Board has placed all unrestricted legacies received since that time in what it calls “The Emergency Fund.”

The Board of Relief makes all its payments in advance. It is the only Board that does, and its payments in April, May and June amount to $65,000. During these three months the receipts from the Churches are very small, and the Emergency Fund enables the Board to meet promptly these and all its other payments, while the Churches are sending in their contributions, more than one-fourth of which are sent to the Board in the month of March.

It is wise policy to keep this Fund large enough to meet all demands upon the Board and to be prepared for years of possible panic and money stringency, so that it may not be necessary, as it has been in the past history of the work, to withhold 25 or 50 per cent. of the appropriations to the almost inconceivable distress of the families which are only too poorly paid when they receive promptly their regular annuities.

The Boards are constantly urged by the General Assembly to keep out of debt, and the Board of Relief has been pursuing a conservative plan of keeping the Emergency Fund, made up entirely of moneys received from unrestricted legacies, sufficiently large to enable it to obey the instructions of the Assembly, and yet to pay all appropriations promptly in advance.

COST OF ADMINISTRATION.

Salaries, office expenses, the publication and distribution of literature, traveling expenses of the officers of the Board, etc., have cost during the past year but 3.3 per cent. of the receipts of the Board.

The foregoing table shows that during the year ending March 31st, 1905, only five Synods gave more than ten cents per communicant to Ministerial Relief, namely: Kentucky, New Jersey, Missouri, Pennsylvania and Baltimore.

Here follows a Statement of the amounts received from the various Synods, and the amounts drawn out by families under their care.

Some of our Synods cover territory where many of their churches are small and financially weak and are unable to make large contributions to any of the Boards of the Church.

Other Synods are geographically so situated that many of our way-worn ministers settle within their bounds, hoping that a change of climate may prove favorable to the recovery of their exhausted energies, and such synods have a greater number of ministers' families to recommend to the Board than other Synods in proportion to the number of their communicants and their ability to contribute to the benevolences of the Church.

Whilst these things are true, it is also true that if the magnitude of the work of the Board of Relief, and the imperative necessity for large contributions were presented to all our churches with more fullness, with more enthusiasm, with more downright earnestness, than they often are, we believe the response of the people would be vastly more liberal than it ever has been. The people do not understand and realize the magnitude of the demands upon the Board of Relief. They do not know and seriously consider what it costs to properly support the 952 families on the roll of the Board; and it is impossible to get them to realize their obligation to the aged and worn out ministers of our Church and to the dependent families of our deceased ministers, if the pulpits do not faithfully and fervently proclaim the facts.

Presbyteries often ask for much larger appropriations for the families under their care than the Board is able to give, and they are very urgent in pleading that the full amounts be granted, because the families need all, and more than all, they ask. No persons are more fully aware of all this than the members of the Board of Relief, and no hearts are more profoundly moved by these appeals, but, from the tables presented, it is perfectly plain where the responsibility lies that they are forced to deny a great many of these urgent demands.

Let pastors and elders take this whole matter to their own hearts, and determine that their people shall understand the true situation, and that all the members of their congregations shall have a full comprehension of the necessities of the case, and also that every member in every church, every year, shall be given a fair opportunity to contribute intelligently to this most worthy cause. If they do, the Board believes the pressing demands made upon it can all readily be granted.

BEGINNING ANOTHER HALF-CENTURY.

The first formal Report of the Committee of Trustees in the case of Disabled Ministers, etc., was presented to the General Assembly in Philadelphia, in 1856. It was referred to a special Committee with Dr. Rogers, chairman, and a very remarkable report was presented by this special Committee which is just as good and true to-day as it was a half a century ago. It was adopted by the General Assembly, and is as follows:

"No subject should command more attention and elicit more interest than the general subject referred to in the paper under consideration. That an urgent necessity exists for some prompt and efficient action on the part of the Church to make suitable provision for those who have become worn out in her service and for their dependent families cannot for a moment be questioned. Facts of the most painfully interesting nature which are constantly coming under the notice of those who are immediately concerned with this matter, facts which speak in simple but eloquent language telling the sad story of disease, privation, poverty and helplessness, might be collected in volumes from the history of all our Presbyteries. Could some of these sad pictures from real life be spread before this Assembly no eye could look upon them without a tear; no heart could contemplate them without deep emotion.

"That it is the solemn and imperative duty of the church to make abundant provision for her disabled ministers and their families not as a matter of charity but of right and justice is equally unquestionable.

"The minister of Christ who offers himself to the church as her servant for Jesus' sake, has no right to expect in that service wordly distinction or large emoluments. But he has a right to expect that while he ministers to God's people in spiritual things, they will not forget to minister to him in temporal things. The Church is not always aware of the extent of the capital which the ministry invests in her service and which produces to them personally such a meagre and insufficient return. The minister not only gives himself, his body, mind, soul, time, talents and labors, but he actually invests no inconsiderable amount of capital of another sort in the service of the church. To qualify himself for the sacred office he needs to devote at least ten years of life to the Academical, Collegiate and Theological departments of education and that at no inconsiderable pecuniary expenditure.

“What has he received in return for his labors, his tears, his anxieties, his mental toils, his lifelong devotion of himself to the interests of the church?”

“He has received a salary less than a thirdrate clerk in a merchant’s counting-house, of a competent overseer on a southern plantation, a clerk on a Mississippi steamboat or a barkeeper in a fashionable hotel. And all that is left to his account when he is called to his rest will hardly pay for a plain coffin for his worn-out body and a simple stone to mark the spot where a faithful man of God sleeps till the resurrection morning. But who can estimate the worth of his life to the Church and to the world? What have the contributions been worth which he has made to the most enduring part of the literature of the world? What have the sympathies been worth which have been drawn from his heart’s deep stores by the hundreds of tried and endangered souls? What has it been worth to the mother as in speechless anguish she bends over the beautiful corpse of her darling babe, to hear the accents of the man of God saying in solemn tenderness, “It is well with the child.” What is it worth to the convicted sinner trembling in view of an angry God and an everlasting hell to hear from his faithful pastor the words, “Behold the Lamb of God that taketh away the sin of the world.” What are the ten thousand varied and diversified labors of the ministry in behalf of every interest of this life and that which is to come worth to the world? No arithmetic can compute them, no money can compensate them. They cannot be gotten for gold neither shall silver be weighed for the price thereof.

“The Church then should consider it her solemn duty at once to take energetic action on two points,—the more adequate support of her living and laboring ministry, and a liberal and just provision for those who are disabled and for their dependent families. If the average salaries of her ministers were doubled at once she would not surpass the measure of their necessities and her obligations. Why should the minister of God be the only man in the community who shall not be allowed to lay by something from his hard-earned means for the future wants of those who are dear to him? Why should he in addition to the other trials necessarily incident to his calling be compelled to walk through life's journey with the dark shadow of a dependent old age or a helpless family always brooding over his path? It is cruel, it is wicked, to bind this millstone round his neck, to press this burden on his heart. Where is the man outside of the ministry who will submit to such palpable injustice? It is easy to talk of a mercenary spirit and of the spirituality of ministers being in danger from an abundance of good things of this life. We wonder why one kind of spirituality is considered as necessary for the minister and another sort for the people. If poverty be essential to growth in grace, let our people be diligent in cultivating and using this means of spiritual progress likewise. It is a poor way, as Dr. Mason observes, to promote a man's spirituality to rob him of his bread.

"The farmer who is a wise and thrifty man will not stint his cattle nor his laborers. The merchant or the corporation who desires able and faithful officers and agents will deem it good policy to pay them adequately.

"It is reserved for the Church of Christ to ignore the wisdom of this policy, deny its justice, and to add insult to injury with a miserable cant about a mercenary spirit and considerations of spirituality. It is reserved for the Church of Christ to demand of her ministry that they shall give all that they are and have to her service, with the inevitable prospect that old age or failing health will find them absolutely penniless, or death fling their widows and children on the cold charities of an unsympathizing world."

Even under such an inspiring message from the General Assembly to the churches, the people were slow in responding to that soul-thrilling call. The year previous to the organization of the Board, twenty years after that trumpet blast, the Trustees of the General Assembly, having charge of Ministerial Relief, reported to the Assembly that they had been compelled to make a painful reduction of 50 per cent. in the appropriations previously granted, leaving an average appropriation of only $95 to each family, and beside that they were compelled to decline granting any aid at all to 60 families which had been on their roll the previous year. The following year the Board was compelled to reduce appropriations 25 per cent. more and still left a few families unaided. This was done to get out, and keep out of debt. They then had but 379 families on the roll.

As we have entered upon another half century's work, let us keep in mind that nothing but, so-called, "eternal vigilance" and unceasing pressure of the duty of being both just and generous to God's ministering servants and their dependent households, will make it possible for the Church to make even respectable provision for her faithful servants to whom she imperiously denies the privilege of engaging in worldly avocations.

THE APPORTIONMENT SCHEME.

This Scheme, which was adopted by the General Assembly at Buffalo two years ago in response to several overtures from Synods upon the subject, we believe has done no harm to any other cause, and it has stimulated many churches to make larger contributions to the Board of Relief than they had previously been making.

In brief, this Scheme is as follows:

(a) Churches paying salaries of $800 and less, to give at least Ten Cents per communicant.

(b) Churches paying salaries of $800 to $1,200, to give at least Fifteen Cents per communicant.

(c) Churches paying salaries of $1,200 and upwards, to give at least Fifteen Cents per communicant, and in addition one per cent. on the salaries of their ministers.

(d) Churches hitherto contributing to the Board of Relief sums considerably beyond the apportionment above suggested, to continue their generous support of the Board.

CHURCH COLLECTIONS.

Sessions which have kept a record of the members of the church who are present upon communion occasions, have found that only about two-thirds of the communicants are present at each Communion Service.

If this be true when the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper is administered, how is it likely to be on ordinary occasions?

Suppose, then, that but a single opportunity on a Sabbath morning is given to the people during the fiscal year to make an offering for Ministerial Relief, it is quite apparent that many of the members of the congregation will be absent when the collection is made and will probably contribute nothing to this vitally important cause during the entire year. The absence of many contributors at the time collections are taken, accounts in a large measure for the exceedingly small contributions made by many churches that are abundantly able to make larger contributions than those which are often set to their credit.

The Board of Relief, therefore, respectfully asks that each Session should be urged to give absentees on the day the collection is taken for Ministerial Relief, a fair opportunity to contribute to this sacred cause on some other day during the fiscal year, or to devise some plan by which they can secure a contribution each year from every member of the congregation.

OFFERINGS IN THE SABBATH SCHOOL.

It is true that wherever the members of a Sabbath School have been given an opportunity to contribute to the Board of Relief, their contributions have been very generous in proportion to their ability, and they have found great pleasure in making their offerings.

Whilst this is true, so few Sabbath Schools have been given an opportunity to make an offering to this cause, that from all the Schools in the Church the Board has received only $2,087.64 during the past year, and the Young People's Societies gave but $191.44.

If the necessities of the dear old people who receive their annuities through the Board of Relief, were presented to the children and young people in the Sabbath School, they would touch their hearts; and the wants of the hundreds of children whose fathers have died and left them and their mothers without homes or incomes, if properly presented to them, would appeal to the children of the Church, and cold indeed would be their hearts if they did not sympathize with these needy and helpless wards of the Church, and earnestly desire to make some offering to the Board for their relief.

WOMEN'S WORK FOR WOMEN.

The benevolent women of our Church have not yet gotten a deep and thorough realization of the significant fact that the Board of Relief has under its care over 500 widows and women missionaries, who are largely dependent upon its treasury for their daily bread.

Are the women of our Church satisfied that 250 of these women are compelled to exist upon an average of $150 a year? Are they satisfied that many of these widows with families of from two to six children dependent upon them are compelled to live on from $200 to $250 a year?

A few Churches have organized Relief Guilds to assist the Board in its holy ministry. They prepare boxes of clothing and other necessary things for the families which cannot live respectably or comfortably upon the small annuities they receive, and the ladies of these societies greatly enjoy the luxury of relieving the worthy families under the care of the Board.

INDIVIDUAL CONTRIBUTIONS.

As hundreds of our Churches give but from one dollar, to two, three, four or five dollars a year to Ministerial Relief, it is wonderfully refreshing and encouraging to the Board when generous individuals send in their checks for hundreds and thousands of dollars to help it in its great and growing work. These large contributions are thoroughly appreciated, and the Board is assured that the givers of these large amounts have quite as much pleasure in giving the same as the Board has in receiving them.

THE MAKING OF WILLS.

The money received through the bequests of God's people have been more largely than all things else the means of increasing the Permanent Fund of the Board.

When committing their wealth to other hands, it cannot be otherwise than most gratifying and satisfying to God's people to leave a portion of it either to the Current Fund of the Board for present use, or to the Permanent Fund of the Board, the interest of which will continue for all time to send sunshine into thousands of homes of our aged and disabled ministers and the dependent families left behind of those ministers who have been called to their reward.

THE MERRIAM HOME.

This Home is situated in the hill country of northern New Jersey, in the most healthful part of the State. It is in Newton, the county-seat of Sussex County, a beautiful town of about 5,000 inhabitants.

For several years in the Home at Perth Amboy, there were but fourteen or fifteen guests, but now at Newton, there are twenty-one.

We have Endowment funds amounting to $50,000, the interest of which is available for the maintenance of the Home.

One lady has offered to give $5,000 to endow a room in memory of her father. If several more rooms could be endowed at the rate of $3,000 for a single room, and $5,000 for a double room, the Home would then be self-supporting. No more beautiful work of Christian love could be performed than to endow these rooms and thereby secure for their future occupants a comfortable home as long as they live.

The Presbytery of Newton, within the bounds of which the Home is located, has shown a marked interest in its welfare, and it has appointed a Standing Committee to co-operate with the Board in its management and the Committee has rendered most efficient service.

The Presbyterian Committee for the Merriam Home consists of the following members, viz.:

REV. CLARENCE W. ROUSE, Chairman,
 REV. EDGAR A. HAMILTON,
 REV. EDWARD A. McLAURY,
 REV. WILLIAM S. C. WEBSTER, D. D.

MR. J. D. FLOCK,
PROF. PHILIP S. WILSON,
HON. HENRY C. HUNT, Secretary.

The Executive Committee consists of the following members, viz.:

REV. WILLIAM S. C. WEBSTER, D. D., Chairman,
PROF. PHILIP S. WILSON,
JUDGE HENRY C. HUNT, Secretary.

This arrangement for conducting the Home has proven in every way eminently satisfactory to all concerned.

RULES OF THE BOARD.

APPROPRIATIONS.

1. Only members of Presbyteries in connection with the General Assembly of our Church and the families of those who were at their death in such connection, and lay missionaries and their families, are entitled to aid; and no adults shall be entitled to aid who are not members of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America in good and regular standing, or who do not acknowledge the jurisdiction of said Church nor submit to its discipline, unless such extraordinary circumstances should exist as to make it, in the judgment of the Board, wise and right to admit their claim.

2. The General Assembly of 1889 says: "This Board works under strictly defined limitations. It is not a general eleemosynary institution. It cannot care for all the poor in the Church, or even in the ministry. Its basis of work is not need, but service to the Church." The General Assembly of 1890 directed that no appropriations can be made to ministers in ordinary cases, simply because they are poor, unless they are disabled by disease or the infirmities of age, so as to be unable to sustain themselves by some suitable employment. (Minutes of General Assembly, 1870, p. 21, and 1889, p. 32.)

3. The General Assembly of 1880 directed "That, in the case of a minister who, voluntarily and in health, leaves the work of the ministry for some secular employment, and follows that for a series of years, and then, by failure of business, has come to want, such a course should ordinarily be regarded as a voluntary relinquishment of all claim upon the funds of the Board." (Minutes of General Assembly, 1880, p. 21.)

4. All appropriations are made for one year, unless otherwise ordered; and the renewals for appropriations must be made from year to year, except in case of ministers honorably retired according to the provisions of Rule 7.

5. All the appropriations are paid in advance, provided the funds of the Board will allow this to be done. If the appropriation is not more than one hundred and fifty dollars it is paid in advance in one payment. When an appropriation is more than one hundred and fifty dollars per annum it is paid in two equal instalments, semi-annually in advance.

6. While the responsibility of recommending applicants rests with the Presbyteries, and these recommendations largely govern the action of the Board, yet there is reserved to the Board the right to appropriate according to the merits of the case and the state of the treasury.

HONORABLY RETIRED MINISTERS.

Who have been in active service in the Presbyterian Church thirty years in the aggregate as Missionaries, Pastors, or Stated Supplies.

7. Every honorably retired minister over seventy years of age, who is in need, and who has served our Church as missionary of the Home or Foreign Board, or of the Board of Missions for Freedmen, or as pastor, or stated supply, for a period in the aggregate not less than thirty years, shall be entitled by such service to draw from the Board of Ministerial Relief an annual sum for his support without the necessity of being annually recommended therefor by the Presbytery. When such a minister shall certify to the Presbytery the fact and amount of his need not exceeding $300.00 per annum, it shall be the duty of the Stated Clerk to forward the application to the Board, with his indorsement thereon as to the years of service such minister has rendered, his field, or fields of labor with the term of service in each, and his need, as determined by his income and circumstances, and also to certify that the same has been reported to the Presbytery and is recorded upon its minutes. It shall then be the duty of the Board to pay such annual amount so long as the applicant shall live, unless otherwise directed by the Presbytery or the applicant himself, in view of a change in his circumstances that may make the appropriation in whole or in part no longer necessary. (Minutes of General Assembly of 1889, p. 32; 1891, p. 33 and p. 44; 1894, p. 35.)

See form of application, No. 6, p. 26.

DISABLED MINISTERS.

Who have not been in the aggregate thirty years in active service in the Presbyterian Church as Missionaries, Pastors, or Stated Supplies, or, if so, are not seventy years of age.

8. An annuity to a minister who has not been in the aggregate thirty years in active service in the Presbyterian Church as a missionary of the Home or Foreign Board, or of the Board of Missions for Freedmen, or as pastor or stated supply, or having been thirty years in active service is not yet seventy years of age, is granted on the recommendation of that Presbytery, or of a standing committee of that Presbytery, to which the applicant belongs; and the recommendation in each case must be annually renewed. An application for aid, in case of such minister, should state his age, his circumstances, and the number of years he has been in the ministry; whether his wife is living or not, and the sex and age of the children who are dependent on him for support.

See form of application, No. 1, p. 22.

MEDICAL MISSIONARIES.

9. Regularly appointed Lay Missionaries who have gone out from this country under commission from the Foreign Board, and their families, shall after five years of active service also be placed upon the roll of the Board upon the same conditions as ministers. In their application for aid, Medical Missionaries and their families shall be governed by the rules that apply to ministers and their families. (Minutes of General Assembly of 1889, p. 32, and Report of Board in Minutes of Assembly of the same year, p. 240.)

See form of application, No. 4, p. 25.

MINISTERS COMING FROM OTHER DENOMINATIONS AND THEIR FAMILIES.

10. Ministers from other denominations coming into our Church, or their widows or orphans, shall not be placed upon the roll of this Board as beneficiaries unless said ministers shall have rendered active service in this church for at least five years. [This rule is not retroactive, but is operative from May 21, 1904.]

WOMEN.

11. A woman who has given herself to missionary work after five years of actual service under the Home Board or under the Board of Missions for Freedmen, or who has gone out from this country and labored under commission from the Foreign Board, may receive aid from this Board upon the same conditions as a minister. She may be recommended by the Presbytery in the bounds of which she resides, or by the Presbytery having jurisdiction of the church of which such missionary may be a member and her application should have the endorsement of the Board under which she has held a commission. (Minutes of General Assembly of 1884, p. 48; 1885, p. 592; 1888, p. 33; 1889, p. 32; 1894, p. 35.)

See form of application, No. 4, p. 25.

12. If the application for aid be for a widow of a minister, it may be made by the Presbytery within whose bounds the family resides, or by that Presbytery in which the family is best known, or preferably by the Presbytery with which her husband was connected at the time of his death. (Minutes of General Assembly of 1884, p. 48.)

Unless the applicant is well known, the Committee of Ministerial Relief, should always secure the endorsement of the session of the church of which the applicant is a member, to the effect that she needs and is deserving of the aid for which application is made.

See form of application, No. 2, p. 23.

13. When a woman contracts marriage with a retired minister who is receiving aid from the Board, she should not be entitled at his death to become a beneficiary of the Board.

14. The widow of a minister who remarries outside of the ministry, thereby relinquishes all claims upon the Board, and should she again become a widow she would not be entitled to aid.

15. Except in extraordinary cases no appropriation will be made to the widow of a minister who has children able to give her support. (Minutes of General Assembly of 1880, p. 21.)

ORPHANS.

16. Aid may be given to orphans of ministers and lay missionaries, as the General Assembly says, who are under the age at which they are able to earn their own living, and in exceptional cases to orphans who have been from early years chronic invalids. The same rule applies in case of orphans asking for aid, as in the case of other beneficiaries of the Board in regard to recommendations and annual renewals. (Minutes of General Assembly of 1889, p. 32.)

Amended at Des Moines. See Resolution 3, p. iii.

THE MERRIAM HOME.

17. Applications for admission to "The Merriam Home," at Newton, N. J., are to be made in accordance with the foregoing rules. Guests are admitted to the Home in lieu of an appropriation of money. Any guest who, in the judgment of the Matron may be a hindrance to its usefulness and to the comfort of the other guests, shall be reported to the Committee in charge, who shall have power, after investigation of all the circumstances, to recommend to the Board an appropriation in money for the support of such guest in lieu of a residence in the Home. Great care should be exercised in recommending only such persons as the Presbytery believes will be agreeable companions to other guests. These guests, except Honorably Retired Ministers, must be annually recommended by the Presbyteries, and are required to fill up the blank application for admission or continuance there the same as if applying for a money appropriation.

See form of application, No. 5, p. 26.

DEATH OF REV. WILLIAM WILSON MCKINNEY, D. D., LL. D.

During the past year the Board of Relief has been called upon to record the death of one of its valued members, and at the meeting of October 19th, 1905, the Rev. Dr. S. T. Lowrie presented the following minute which was unanimously adopted:

"Our fellow member of this Board, the Rev. William Wilson McKinney, D. D., LL. D., Pastor of the Chambers Memorial Presbyterian Church, of Rutledge, Pa., and Editor of the "Presbyterian" (born in 1837) died suddenly, September 25th, 1905.

"He was elected a member of this Board April 18th, 1901, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the Rev. Dr. Alexander, which occurred February 27th, 1901, who was Proprietor and Editor of the "Presbyterian," with whom Dr. McKinney had been Associate Editor, and whom he succeeded as Editor.

"The Board deeply mourns the loss of Dr. McKinney, who, assiduous and faithful as a member of it, was wise in counsel and very helpful in active co-operation. Under this loss the Board looks submissively to the Head of the Church, who gave and has taken away this valued member of the Board, praying that He will lead to the election of another who will be similarly faithful in this office.

"In token and expression of the sympathy of the Board, it was ordered that a copy of this Minute be sent to the bereaved family."

FORMS OF APPLICATION FOR AID.

No. 1.

MINISTERS.

The General Assembly requires this form to be filled not only for the first recommendation, but also for annual renewals, so that the Presbyterial Committee and the Board of Relief may know of any changes in the circumstances and necessities of applicants for aid, which may enable them more justly to determine the proportionate amount each applicant should receive from the limited funds at the command of the Board.

The General Assembly of 1880, page 21, says:

"WHEREAS, This Board has been requested to aid ministers who are merely out of employment, etc., and

Resolved, That no appropriations can be made to ministers in ordinary cases, simply because they are poor, unless they are disabled by disease or the infirmities of age, so as to be unable to sustain themselves by some suitable employment."

The General Assembly of 1889, page 32, says:

"This Board works under strictly defined limitations. It is not a general eleemosynary institution. It cannot care for all the poor in the Church, or even in the ministry. Its basis of work is not need, but service to the Church.

ORPHANS.

The General Assembly requires this form to be filled not only for the first recommendation, but also for annual renewals, so that the Presbyterial Committee and the Board of Relief may know of any changes in the circumstances and necessities of applicants for aid, which may enable them more justly to determine the proportionate amount each applicant should receive from the limited funds at the command of the Board.

There are but two classes of orphans of ministers the Board of Relief is authorized by the General Assembly to aid:

1. Orphans under the age at which they are able to earn their own living.

2. Orphans who have been from early years chronic invalids.

The General Assembly says:

"This Board works under strictly defined limitations. It is not a general eleemosynary institution. It cannot care for all the poor in the Church, or even in the ministry. Rule 16th of the Board, adopted by the General Assembly, reads as follows:—

"Aid may be given to orphans of ministers and lay missionaries, as the General Assembly says, who are under the age at which they are able to earn their own living, and, in exceptional cases, to orphans who have been from early years chronic invalids; or to those who have become chronic invalids in consequence of their care of aged and infirm parents. ### HONORABLY RETIRED MINISTERS.

Rule Regulating the placing of Ministers on the Roll of Honor of the Board of Relief as Annuitants.

Every honorably retired minister over seventy years of age, who is in need, and who has served our Church as a Missionary of the Home or Foreign Board, or of the Board of Missions for Freedmen, or as a Pastor, or Stated Supply, for a period in the aggregate not less than thirty years, shall be entitled by such service to draw from the Board of Ministerial Relief an annual sum for his support, without the necessity of being annually recommended therefor by the Presbytery. When such a ministry shall certify to the Presbytery the fact and amount of his need, not exceeding $300.00 per annum, it shall be the duty of the Stated Clerk to forward the application to the Board, with his endorsement thereon as to the years of service such minister has rendered, his field or fields of labor, with the term of service in each, and his need, as determined by his income and circumstances, and also to certify that the same has been reported to the Presbytery and is recorded upon its minutes. It shall then be the duty of the Board to pay such annual amount so long as the applicant shall live, unless otherwise directed by the Presbytery or the applicant himself, in view of a change in his circumstances that may make the appropriation in whole or in part no longer necessary. (Minutes of General Assembly of 1889, p. 32; 1891, p. 44; 1894, p. 35; Manual, Rule 7.)

FORM OF BEQUEST.

The laws of the different States vary so much as to testamentary bequests that in making a will it is always desirable to secure the services of a competent lawyer. In all cases, however, where bequests are made to this Board the corporate name should be used as follows:

“THE PRESBYTERIAN BOARD OF RELIEF FOR DISABLED MINISTERS AND THE WIDOWS AND ORPHANS OF DECEASED MINISTERS,” incorporated in the State of Pennsylvania, October 21st, 1876.

OF THE
BOARD OF MISSIONS FOR FREEDMEN
OF THE

IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
TO THE
GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
FROM MARCH 31st, 1905, TO APRIL 1st, 1906.

The Board of Missions for Freedmen respectfully presents to the General Assembly its Forty-first Annual Report.

For the seventh time in regular succession, the Board has closed its year's work without any outstanding obligations.

Last year the income from church collections exceeded that of the year before by twenty-nine hundred and eighty-four dollars.

This year the income from church collections exceeded that of last year by fourteen hundred and seventy-one dollars.

The amount received from other regular sources, including Sunday Schools, Young Peoples' Societies and Womans' Societies was less than last year by four hundred and ninety-seven dollars.

Receipts from miscellaneous sources including individual gifts and interest on invested funds, were sixteen hundred and fifteen dollars less than the year before.

Legacies on the other hand were this year more than double as much as last year, amounting to twenty-six thousand eight hundred and ninety-three dollars.

The total receipts from all sources were two hundred and one thousand six hundred and thirty-three dollars. This amount is eleven thousand nine hundred and seventy-nine dollars more than last year, and stands out as the largest amount ever received by the Board in any one year during its entire existence.

The following is a tabulated statement of our receipts for the past four years.

Churches.....	$64,395 26	$62,073 13	$65,056 68	$66,528 62

	$182,954 76	$183,015 12	$189,654 21	$201,633 50

The number of churches that helped us in any one way this year was 5,074, being a gain of 180 as compared with last year.

The number of churches that helped us by congregational collections was 4,138, being a gain of 179.

The number of Sunday Schools that contributed to our work direct was 388, being a gain of 15, and the number giving through the Womans' Board was 438, making a total of 826, a gain of 17.

The number of Young Peoples' Societies contributing to our work direct was 54, a gain of 15, and the number contributing through the Womans' Board was 1,033, a loss of 90, making a total of 1,087 and a loss of 75.

The amount of money given by the patrons and friends of our School work, as reported this year amounts to $67,848.77, an increase of $4,578 over last year.

The amount given in church work, including church building, repairs, contingent expenses and ministerial support, as reported to us by our ministers on the field was $55,782.80, an increase of $12,897.94 over last year.

The total amount for both church work and school work gathered and expended on the field and reported to the Board was $123,631.57, none of which passed through the Treasury of the Board, or is in any way included in the Treasurer's statement of receipts and expenditures of the Board.

Besides this the churches under the care of the Board gave through the annual congregational collections $855.70 to the Freedman's Board, and $2,105.03 to the other Boards of the church.

If we add the amounts contributed to the various Boards to the other amounts reported as raised on the field for church and school purposes, we have a sum-total of $126,592.30 handled by our ministers and teachers during the year, and expended by themselves on the field along lines that make for righteousness and peace and the advancement of the Kingdom of God.

This unusually large amount that we place to the credit of our workers on the field attracts attention and excites our interest, as an incident in the development of the race that is not without marked significance. It has its meaning, and its proper interpretation is full of encouragement.

In the first place some of this money was contributed by the white people of the communities in which it was raised and expended. This is particularly true with reference to the money raised for church building. Contributions to this object are not made by our Board without knowing how much has been raised on the field, or naming a fixed amount that must be raised in order to secure the aid of the Board.

There are very few cases when a church is being built where the good white people of the place do not help to some extent. How much we do not always know. Some more, some less, but enough to demonstrate the kindly feeling of the christian people of the stronger race toward their weaker brethren in their efforts to establish the kingdom of God in their midst.

While it is undoubtedly true that a certain amount, and in the matter of church buildings, a considerable amount is contributed by their white friends, it is still true that by far the larger part is given by the colored people themselves and to them still belongs the credit of striving to show themselves worthy of help from others, by sincerely and self-denyingly striving to help themselves.

Let us not however, imagine that any group of colored people of equal number, taken at random, could or would under similar conditions show as good a record. These people to whom we minister are in the main, of the better class. As a whole they have a higher degree of intelligence than the average, and a better training. They are superior in character to the general mass. Their self-respect is more distinctly developed. Their habits are better in the matter of sobriety, industry and frugality. They have in them an infusion of the Westminster Catechism, and have had the benefit of a Presbyterian training; and out of all this comes the creditable showing, at which we may at first be surprised, but over which we ought surely to rejoice.

It is a natural result of character-building. We have been trying to teach them how to live, and this itself lies at the foundation of the problem as to how to make a living. The righteous have not been forsaken, and His seed are not begging bread.

With all this as true, there still remains the fact that these good people are relatively poor ; some of them very poor. It is out of their poverty rather than their abundance that they have given so much. It is a hopeful and inspiring indication of what may be expected of them when they become prosperous—as some men count prosperity. Their benevolence even now stands well, comparatively; and looks respectable beside the benevolence of some sections of the more prosperous race.

Along this same line we may call attention to the fact that in the list of churches published this year in our Annual Report there are twelve that are maintaining the gospel in their midst, for their own benefit and the benefit of their children, without any aid from us. They are receiving nothing from the Board toward their minister's support.

There are a number of others that receive from the Board only a nominal amount. These will soon be able to place themselves on the self-supporting list.

The following tabulated statement and list presents a summary of the work and institutions under our care.

Three new school buildings at important points have been completed this year and will greatly facilitate the work as carried on at these places.

The Boys' Dormitory at Swift Memorial Institute, Rogersville, Tenn., costing about $11,000 is already occupied by students, and will be formally dedicated before this report reaches the Assembly.

An Academy at Statesville, N. C., to be known as Billingsly Academy, costing a little over $3,000 is just completed, and will be ready for use when the school opens next fall. This is a memorial to Rev. A. S. Billingsly a devoted white minister who spent his life in that region preaching to the colored people.

A third building, the largest of the three, is McGregor Hall, built in connection with Haines' Normal and Industrial Institute at Augusta, Ga., which consists of twelve commodious classrooms, and a large and convenient Assembly room or Chapel capable of holding from eight hundred to one thousand persons. The whole building has cost about $18,000, the money having been generously provided by Mrs. Tracy McGregor of Michigan. This building fills a great and long felt need in connection with the important and growing work under our care at that point. It will provide ample class-room and chapel accommodations for more than seven hundred pupils connected with the school, and will allow the present dormitory building to be given up entirely to the home-life of the boarding department.

It is the hope of the Board, through the help of these additional facilities, that this school at Augusta, Ga., will ultimately develop into the leading Normal Institute, for the training of colored teachers in Georgia, as there is no greater need at present in educational work among the colored people of the south than that of thoroughly trained teachers---workmen that need not be ashamed.

We have thought it wise and best to move our School site at Monticello, Ark., to a more acceptable part of the town. To this end the Board has purchased on reasonable terms sixteen acres of land, where a new school building will be erected as soon as the old one can be disposed of at its fair market value. The new minister in charge of our little church at that place has been favorably received and with his wife has maintained a successful parochial school during the winter. He has attempted no boarding school this year in connection with his work, but with the sale of the old building and the erection of a new one there is no discernable reason why a great and good work cannot be done at that place. In this the leading citizens of the place concur. Many of the former patrons of the school are making inquiries as to the opening of the Boarding School, and are expressing the wish that it may not be long delayed. We are hoping it may be accomplished this year.

Biddle University, at Charlotte, N. C., has on hand at present some 16,000 volumes, which is the beginning of the much larger library the University hopes some day to possess. These volumes are now kept in one of the class-rooms of the main building. The room is at the same time used as a class-room. The double use to which the room is put reduces its value for either purpose for which it is constantly used. Dr. Sanders, President of the University, seeing that an arrangement of this kind cannot long continue for the good of the school, and noting that many towns and institutions in various parts of the land were receiving libraries from one of the leading philanthropists of this country, made bold to lay his case before Mr. Andrew Carnegie, and received from him a reply last December that he would be glad to pay for a library building for Biddle University at a cost of $12,500, provided a similar amount, as new endowment, were raised "toward the upkeep and carrying on of the library."

The Board of Missions for Freedmen, which is responsible for the existence of the University and which bears the annual burden of its maintenance, and which has its development and welfare close at heart, realizes that the possession of such a building as proposed, would not only be of great advantage to the institution itself, and to the student body in attendance, but also to the colored population of the community in which the University is planted.

The Board expressed to Mr. Carnegie its hearty appreciation of his generous offer, but it remains to be seen whether or not the amount necessary to meet the conditions on which this needed building is offered, can be secured. The raising of this required amount--$12,500--has been referred to our Field Secretary, Dr. McClelland, to be appealed for, as opportunity may present. We can only hope that from some unexpected source we may receive this desired amount.

The Woman's department of the Freedmens' Board, which is the same as the Freedman's department of the Woman's Board, has its headquarters in the rooms of the Board, and under the management of Mrs. V. P. Boggs, its general secretary, is intimately associated with the Board in all the work under its care, keeping in touch with the needs of the work and ready to respond with a helping hand, according to its ability, where and when help is most needed.

During this last year Mrs. Boggs made an extended tour through the south visiting twenty-three of our larger and more important schools and many of the churches, making herself familiar with the needs and limitations, as well as in some cases their claims for better facilities and wider spheres of usefulness, thus bringing back to the Board a fund of information based on personal observation, which the Board gladly avails itself of in its effort and desire to wisely manage the work, and rightly administer the funds entrusted to its care.

Through our Woman's department salaries are secured, scholarships are maintained, and the general fund for school purposes substantially increased.

Almost all the special funds that have been raised for special purposes of late years, have been raised through this department.

For any advance work, calling for extra outlay of funds, the Board has learned through wholesome experience that it is every way better to obtain the money first, before making the expenditures. It has also learned that the surest way of obtaining this extra money is to enlist the interest and sympathy of the Womans' Department, which goes to work in a systematic way apportioning various amounts to various societies, according to ability, locality or special interest. It sometimes takes more than one year to obtain the amount, but in the end the amount is obtained, and the waiting work proceeds.

Three funds undertaken by the Womans' Department two years ago were found at the end of last year to be unfinished, namely, one for $10,000 for building at Cotton Plant, Ark., one for $10,000 for building at Mary Potter School, Oxford, N. C., and one for $3,500 for building at McClelland School, at Newnan, Ga. These funds were all completed this year and the Board is now in a position to proceed without further delay with the work.

A number of smaller funds were also undertaken this year by the Womans' Department, some of which were completed but others were not, and as it is the custom, they will go over another year, for completion. A detailed account of the work of the Womans' Department, as submitted by Mrs. Boggs, will be found in her Annual Report, approved by the Board and ordered printed along with this report, as an appendix, to which the Board calls special attention, with the hope that it will be carefully read by all who are interested in our work.

Rev. H. T. McClelland, D. D., Field Secretary of the Board, submitted the Second Annual Report of his labors during the year. The following extract from the report shows the general character and scope of his work, which as he suggests, has been in the nature of sowing good seed. Without the sowing there can be no reaping. The results are with the Lord of the Harvest. We would not want them elsewhere.

"It has been the policy of your Field Secretary to reach the people of our church, and to stimulate as well as to create their interest in this great and crying cause, as far as possible, through their ministers and sessions, and in their congregations, by the living voice, by personal letters and by the judicious use of printed matter. He is firmly convinced 'no one contradicting,' that the proper basis for the financial support of our church is in the intelligent and therefore the sympathetic, compassionate interest of our congregations contributing through their organized capacities. Out of such an atmosphere will spring in increasing numbers those generous individual givers so necessary at present to the very existence of our beneficent work. At the same time the assiduous cultivation of congregations conserves the sound business principle that prefers one thousand one dollar contributors to one one thousand dollar contributor. The basis of expectation is broader and more secure as the number of individual givers is multiplied. The sum of Christian blessedness is increased. And never was a cause more notably the cause of the people for the people than the cause of Missions for Freedmen.

Your Field Secretary has found as many congregations and ecclesiastical meetings accessible for the presentation of our cause as he has had time and strength to enter. By the effective co-operation, which is hereby gratefully acknowledged, of staunch friends of the work, and such faithful Presbyterian Chairmen and other interested ministers, he was enabled from time to time throughout the year to make quite comprehensive itineraries in such Presbyterian centers as Buffalo, Rochester, Troy and Brooklyn, N. Y., Newark, N. J., Saginaw and Bay City, Mich., St. Louis, Mo., Minneapolis and St. Paul, Minn. He also plead in this behalf, mostly at Sabbath morning services, in important churches in Bradford, Warren, Danville, Coatesville, Chester, Lock Haven and Greenville, Pa., and in the First Church of Poughkeepsie, N. Y. He embraced similar opportunities in twenty more of our good churches in the several Presbyteries of Wheeling, Washington, Pittsburgh, Kittanning and Blairsville. He was heard at ministers meetings in Pittsburgh, Rochester, St. Louis and Minneapolis. Upon invitation he addressed a meeting of the Woman's Board in New York City, and Presbyterian Societies of Buffalo, Otsego, Shenango, Clarion and Minneapolis, as well as local societies in Buffalo, N. Y., Richfield Springs, N. Y., and New Brighton, Pa. He attended and addressed in the interest of the Board the Presbyteries of Rochester, Troy, Brooklyn, Otsego, Steubenville, Saginaw, Detroit, Lansing, Northumberland, Chester, Minneapolis and St. Paul. He was on duty in this behalf at the General Assembly last May, and last Fall attended and addressed the Synods of Indiana, Wisconsin, Michigan, New York and Atlantic.

“Upon the southern field in addition to attending the Synod of Atlantic at Madison, Ga., your Field Secretary preached the Annual Sermon before the Graduating Class, and was present at all the exercises of last Commencement at Biddle University. He also visited and carefully inspected our work and surrounding conditions at Atlanta, Ga., Anniston, Ala., Columbus, Ga., Newnan, Ga., Anderson, S. C., Charleston, S. C., Walterboro, S. C., and upon the Sea Islands of Johns and Edisto, S. C. He also took occasion when in the south to inspect some typical schools conducted under other auspices than ours.

“In addition to these visitations he conducted a somewhat extended correspondence with missionaries on the southern field inquiring carefully into the present physical, intellectual, moral and spiritual condition of the average negro family; asking for concrete instances of the saving results of our work; requesting an accurate statement of the actual condition of public schools for negroes in the county, town, or city where the worker inquired of labors; and seeking an expression of judgment with ‘reasons annexed’ whether if northern aid were withdrawn the south, including all classes, could or would give the negro children adequate public school education. This correspondence elicited pitiful responses as to the condition of the average negro family; encouraging instances of many individuals and families saved from that lost condition by means of our missions; a depressing picture of the wretched state of negro public schools, especially in the rural districts—the south is so overwhelmingly rural; and the unanimous judgment that if northern missions were withdrawn the south neither would nor could educate the preponderating mass of the colored children.

“Your Field Secretary further desires to report that during the past twelve months he made many calls upon individuals in the interests of our work, and in the same interests with his own hand wrote many hundreds of personal letters to persons in centers of influence in the church, urging them to co-operate for an advance up to the limit set by the General Assembly in the financial support of this signally important detail of the great missionary work undertaken by our branch of the evangelical church.

"Thus in brief has the time been occupied. When the Field Secretary could speak in connection with church collections, these appeared uniformly to be encouragingly increased, and when he occasionally presented a special public appeal for extra help in furnishing the Trades Building at Biddle University there was usually, without personal solicitation, some substantial response, notably so in one or two congregations composed largely of working people.

"But upon the whole his work with the Presbyteries, Societies, Churches, etc., has seemed to him to be, as most gospel preaching is, the sowing of good seed, some of which has fallen surely into good ground, of which we shall reap in due season if we faint not."

On the tenth of May of last year, after the printing of our last Annual Report, and before it was presented to the General Assembly, our Board sustained a very serious and unlooked for loss in the death of Mr. S. P. Harbison, who had been a faithful and efficient member since 1888. The following is a part of the Minute adopted by the Board at the time of his death:

Mr. Harbison brought to the Board a large business experience, a keen intellect of marked foresight and insight, and a superb judgment.

"In judgment he was not only wise, but most just and honest. He examined all questions from every point of view and weighed them with minutest care. He was thoroughly free from prejudice, and when he detected an error in his conclusions he was prompt to correct it.

"The fact that he reached a certain conclusion upon a given subject at a certain time did not suffice for that question at another time; but upon its reappearance the question was fully reviewed and re-examined.

"His justice, accuracy and honesty in forming a judgment was one of the ever present and permanent traits of this good man.

"Mr. Harbison was more than a man of ability. He was a man of tender sympathy and compassion. He felt for men and suffered with them. He was a devout man, and the will and glory of his Lord was ever a governing motive.

“Mr. Harbison was able financially, and as generous as able. In all his substance he held himself to be the steward of God, and for this reason the cause of the Freedmen was continually receiving generous offerings from his hand.

“Our friend was most gracious to his brethren of the Board. We loved the man. Free from pretensions, fair in his dealings, generous in his estimates, ever thoughtful, gentle, refined, manly, strong and true, his departure strains the heart, as well as the head and hands of his brethren.”

It is gratifying to the Board that while making this record of our sense of loss in the death of Mr. Harbison, we can also state that we have recently had some practical assurance that the members of his family, now that he has left us, will by no means lose their interest in this good work to which he was willing to give so much of his time and his means.

Mrs. Harbison has generously offered to meet the expense of the erection of a President's house, at Harbison College, Abbeville, S. C., to the extent of $2,500, an amount deemed amply sufficient to secure the desired end.

The thoughtfulness and kindness of this offer as well as its liberality, can be better appreciated when it is made known, that the President of this institution is trying to get along with his wife and eight children crowded uncomfortably in one end of the girls dormitory. It is not hard to imagine the joy and comfort this offer will bring.

Miss Mary E. Holmes, Ph. D., of Rockford, Ill., who had served the Board as “Secretary of the North West” for the last ten years, departed this life on the 13th of last February, after a comparatively short and painful illness.

Reared under Christian influences and inheriting from her parents a spirit of usefulness, she early learned to consecrate herself to Christian work, and to hold herself and her privileges ready for every call in behalf of the needy.

With a mind disciplined by study and developed by wide and varied experience, she devoted herself to the welfare of the negro, and grew more and more interested in everything that promised the larger happiness and progress of the race.

Her enthusiasm which was never diminished by difficulties, grew with the years until even in her last days amid pain and the shadows of the approaching end, she struggled to carry on the vigorous correspondence of her time of health, with a mind filled to overflowing with thoughts of work among the Freedmen.

The loss of such a worker, whose zeal was so contagious, and whose toil was carried on without hope of pecuniary compensation, is deeply felt by the Board.

To her father, Rev. Meade Holmes, to whom she was the cheering companion in every good work, and the solace of his later years, the Board extends its deepest sympathy. Grateful for his own gifts and interest in our work, we are still more grateful that to him and his example we owe the large and precious results of his daughter's noble career.

And now that another year of work and watchfulness and prayer is ended, as we look back we can find much to be thankful for.

We have not only raised more money and spent more money on the field this year than in any other one year in the history of this Mission, but in many other ways we have been able to record an advance. More churches have contributed to our cause, more pupils have attended our schools, more ministers have been helped and best of all more souls have professed conversion under their ministry.

Nineteen hundred and fifty have been added to our churches on confession of their faith in Christ, and doubtless many more have been taught the way of life in our Christian Schools, who have gone into other churches to which their parents belong.

The loss in consecrated workers of which mention has been made is only such as may be looked for in any part of the great work in which the stewards of God are engaged. We are co-workers with Him in this world, but it is only for a time. He only works on without resting and without fail.

In a little while each one in the great army of those that now serve will be called to cease from their labors here, and enter into their rest, and their reward. But this will not stop or retard the work. In all the ages through which God has been building up His Kingdom in this world He has been doing it by relays of workers. As others will take the places of those with whom we have been intimately associated, whom He has recently laid aside, so surely will He fill our own places when He decides that we have served Him here long enough.

This work carried on through successive years, and built up by successive workers is indeed God's work. It was undertaken at His command. It has been built upon His promises.

It is a blessed privilege to be associated with it. * It will some day be esteemed a great honor to have had a share in it. Its aim has been, and is,—not to enslave, but to set free; not to discourage, but to cheer; not to cast down, but to uplift; not to destroy, but to save.

Let those who would like to help on this good work ask God to allow them, and show them how; and let such as would in any way hinder it, take heed lest haply they be found fighting against God.

The term of service of the following members expires with this Assembly:

Rev. D. S. Kennedy, D. D., Rev. Maitland Alexander, D. D.,
Rev. W. S. Fulton, D. D., Rev. Samuel J. Glass, D. D.,
Mr. Vincent Miller.

We recommend their re-election.

ACTION OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY
AT DES MOINES, IOWA

RESOLUTIONS.

We respectfully present the following recommendations for the adoption of this Assembly:

1. That the Assembly commends the fidelity of the Directors and Secretaries, congratulating them and the Church on the increased fruits of the service rendered during the last year.

2. That the Minutes of the Board be approved.

3. That we express our grateful appreciation of the effective work of the Woman's Department of this Board, and our hope for the continued favor of God upon their earnest effort.

4. That $300,000, the amount named by the two preceding Assemblies, but not yet realized, be named as the minimum amount the Churches should contribute to this Board during the current year.

5. That we cordially commend the loyalty, faithfulness and self-denial of the Ministers working under this Board; that we believe the high standard of their work, and the spiritual fruits growing out of it, demand that a more just and adequate support be furnished these men.

6. That in the death of Mr. S. P. Harbison, a generous and useful member of the Board, and of Miss Mary E. Holmes, the Freedmen, the Schools and the whole Church has sustained a great loss, but we are profoundly grateful to God for the noble service they have rendered in the name and for the Kingdom of our Master.

7. That the Pastors, Elders and Missionary Societies be urged to present the claims of the work done in the Schools under Presbyterian direction, to men and women whom God has largely endowed with wealth.

8. That the following members of the Board, whose term now expires, be re-elected, viz: Rev. D. S. Kennedy, D. D.; Rev. Maitland Alexander, D. D.; Rev. W. S. Fulton, D. D.; Rev. Samuel J. Glass, D. D., and Mr. Vincent Miller.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the Committee.

ROBERT M. DONALDSON, Chairman.

Attest:

W. H. ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

TWENTY - SECOND ANNUAL REPORT
OF THE
FREEDMEN'S DEPARTMENT
OF THE
WOMAN'S BOARD OF HOME MISSIONS

513 BESSEMER BUILDING, PITTSBURGH, PA.

In presenting the Annual Report of the Freedmen's Department, for the year 1905 and 1906, it seems appropriate first of all to call attention to the great loss sustained by the Board in the death of Miss Mary E. Holmes, a lifelong friend of the colored people, and for the past ten years Freedmen's Secretary of the North West. We desire also to place on record the testimony of this department, to her untiring zeal and devotion to the cause of the Freedmen, voluntarily and without compensation, giving her time, her talents, her means and her best energies to the work which had been committed to her. But the heart that was overflowing with love and sympathy for the lowly and despised, the active brain that seemed never to grow weary in devising ways and means for the advancement of the work, the busy hands that were ever ready to minister to the necessities of the destitute and suffering, are stilled—but the influence which has gone out from her consecrated life will never die. From every quarter comes the inquiry who can fill the place left vacant by the removal of Miss Holmes? "The workers fall but the work goes on." Miss Holmes' place, possibly cannot be filled by any one person, but her friends, who are a great host, can show their love for her memory and their appreciation of her faithful and valuable service by maintaining, strengthening and extending the work among the multitudes, to whom her mind constantly reverted, even amid the suffering and "the shadow of the approaching end" and in whose behalf both voice and pen had been used with so great power and effectiveness. In this way the work so dear to her heart and to the Master whose she was and whom she served will go forward.

A year ago we presented the 21st Annual Report of the Freedmen's department, rejoicing that an advance had been made in receipts beyond that of any previous year in its history. But it is with humiliation and disappointment that we present our 22d Annual Report. We entered upon the first year of our majority with the hope and expectation that the spirit of advance which led to a generous increase of gifts last year would continue and that the new year would show a still further increase; but alas! our hopes were not realized and we must confess our inability to meet the obligations assumed at the beginning of the year. A lessening of gifts however does not always imply a decrease of interest, and in this instance there is no reason to be discouraged. In no previous year has there been a greater demand for information concerning the work for the Freedmen; so many regrets for a slight falling off in gifts this year nor so many expressions of a desire "to do more for this important department of missions the coming year." The disappointment of the Freedmen's department moreover is greatly mitigated by the increased receipts of the Board, the amount passing the $200,000 mark for the first time since its organization. We would therefore make mention of the loving kindness of our God in continuing to bless the efforts which have been made to advance the cause of the Freedmen and render most grateful thanks that we have been permitted to be co-workers with Him in extending His Kingdom.

FINANCIAL.

The receipts this year, of the Freedmen's Board through the Woman's Board of Home Missions were $70,910.93, a falling off as compared with last year $2,136.87; of the total amount received $51,709.74 came from Women's Societies; $5,272.72 from Sabbath Schools, $11,275.47 from Young Peoples' Societies and $2,653.00 from Miscellaneous sources. From Women's Societies $138.50 was sent direct to the Board. The deficit in Women's Societies was slight, only $30.31. Young Peoples organizations $744.46. While Sabbath Schools made an advance of $186.75. The largest falling off was in Miscellaneous gifts, which amounted to $1548.85.

These contributions have been applied to the educational work of the Board as follows: Salary, $21,863.72; Scholarship, $19,297.23; General Fund for School purposes, $14,858.83; building fund, $14,891.15. The greatest loss is in gifts to building purposes, that to General fund being met by increase of salary.

The falling off in receipts from Young People's Societies is largely in a few Presbyterian organizations and may be attributed to extra efforts made last year in behalf of a special object, which could not be repeated this year. It is to be regretted that there was also a large decline in the number of Young People's Societies, ninety less, remembering the Freedmen, in their gifts to Missions than last year, while many Societies have increased their contributions. As a rule the Young People are enthusiastic in their efforts to aid the Freedmen Schools when the work is presented to them, and a number of scholarships have been taken by them the past year. Our largest deficit is from Miscellaneous sources, being $1,548.85 or three-fourths of the entire amount.

It is cause for gratitude that Sabbath Schools have advanced in contributions the past year, but there is yet room for a great forward movement on the part of these Schools, as the total number which remembered Freedmen in their gifts to Missions was but 826. There still remain over 7,000 to be enlisted. The building fund of $25,000 for the raising of which our department became responsible was apportioned as usual at the beginning of the year among the various Synodical Societies, the unfinished building funds of the previous year constituting a part of the apportionment. It is gratifying to report that the last named funds have been completed and are available for building purposes this year. These are, for the Cotton Plant Academy $10,000; the Helen A. Wells building $10,000 and the McClelland Academy $3,500, the amount required to complete these buildings in addition to that raised last year was $13,500. For the new buildings and improvements undertaken at the beginning of the year just closed $1,438.29 was designated for the Kendall School; for Dayton Academy only a small amount was designated. This unfinished work will therefore constitute a part of the special work apportioned this year with the hope that funds may be received in the near future for its completion. The improvement fund of $1,000 for Danville School has been fully made up by the Women and Young People's Societies of Ohio Synodical. The new McGregor Hall for Haines School, Augusta, Ga., has been finished and will be dedicated early in May. This beautiful and commodious building is the gift of Mrs. Tracy McGregor of Detroit, Mich., and when furnished and equipped as it will be by the Societies of Penna. it will more than double the accommodations of that school as well as increase its power and influence in the great state of Georgia with its more than a million negroes.

Of the several building funds which have been completed, one is for the Helen A. Wells building an addition to the Mary Potter School at Oxford, N. C. This building which is for girls dormitory and school of Domestic Science will be erected this summer. It is the gift of New York Synodical Society, contributed in two years besides meeting all pledges for salary and scholarship and is designed as a testimonial of esteem and appreciation of the faithful and efficient service for many years of their Freedmen Secretary, Miss Helen A. Wells of Saratoga Springs. The completion of the building and repair fund for Cotton Plant Academy is the result of two years effort in the Synodicals of the West, North and South West. The present buildings have been repaired and improved, plans for the new building are prepared and the work will go forward as rapidly as possible that it may be ready for occupancy in the fall. The fund of $3,500 for a new School building at Newnan, Ga., has been contributed by Penna Societies, the ingathering requiring two years as the fund was one of several presented the same year. Ohio Synodical is to be congratulated upon the completion of the fund for improvements at Danville, Va. This gift was in part anticipated, the work of improvement begun early in the year. This case was an exception to a rule of the Board which requires that funds for buildings and improvements be in hand before work begins. The new school building at Statesville, N. C., known as the Billingsley Memorial, named in honor of one of the pioneer missionaries to the Freedmen, has after many delays been completed. $1,500 of the $2,500 expended on this building was contributed by Societies of Ohio two years ago. The remainder was given by Mrs. Billingsley as a memorial to her husband. The girls dormitory for Kendall School and the Dayton Academy building will continue the special objects for the new year or until the funds are completed, with several additions to the list. These will be assigned early in the year.

RECEIPTS FROM SYNODS.

Contributions for the work of the Freedmen's Board have been received from thirty Synodical Societies, one half of these making an advance on last year's gifts, the other half falling behind. The great Synods of New York and Penna., with others which are usually in the front rank for Freedmen were among the latter class. This backward movement, however, does not indicate a decline in interest in the Freedmen cause, but that their attention has been called to some other pressing need, demanding their assistance. The Synodicals in advance are California, Colorado, Indian Territory, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, New Jersey, North Dakota, New Mexico, Ohio, Oregon, South Dakota, Washington and West Virginia. That the interest in the Freedmen cause is broadening is shown by contributions each year from Societies not previously contributing. New interest is being aroused and new workers enlisted and although some have withdrawn, it is only for a season. They will doubtless return to the work with renewed zeal and devotion. It is most encouraging to note that contributions have been received from 2,977 Women's Societies, a gain of 200, number of Sabbath Schools 826, a gain of seventeen, and the number of Young People's Societies 1,033, being a loss of ninety.

The call for clothing, and household supplies for our schools has met with a more general and generous response than in any previous year. The imperfect reports, and in many cases no report when a box has been sent to the field make it impossible to give an accurate report. The estimated value of boxes and barrels reported to us was over $20,000. This amount includes furnishing, household supplies of bedding, table ware and linen, new material and clothing, with carpet, rugs, and an occasional musical instrument, Piano or Organ, second-hand. Many of our workers testify to the value of aid thus received and some Societies date the beginning of their interest in the Freedmen from the first barrel of clothing sent to minister or teacher, and receiving in return a grateful letter of acknowledgement.

THE SCHOOL WORK.

The Christian School is recognized as a necessity in every department of mission work. This is especially true of the work among the Freedmen. It is in these schools character building must begin and the basis of true character that will develop strong men and women who will be efficient leaders of their race must be the Bible. The good seed which is the word of God must be planted in the hearts of the children if its regeneration is to be brought about. The Freedmen's Board has therefore from its organization established and maintained schools in every part of the field. Sometimes the school was the plant of which a church was the outgrowth. Sometimes the reverse; but however this might be the school is considered the necessary accompaniment of the church. One hundred and eight schools of various grades were carried on during the year. These were distributed throughout the thirteen states that constitute the field of the Board as follows:

One boarding school has been dropped from the list during the year, that at Blackville, S. C. This institution which was known as "Peace Haven" was taken under the care of our Board three years ago. For two years an effort was made to conduct it as a Christian School along Presbyterian lines but without success, and therefore all responsibility for its maintenance by the Board ceased. It was my privilege to visit a number of our schools during their winter term and it is gratifying to be able to report favorably on the work of all that came under my observation, most of the boarding schools were included in this visit, among them, four of our five Seminaries for girls.

At Ingleside Seminary we found 150 bright intelligent girls, active and busily engaged in class room, sewing room, dining room or kitchen according to the particular circle to which they belonged at that time, using every moment of their recreation hour for a sale the following Saturday, the proceeds of which were to add a new sewing machine to that department. No regular work was neglected, only hastened a little that extra time might be devoted to this need of the school for better equipment.

The parochial schools visited in Virginia were fulfilling the requirements of such schools by teaching large numbers in primary grades, laying the foundation for Christian character by instilling Gospel truths through Bible and Catechism instruction and at the same time impressing upon all both boys and girls by precept and practice that "a stitch in time saves nine"—in the case of these pupils it sometimes means the saving of their only garment.

Mary Potter School at Oxford, N. C., is giving large returns for every dollar invested. New York Synodical to which this work is indebted for its present accommodations as well as for the support of its teachers has cause for gratitude that their gifts to this branch of missions are yielding "the hundred fold" in this life, as shown in the homes and communities from which the students come and the transformation that takes place when they return. The crowded condition of the buildings, from six to ten in rooms of ordinary size, did not appear to affect the character of the work, as perfect order and neatness prevailed through every department. The same was true of the other schools visited.

We found the school building of Albion Academy in excellent condition, well furnished as compared with some other schools. A nice sewing room with millinery department and a room for cooking classes added to the attractiveness of the school. Dormitories, dining room, kitchen and pantries, all of which are rude structures built by the students, of unplanned boards and unpainted were patterns of neatness and order, clean as possible to make them, with a cheerful hominess not always found in schools with all modern conveniences.

Dayton Academy was having a vacation when we visited Carthage, N. C., where this school is located, but the results of twenty-four years of faithful effort on the part of Rev. and Mrs. H. D. Wood was manifest in the homes and people of the town and community. The President of the city school Board, a prominent lawyer, hastened to the station as we were leaving town that we might carry with us as we returned North an expression of the high appreciation of the work which our Board has done for their little city and the surrounding country, through its missionaries.

A visit to Scotia Seminary, Concord, N. C., is sufficient to convince the most skeptical of the capabilities of the colored race to receive and make a practical use of a Christian education. We found the home department including special cooking classes; the sewing department in which every branch of this industry is taught, from the simplest stitches to dress making and the making of men's clothing; the hospital department where the sick are cared for by a professional nurse who also administers medicine except in cases of serious illness, and a class in training, all in the hands of educated colored women who had received their training first in the seminary, afterward finishing their special courses in Northern Institutions devoted to these specialities mentioned, returning to Scotia to aid in the uplift of others. These same teachers are able to turn aside each from her specialty, if called upon, and take charge of literary or Bible classes. The home life in Scotia is all that could be desired in a Christian home and it is not strange that the young women who go out from that institution are ambitious to make their own homes after the pattern shown them in the Seminary.

Brainerd Institute at Chester, S. C., is a school of which our Board may be proud. The location is beautiful, the management ideal. While there is much to be desired in the way of improvements, and this school is worthy of the best facilities that can be afforded, yet its present condition is so far superior to that a few years ago that any lack is not noticeable. What of its work? Look at the streets in the vicinity of the school lined with new houses, which occupy the places where only one room cabins formerly stood. Neat tasteful cottages mostly of four rooms, but in some cases two story six-room houses, every house occupied by a negro family, and in most cases the occupant is the owner. The occupants are as a rule former Brainerd pupils, now married, and are locating near the school that their children may have a better chance than they when they had to walk, perhaps several miles to school. But these living near by are only a small proportion of the many who have gone out from that Institution to be a blessing to their race.

Harbison College was one of the schools which interested us greatly. The large number of students who are there in preparation for future usefulness as well as the many who have gone out from its walls, and have taken their places in the world's great field of battle, with a training that enables them to be heroes in the strife, is evidence that what the negroes need that they may become good and useful citizens is just such an education as our Board is furnishing through its Christian schools. The outlook for a great work for the colored race at Harbison College is most encouraging. With improved accommodations and means to develop the various industries projected and to bring its farm to the high state of cultivation of which it is capable, Harbison College will rank with the best Industrial Schools in the South. Its literary work is of a high order and the religious influence exerted by those in charge is shown by the many conversions among the students. The same crowded condition was observed here as in the other schools visited, even the president with his large family, wife and eight children, being crowded into three small rooms in the girls dormitory. This troubled us somewhat causing anxious thought for the health of this family, but this anxiety has been allayed. The school has recently had a visit from Mrs. and Mr. Harbison, the widow and son of Mr. S. P. Harbison, in whose honor the college is named. One of the results of this visit will be a house for the President's family, which they will occupy in the near future, and will add greatly to the comfort and convenience of the family.

Here and there in S. C., as in other states we had evidence of the good effects of parochial school work. At McConnellsville in connection with one of our churches the wife of the minister in charge has for eighteen years taught a day school in which the Bible and the Catechism have been daily text books. Not only the little community of which the church and school is the center but the country all about have reason to be grateful for this school. A large number of boys and girls have gone out to higher schools and thence into business or one of the professions, who received their early education as well as a start in their christian life in this school and the entire community of farmers were first pupils and are now its patrons. This teacher is known far and near for her strong christian character and is the friend of the neighbourhood, both white and colored. Her school is carried on in an old dilapidated church building, destitute of all attractions save the teacher and the opportunity for an education.

Kendall School at Sumter, S. C., is overflowing with students. A look into the class rooms revealed the great need for the new building in contemplation as well as the excellency of the work being done under difficulties. The overcrowded condition in this as in many of our schools as well as the lack of most of the conveniences of modern school rooms reveals the desire on the part of either parents or pupils or both, for an education.

The school at Aiken, S. C., known as the Immanuel School is doing its part towards the uplift of the backward race in that section. We found the students hard at work doing with their might what they could to master the difficulties of the shorter catechism which is one of the daily text books of that institution. The replies, prompt and perfect by most, were evidence that they were not slow to memorize; other classes were equally satisfactory, including a sewing department. This school is in urgent need of improvements and better facilities if it continue to compete with other schools in that section.

The Georgia Schools visited were "Haines" which has been mentioned in connection with its new building and is widely known. The work at Cordele is comparatively new but is worthy of a generous support as no locality visited revealed a greater need. The minister and wife in charge of it deserve great credit for the tactful energy shown in the prosecution of the work in this most difficult field. The work and conditions at Newnan are similar to that of Sumter, and McClelland Academy is like Kendall, anxiously awaiting the new building in contemplation, the funds for which are in readiness.

We found at Barber Memorial, practically the same conditions as in the other Seminaries where only girls are received. But Barber is comparatively new and the number of young women sent out, fully equipped for the life of usefulness upon which we hope our girls will enter, are few as compared with Scotia or Ingleside. If however, we may judge of the few, by the young woman who was in charge of the home department of this school and her assistant, both products of that school, we can heartily commend the work at Barber. The building is the handsomest and the location the most beautiful of any of the schools under our Board. The words of the Psalmist, "As the mountains are round about Jerusalem so the Lord is round about His people," constantly recurred to our mind as we viewed the building, nigh or at distance, and we were impressed with the safety of our cause if the conditions are fulfilled.

At Birmingham the Board has a work which calls for immediate attention if possible to give it. A church and school miserably housed in a large city which unlike some cities visited has progress written large over all its works. Here is a splendid site for a school, one of the best in the city in the midst of a large and growing community of colored people, multitudes of children whose parents at least are anxious for them to have a chance and a Principal with his wife who are carrying on the work creditably under conditions that are most discouraging. No more needy field, so far as we can judge by a casual looking into the work and none more promising presented itself for an investment of from ten to fifteen thousand dollars, in a building that will serve for church and school.

At Mary Holmes Seminary we found the work moving on under the new management as smoothly and with as much regularity as could have been the case had the President and his wife had years of experience in school work among the Freedmen. The Newton School at Chattanooga, Tenn., is one which should receive encouragement and financial aid until fully established. It is in need of a suitable building and better facilities.

Swift Memorial at Rogersville, Tenn., is rejoicing in the possession of the new dormitory which affords accommodation for a large number of boys and young men. "Swift" is a first-class school and is worthy of the honorable name it bears. We found Industrial training a special feature in all of the schools visited, going hand in hand with literary and religious teachings. It was a matter of regret that our tour could not include the Arkansas and Indian Territory schools, but lack of time with pressure of work awaiting us made it necessary to end the tour at Rogersville and turn our faces homeward. It is gratifying however to report favorably on these schools. The work has been progressing encouragingly during the year.

Cotton Plant Academy has closed a successful seven months term, having had an enrollment of 150 students. The new building is anxiously anticipated, when the work will undoubtedly take on a new life and fully repay the Societies which have put forth their best efforts to increase its efficiency.

"Richard Allen" at Pine Bluff, Ark., has also had an encouraging year, enrolling 160 students and is looking forward with hopeful expectancy to the time when it can take its rightful position as one of the Boarding Schools under the Freedmen's Board.

Arkadelphia is doing a substantial work which is telling on the community for good. The Principal writes: "The school is attracting the attention of the County Superintendent of Education whose advice is gladly given and received along lines that help us to direct affairs to the best advantage of those whom we serve."

The School at Monticello has been conducted as a parochial by the minister in charge of the church at that point, assisted by his wife. The work has been most encouraging. In reply to an inquiry "Is the Board justified in continuing the school at Monticello?" the answer came—"if need and desire on the part of pupils and patrons justify the work anywhere they certainly do here." "The school has been full to its utmost capacity with no effort on our part to secure pupils." While the boarding department has been discontinued until the new building is erected, a number of pupils at the earnest request of their parents have been received into the minister's home. There is a strong desire on the part of the former patrons to have the work resumed.

The Oak Hill School which opened for a short term last year has just closed a successful year's work, reporting the largest enrollment since its beginning twenty years ago. Several new courses have been added, both literary and industrial. A Normal course and practical instruction in carpentry, masonry, agriculture and horticulture. The Superintendent writes that "the colored people of that section are beginning to manifest unusual interest in the maintenance and further development of the school and have organized an Oak Hill Aid Society for its benefit. The outlook for the future of this work for the 'Choctaw Freedmen' is most encouraging."

Mary Allen Seminary at Crockett, Texas, has had its usual large enrollment of more than two hundred girls, and will send out this year a number of young women prepared to be a help to their people in their own homes, as teachers in church and school—generally helpful wherever they may be. Such at least is the record of this school in the past and the future outlook is equally hopeful. That many schools have been omitted from this report does not mean that they are of minor importance or that their work is inferior. All are in a healthy growing condition, but few equal to the needs of the several communities in which they are located for lack of room and teaching force.

RELIGIOUS CONDITIONS.

The religious training of our students is the paramount desire of the Board. The Bible is a daily text book through the entire school course, also the shorter Catechism, and it is the aim of the teachers to lead the students to know and accept Christ as their Saviour. Each year there are gracious evidences of the converting, transforming power of the gospel. Of the number added to the churches on examination during this year 1950, a large number of them were students in our schools, while many more united with other denominations. In some of our schools every boarder is a Christian.

SOURCES OF INFORMATION.

Leaflets, descriptive of our Schools, and touching upon every phase of the work, are distributed by hundreds. The "April number" of the Home Mission Monthly is almost entirely devoted to the work of this department, also

"Over Sea and Land"—as The Freedmen is the subject study for the month. The articles which fill these pages are written by persons thoroughly conversant with the work, either members of the Board or workers upon the field. The information given is always the latest and freshest and given to the Societies for their study and reference. The Assembly Herald each month in the year assigns certain space for the use of our Freedmen's Board, and the articles are always instructive and interesting. The Stereopticon views of our schools and their work, with scenes from negro life in the South are an education themselves—and in demand—awakening or stimulating interest in this cause wherever exhibited.

An extensive correspondence is carried on with Synodical and Presbyterian officers, especially with the Secretaries for Freedmen. The work has also been presented most earnestly and faithfully by representatives from the Board and also by speakers from the field. We should therefore confidently hope for an increasing and more general interest in the future.

The Freedmen's Department would most gratefully acknowledge the many favors conferred by the Woman's Board, one of the many being the transmission of funds each month by their treasurer which are sent to her first that they may be duly credited. This means much time and effort and calls for our heartiest thanks and appreciation. We trust we may continue in the future, as in the past, to be the recipient of their kind interest—prayers and hearty co-operation.

The Ladies Committee of the Freedmen's Department continues to meet each month for prayer and conference in the interest of our cause, and in many ways by their sympathy and counsel as well as gifts are a strong support and encouragement.

The Freedmen are advancing in many instances toward self support, in a degree which is creditable and which indicates a determination on their part to rise—whatever sacrifice of comfort or ease or self denial it may cost.

Their total gifts for church and school in the year just closed exceeds that of any other year reaching the sum of $123,631.57. Of this amount $67,848.77 was in support of schools, which was an increase of $4,578.00 over last year. The advance in support of churches was $12,897.94, making a total advance toward self support of $17,475.94. To the mission fund of our Freedmen's Board they gave $855.70, a slight advance, to the other Boards $2,105.03 an advance of $250.83.

In addition to their contributions of money, Scotia Seminary has been honored by one of its graduates giving herself to Foreign Mission work. She will go out under the care of the Southern Presbyterian Church to Africa with Rev. W. H. Shepherd who has spent fifteen years of his life as a missionary in that country. He is appealing for laborers for that field and others may go in response to his call.

We have reached another milestone in the work of this Freedmen Department. As the record of the past year's duties, privileges and opportunities must be left in God's hands—we realize that there have been many failures, and mistakes; but the book is closed and we rest in the consciousness that it is in the hands of a loving, tender, patient Father who knoweth our frame and remembereth that we are dust. In this confidence we face another year taking up its duties with the assurance that as our day is our strength will be and praying that the Good Samaritan spirit may take possession of Christians all over our land, causing them to see the need of a people yet in the bonds of slavery which means eternal death unless their chains are broken, their wounds cleansed and they brought into the Inn of God's boundless love where they can be restored to the image of their Saviour and ours, whose we are and whom we serve.

Respectfully submitted,

(MRS.) V. P. BOGGS,

Gen'l Sec. of Freedmen's Dept.

THE COLLEGE BOARD begs leave to present its Twenty-third Annual Report. The Report of last year had much to say about the future. The Board had been reorganized, there were many new members, the scope of the Board's work had been very widely increased; it was appropriate, therefore, that there should be full statement by the Board as to its understanding of what the removal and the reorganization and the fuller powers were intended to effect.

The Board is ready now to report the results of the first full year of work under the plans and methods of the reorganization. These results may be viewed under several heads.

I. WHAT THE CHURCHES HAVE DONE.

The widest possible correspondence has been held throughout the year. Co-operation of all the churches and all the pastors has been personally invoked. Full information has been sent to churches and to individuals. As a result, many churches and individuals have contributed to the Board's work for the first time, and many more have largely increased their gifts. There has been a large increase in the sum total of the amounts contributed for the general cause of Christian Education. All of these items can be set down most clearly in the table that will follow. The comparison of the work for the past two years is entirely just. The method of accounting is identically the same for both years. The difference tells the advance that has been made by the organizations and individuals of the Presbyterian Church in their gifts for Presbyterian institutions during this year. There have been some extraordinary gifts, for which we are profoundly thankful. They have come, however, in this one year and are a part of its work. There has also been a marked advance in the ordinary collections and gifts upon which the Board's appropriations are based. Early in the year the Board appropriated all that it was warranted in expecting, on the basis of the collections of the previous year. Somewhat later on appeals came in from institutions that were quite as needy and quite as promising as those that had received assistance. It seemed impossible to refuse them, and we made modest grants to a number of colleges, trusting that the advancing interest and liberality of the Church would justify our course. The advance for which we hoped was realized, all our grants were or will be paid, and we close the year without a deficit.

The following table gives the full financial result of the year's work:

The expenses of the Board have been small, the utmost economy being practiced and the utmost efficiency of employees being secured, so that the expenses of administration and communicating information, and those directed by the General Assembly, were but one and two-tenths per cent. of the receipts; but this percentage of expenses to receipts should not, in fairness to other Boards of the Church, be compared with theirs, as the methods of this Board are, by direction of the General Assembly in the Constitution of the Board, radically different from theirs.

2. WHAT THE COLLEGES HAVE DONE FOR THEMSELVES.

(a) Financially.—

Here a full statement is not possible. Every college connected with the Church has been actively at work. The whole Church has been earnestly canvassed in all its parts. Only the institutions are mentioned here that have had reason to rejoice in some special evidence of success. All of the institutions, however, are to be commended for zealous activity.

---

* The number of churches contributing to the Board this year was larger than the previous year, and the amount which they gave was larger; but many large individual gifts, especially in four Synods, the previous year, were, by request of the donors, credited to their churches.

(1) In Occidental, the Trustees, with the special agency of Dr. Walker, the President of the Board and pastor of the Immanuel Church of Los Angeles, have succeeded in raising the full amount of $200,000 additional endowment, and so holding the sums that had been conditionally subscribed for this purpose.

(2) In Pennsylvania College for Women, Dr. Martin, the President, by a special effort through the past winter, raised the $200,000 that was asked for, and has paid all the debts of the institution and laid by about $140,000 for improvements and permanent endowment.

(3) In Washington and Jefferson, there has been an important increase in permanent endowment. Two hundred and thirteen thousand dollars have been received during the year, and it is hoped that the sum of $90,000 now in litigation will soon be added to this amount.

(4) In Wooster, the campaign for large increase in the endowment has gone forward. A total of $126,000, for all purposes, has been secured. Thirty-five thousand dollars of this has been subscribed by Mr. H. C. Frick, for the enlargement of the Frick Memorial Library, and plans have been prepared for a new dormitory for women.

(5) At Huron, through Mr. Voorhees's gift of $100,000, a new hall for general college purposes is being erected. The old college building in the town of Huron has been sold for $15,000. A transfer of the entire college work to the new campus will greatly add to the efficiency of the college.

(6) At Maryville, the Voorhees Memorial Chapel, to which $85,000 of Mr. Voorhees's gift of $100,000 was applied, is nearing completion. This building will serve not only for a chapel, but in many ways contribute to the general work of the institution.

(7) At Park College, the general work has prospered. Sixty-eight thousand five hundred dollars have been added to the permanent endowment or expended in maintenance. A plan has been put in operation for the securing of $300,000 which will insure the perpetuity of the "Family," for which Park has so nobly and successfully contended.

(8) At Carroll, Mr. Voorhees's gift of $100,000 has made possible a dormitory for girls, which up to this time has been the most pressing need.

(9) At Parsons, the endowment has been increased by a legacy of $80,000 from the late Gen. Parsons, of Flora, Illinois, and there have been further additions of $22,800, making a total of $102,800 for the year's work.

(10) In Lafayette, an earnest effort is being made to secure the sum of $500,000 as an addition to the college endowment. It is hoped that the amount will be received in time for the celebration of the seventy-fifth anniversary of the college in 1907. Mr. Voorhees has contributed $100,000 for this purpose.

(11) At Lake Forest, two new buildings have been provided for by individual gifts—one for a men's commons, and the other for a men's dormitory. These buildings are in course of construction. Mr. Carnegie, also, has offered $30,000 for the new Science Building, on condition that a like sum shall be raised by the Trustees for its endowment.

(12) At Coe, the effort for increased endowment has been earnestly continued. Mr. Carnegie has offered $45,000 for a new Science Hall, on condition that a like sum shall be raised by the Trustees for its endowment. This condition will undoubtedly be met. It is thought that a further large conditional offer for permanent endowment can be soon announced.

(13) At Centre, an offer has been received from Mr. Carnegie of $30,000 for a new library, conditioned upon the raising of another $30,000 in the field. Success in meeting this condition will probably be reported at the approaching Commencement.

(14) In Washington, President Cooter has partially finished the effort to raise $100,000 for new endowment. Mr. Carnegie has given $35,000, in addition to this sum, for the erection of a new College Hall.

(15) In Westminster, Mo., the work of endowment raising has gone forward through the year. In April a very aggressive campaign was undertaken in St. Louis, and at the time of the last report $24,250 had been secured.

(16) In Whitworth, a guarantee fund of $25,000 for current expenses has been secured; $5,000 to be paid each year for the next five years.

(17) At Bellevue, a Bellevue League has been organized in Omaha and in other towns and cities of Nebraska. It is believed that this League will result in a very important increase in the endowment.

(18) At Wabash, Mr. Carnegie has offered $50,000 for endowment, upon conditions we are planning and hoping to meet.

(19) At Westminster, Utah, the sum of $31,000 has been secured; $20,000 of the amount being from Mr. Converse for the erection of a College Hall. This will secure the Ferry campus to the institution by meeting the condition named in the will of Col. Ferry. The Board of Home Missions proposes to move the Salt Lake Collegiate Institute to the same campus, so that the Institute may continue to serve as the preparatory department for the college.

(20) At Hastings, the effort to secure $100,000 new endowment is being earnestly made, and with good prospect of success. Conditioned upon this success, Mr. Carnegie has offered $20,000 for a new Science building.

(21) At Western, a canvass of Southern Ohio towns and cities has been begun for the securing of new endowment. Mr. Carnegie has offered $50,000, upon condition of the securing of a total sum of $250,000.

(22) In the German Theological School of the Northwest, at Dubuque, Mr. Steffens, representing the institution, has secured $66,000 for a new building, and the sum of $60,000 to be added to permanent endowment.

(23) At Elmira, Mr. Carnegie has offered $30,000 for a new Science Hall, upon conditions that include another $30,000 for its endowment.

(24) At Caldwell, in Danville, a piece of property costing $20,000 has been given to the institution, on condition (which has been met by the Northern Church) that the sum of $30,000

—$15,000 from the Church North and a like sum from the Church South—be added to endowment.

(25) At Macalester, the canvass of the churches of Minnesota for permanent endowment has been continued, and with very gratifying results, though, as the sums have been contributed on the condition of the raising of a total of $250,000, the amounts cannot be reported at this time.

As has been said already, there has been gratifying activity in the financial field of all of our institutions, notably in Alma and Grove City. Only those, however, have been described in this report where the results attained have been most apparent and most gratifying. The Board is glad to state, and to be assured that the colleges will unite cordially in the statement, that in most of the results mentioned above the agency of The College Board has been definitely useful and effective, while some of the results could not have been attained at all without the "co-operation" which was promised in the prospectus of the reorganized Board, and which has been the watchword of the whole year's work.

(b) Educationally.—

Under this head it is proper to mention a number of changes in the executive management of the colleges. Mr. J. Willis Baer, of the Home Board, has been elected President of Occidental College, and will take up his new duties during the coming summer. Dr. Guy W. Wadsworth, the former President of Occidental, has taken the Presidency of Bellevue, and has finished his first year's work at that institution. President Dr. David R. Kerr, formerly of Bellevue, has taken up the work in Westminster, Mo., having gone to that institution at the beginning of this college year. In October, Rev. Harry R. Crooks became the President of Albany College, in Oregon; and Rev. B. H. Kroese, D.D., who had been Vice-President of Lenox, in Iowa, became the President of Whitworth, in Tacoma, Washington. Dr. Henry D. Lindsay, of Allegheny, has just become the President of Pennsylvania College for Women, at Pittsburgh, and Dr. E. Van Dyke Wight, who has been for ten years pastor of our church in Hastings and for four years President of the College, has resigned from the church, in order to give his whole time to college work.

(c) Spiritually.—

During the year the blessings of spiritual awakening have come to many of our institutions. In some of the colleges, notably in Maryville, Tennessee, the regular custom of working towards a series of meetings in February was followed with eminent success. President Wilson, of Maryville, was invited by the Board to give a full description of the methods of such revival work as had been followed for many years in his institution. His article, published as a leaflet, has been sent widely through the Church, and especially to the Trustees and Presidents of all our Presbyterian Colleges, in the hope that an evangelistic effort may be definitely included in the year's work of their institutions. It is not suggested that the method used in any one of our institutions can be adapted to the varying needs and student life of all of our colleges. It is hoped, however, that the sending of this description of evangelistic effort that has been successful in one of the colleges, may inspire those who are in charge of all of our institutions to take the way that will be wisest in the life of their own institutions to bring the individual student to a full acceptance of the Saviour, and to a definite consecration of his life to Christian service. The College Board stands earnestly for the idea "that such a transformation of the student is the first purpose for which the Christian college has and should have its existence." Cheering reports have been received concerning the results of evangelistic effort in the various institutions. In Maryville, eighty-seven young people consecrated themselves to Christ. In Wilson College, at the end of the week of prayer, eighteen of a total of thirty unconverted students in the College have been brought to Christ. In Poynette Academy, forty united with the Church, leaving only two students in the institution not yet converted. These are only illustrations of a general effort and result. In this connection, it is perhaps proper to quote the words of President Cyrus Northrop, of the Minnesota State university: "I want to say further that it is not possible for a university under any conditions whatever—a State university—to so carefully cultivate the religious spirit and the religious life as it is in a denominational college, conducted widely, liberally, broadly for the purpose of cultivating religion as well as education."

It is hoped that in the next year's work every one of our colleges will make evangelistic effort as much a part of the life of the institution as is the educational work. Horace Mann said in his celebrated college dedication address, that "if the influences of the college were instrumental in the saving of only one boy, there would be ample justification for all the outlay in the erection of the buildings and the endowment of the institutions." To the question put to him quietly afterward, as to whether he had not somewhat overdrawn in this estimate, he is said to have answered, "Not if he were my boy."

3. HOW IS ALL THIS EFFORT ANSWERING THE CALL OF THE CHURCH?

Last year there was much discussion of the question of a suitable number of candidates for the ministry of the Presbyterian Church. It was not without alarm that the Church heard the statistics. Whereas ten years ago there was one candidate for every six hundred and forty members of the Presbyterian Church, in 1905 there was only one candidate for every twelve hundred and forty members. The Board is glad to state that it has received reports from many institutions indicating that there is a decided growth in the number of candidates for the Gospel ministry in all of our colleges. In 1897 there was not a candidate in Southern California; now, after continued spiritual work in Occidental College, there are seventeen candidates for the ministry in the one Presbytery of Los Angeles—all of them Occidental graduates. Of nine men who graduated in the last Senior class at Belvue, seven are now in the Theological Seminary. A member of the Board of Education, going through some of our colleges with the purpose of stimulating a desire for the Gospel ministry, reports twenty-six men studying in Carroll College who will preach Christ at home and abroad. There are thirty young men in the College at Grove City who have the same high purpose. These cheering items are given, not only for themselves, but as evidences of a wide-spread condition that is distinctly promising.

4. WHAT MEANS HAVE CONTRIBUTED TO THESE RESULTS?

(a) The Unifying of all the College Forces.—

By this the Board means to indicate the closer relations that are undoubtedly being developed between the administrative forces of the various institutions and the direct agencies of the Board. Allusion was made in the last Report to the first College Conference, that had been held in connection with the General Assembly a week before the Report was made.

No description could be given of the results attained. That Conference served many purposes. The Presidents and other representatives of all our institutions were brought together into fuller acquaintance and more definite sympathy. All of the college representatives were brought into the same close relations with the representatives of the Board. Problems were discussed very fully, and the result has been that through this following year there has been a most important development of co-operation and mutual helpfulness. The colleges have been of the greatest help to the Board, and if they were making the Report there would undoubtedly be the same statement in regard to the Board's activity.

(d) The Efforts to Convey Widespread Information.—

Early last fall every pastor in the Presbyterian Church was communicated with upon the subject of the Board's relation to the churches and to the colleges. A large proportion of the churches were urged to increase their interest in, and their gifts for, the cause of Christian education. Continued correspondence has been had with pastors and churches and individuals in regard to the purposes that the Board has set before it. Especial attention, through correspondence, has been given to the evangelistic side of the Board's work. The colleges have been encouraged to agree upon some evangelistic effort for the conversion and consecration of the student life, and the Church has been widely invoked to encourage all these efforts and to pray unitedly for their success. It is estimated that in the neighborhood of 15,000 letters have gone out from this office upon these various special missions, in addition to the ordinary daily correspondence of the office.

5. WHAT SPECIAL AIMS WOULD THE BOARD SET BEFORE THE ASSEMBLY AND THE CHURCH?

(a) The aim of keeping our colleges and all our educational institutions definitely religious. This is a matter that cannot be left to take care of itself. In every locality influences must be met and overcome that would tend to the secularization of schools that have been founded with the definite purpose of serving Christ's kingdom. In the development of each institution's life temptations come from the loyal constituency, and sometimes from the official life of the institution itself, which suggest the incongruity of high and scientific education with religious aims and evangelistic methods. Such temptations must be vigorously fought, and it is the province and the purpose of your Board to fight them. In every institution the prevailing tendencies are toward religious work and religious aims, and they will simply need strong and constant reinforcement on the part of the Church. It is not the Church's aim or the Board's aim to develop what could properly be called "sectarian" schools. Our schools will not be in any sense sectarian in their relations with the students. The purpose toward the student is the consecration of the trained and developed intellectual life of the student to the world-wide service of Jesus Christ. Our colleges are denominational, from the point of view of the Church's purpose to raise up workers for the fulfillment of the mission of the Presbyterian Church in the salvation of the world. Later on in this report it will be seen how absolutely dependent the Presbyterian Church is, and must be, upon the forces of that higher education which is given to its own members through its own agencies.

(b) Of having under our care educational work of the very highest type.

In this twentieth century of Christian progress, the Presbyterian Church must not ask a community to support a college because it has a pious tone or a religious influence, unless at the same time the institution is living up to the highest educational standards; unless its ideals educationally are constantly advancing. The Church of Jesus Christ cannot afford to have any standards or ideals but the highest. Its divine Master was sent into the world to teach all nations. It has in all its development headed the advance toward educational and intellectual improvement. The light that has come into the world, mental as well as spiritual, has come because of the truth as it is in Jesus. The Presbyterian Church will refuse to be satisfied with education or attainment in any direction that is not the best and highest attainable, because only the highest is conformed to the truth of God.

(c) Of wider and wider efforts.

New fields are pressing their claims upon us. During the past year the Board has taken under its care the College of Florida, which has no greater hindrances in its way than those which have had to be surmounted by every one of our Western institutions. North Dakota must have a Presbyterian College, and a location is being sought for an institution there. New Mexico should have a Christian college as the natural completion of the educational work there that the Church has for many years been carrying forward. Colorado has a Committee appointed with a view to a Presbyterian College, and the Board will give assistance as it has opportunity. The outlook educationally is boundless. State after State, Territory after Territory is without an educational institution of the higher grade. Our Church must occupy the Philippines. The Roman Catholics have begun their college work in Manila, and report some twelve hundred students. Bishop Dougherty has gone to Segovia with six professors consecrated to the training of ministers; but then the Roman Catholics are wise in their generation—wiser than the men who like to monopolize the title of "Children of Light." Their handbooks report 116 colleges and 637 academies in these United States. They claim to have 768,498 in the preparatory schools connected with their parishes. With one-tenth of the population of this country, they own and carry on one-fourth of the colleges. They propose to be the influential part of the community and therefore they propose to carry on the colleges. Someone, a few years ago, asked why the Jews were so tremendously powerful in Germany. In mere point of numbers they are not a very considerable part of the population. The report of the Minister of Education, however, in 1895 gave an entirely sufficient answer. In Germany at that time, 10,000 Catholics sent 32 men to the universities; 10,000 Protestants sent 50 to the universities; while 10,000 Jews sent 333 to the universities.

That Church of Christ which is true to His Gospel will have the most far-reaching influences, and will be the most really dominant factor in the advancing life of this Republic, that gives the strongest, highest and most widely developed higher education.

This leads naturally to the present appeal of the Board. The Board would emphasize the fact that there will always be new institutions and institutions that for years to come will be weak and struggling. We ask, in order that such institutions may be supported, a tremendously increased offering from the churches. This is hard to secure, as every pastor knows. The Presbyterian Church has given so widely to every union and undenominational enterprise, that it is only with difficulty that any important increase can be made in church collections. The Board calls upon pastors for loyal support in this direction, and the Board will be able to do its work in any proper degree in proportion as the churches are led to a higher plane of privilege and duty.

(d) There is another field to which the Board has been looking, toward which it was pointed by direction of the Assembly. The matter is somewhat apart from the special activities of the Board, but it is unquestionably essential to the Church's progress. The Assemblies of Buffalo and of Winona recognized the necessity of work for Presbyterian students in the State universities, and committed the matter to the College Board for its attention. The Secretary of the Board, believing that the need of a State university in this regard was neither educational nor financial, but distinctly a need of Christian work, brought this work to the attention of the Evangelistic Committee. The Special Committee of the Evangelistic Committee upon Student Work was instructed to call a conference, which it did call, summoning representatives of the College Board, the Board of Education and the College Branch of the Y. M. C. A. to meet with it. In compliance with the recommendation of its Special Committee, and as a result of the conference which had been held, the Evangelistic Committee has sent out Dr. Buchanan, of Morgantown, W. Va., as a representative of its intended work. He has gone from institution to institution, seeking the line of least resistance, along which to bring Gospel opportunities to the students in the State universities. What is said here merely indicates the direction along which effort will be directed. The Board will have further report to make when it is able to more fully inform the Church as to the details of the effort that will be carried forward.

In every direction the prospect and the opportunity are boundless, and the Church will arise and possess the land. The need is absolutely fundamental to the life and work of the Presbyterian Church. Without the development of the Christian college, the various activities of the Presbyterian Church must be seriously curtailed.

The Board has made every effort to find out for the information of the Church the source of supply of its special leaders and workers—the institutions where they have received their scholastic training. An exact study of the records kept by the Foreign Board revealed the fact that in the past five years the Board had sent out 291 Foreign Missionaries. Of this number 86 had not gone to college, but had received their training in Bible Institutes or other schools of Christian work. Of the remaining 205, more than 92% were educated in Christian colleges and universities; some 84% in the small Christian college alone. Early in the year the Board sent out a postal card to every Home Missionary in the Church and by resulting correspondence found that 93% of these servants of the Church were graduated by our Christian colleges and universities, 85% coming from the small Christian college. A study of the catalogues of our Theological Seminaries shows that of the men who are now students in these institutions, more than 92% are graduates of the Christian college and university, almost 81% coming from the small Christian college.

The Presbyterian Church has its lesson to learn, and can learn it from such statistics. It cannot do its work for Christ in the world without giving high Christian education. It is not called upon to own colleges necessarily, nor to dictate in the management of their internal affairs. It is called upon to support its colleges, to develop them, to give them means to real growth, to put before the students the highest educational opportunity. This is the vocation of the Presbyterian Church. It is not only to go out and save the world; its further vocation is to educate the world for Christian service. Without obedience to its Master's command to teach, it dare not sincerely pray for the coming of His kingdom. Let the Church of Jesus Christ, in the power of His Holy Spirit, save men's souls and educate their minds and point them into the ways of a developed Christian service, and the kingdom will come in its power and beauty and glory. The College Board believes that it has a great responsibility, and calls upon the Church for unlimited prayer and sympathy and help.

The terms of office of the following members expire with this meeting of the Assembly, and they are recommended to the Assembly for re-election:

Ministers.

Cleland B. McAfee, D.D.,

Laymen.

Gates D. Fahnestock,
William Harvey Anderson,
John H. Finley, Ph.D., LL.D.
Prof. Thomas E. Hodges.

Hon. Vance C. McCormick, whose term of service also expires at this time, declines re-election because of the press of other duties. The Board recommends the election of Mr. George A. Plimpton in his place.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

JAMES STUART DICKSON,
New York City, May 1, 1906. Secretary.

THE POLICY OF THE BOARD.

The Policy of the Board, in accordance with the Constitution framed for it by the Church through the General Assembly of 1904, is summed up in one word—Co-operation. The Board will co-operate (1) with givers, (2) with Presbyterian Colleges, and (3) with both givers and colleges to secure co-operation between them.

1. Co-operation with Givers.

The Board will endeavor to awaken, inform and stimulate the Church in behalf of Presbyterian Colleges. (Constitution, 5 (a).)

It will offer the fullest and most reliable information, both about the college cause and the individual college, and regarding the relation of the Church to education and its colleges. (Constitution, 5 (a), (b).)

It will in no way try to dominate givers and their gifts, but will seek only to ascertain and carry out the desires of givers.

It will seek to safeguard funds committed to it or secured with its co-operation, as givers may desire, or, when no desire is expressed, as the interests of the colleges and the Church require. (Constitution, 8 (a), (b).)

It will, when desired to do so, act as Trustee of funds committed to it, investing them with paramount consideration of safety; holding them permanently if the giver so directs, or, if the giver prefer, temporarily, until conditions prescribed by the giver are fully met (Constitution, 8 (c)), disbursing the income derived from them in accordance with the wish of the giver.

It will "endeavor to have all gifts for Christian Education within our Church either passed through its Treasury or reported to it, that its reports may show from year to year what sums and from what sources are given to this cause." (Constitution, 8 (d).)

2. Co-operation with Colleges. (Constitution, 5 (b), (c), (d), and 6.)

A Presbyterian College is one which either (1) Is organically connected with the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, owned or controlled by an ecclesiastical corporation of the Church ; or (2) By perpetual charter provision has two-thirds of its Board of Control members of this Church ; or (3) Is affiliated with this Church by the predominance of adherents of this Church in its foundations, Board of Control, Faculty and student body. The term "College" is commonly used herein as including universities.

The Board will seek neither to dominate colleges nor to carry them. It will co-operate with them.

Colleges or academies not yet recognized in the Board's report, desiring approval and co-operation, are requested to send to the Board's office for blanks on which report of their ecclesiastical, educational and financial status may be submitted to the Board.

The Annual College Conference (Constitution, 6) will be asked to act in an advisory capacity toward the Board in all matters in which an ecclesiastical corporation, administering trust funds, may properly accept information, opinions and advice from a body of experts in educational matters and college detail. The Board will endeavor to be, so far as possible, the voice of the colleges to the Church and the hand of the Church to colleges.

The Board will seek primarily to stimulate colleges to self-help, and their home fields to the utmost limit of support and endowment ; since a college, to have a hopeful future, must ordinarily be strongly based in the affection, prayer and giving of its vicinage. This is true in spirit, though not necessarily in the proportion of gifts from the home field, of colleges distinctively missionary in character and work.

To co-operate in securing endowment for the colleges is the chief function of the Board (Minutes of General Assembly, 1904, page 108, 2. and 6.) and to that it will give chief attention. Co-operation with colleges which have little or no endowment, in securing support until their endowments are reasonably adequate, is a necessary but subordinate function.

The Board will consider applications for annual aid toward current expenses of colleges.

Application is to be made by the Trustees, in formal meeting, filling out a blank which the Secretary will furnish on request and will send to aided institutions May 1. Applications made for the first time should be accompanied by the fullest information regarding the history and prospects of the institution.

The Annual Board Meeting for voting on applications is held on the first Tuesday in June. Applications must be in the Secretary's hands by June 1. If the Trustees cannot meet in time for this, the Executive Committee should send an application as nearly as possible like that which the Trustees will probably adopt; and the formal application, adopted by the Trustees, should reach the Secretary as soon as possible. Institutions withholding applications beyond the date of the meeting, and giving no satisfactory explanation of the delay, will be regarded as expecting no aid from the Board for the ensuing year.

Applications of colleges must have the formal approval of their synods endorsed upon the applications; applications of academies, the approval of their presbyteries. Yet as there is often no meeting of the ecclesiastical body held between the making of the application by the Trustees and the June Board meeting, unendorsed applications will be voted on at the June meeting; exact duplicate applications, approved and endorsed, to be sent to the Board before any payment of aid will be made.

With the advice of the Annual College Conference it will adopt a schedule of amounts which the colleges should receive for this purpose; and it will make payments of these amounts, or of such pro rata parts of them as it shall be enabled to make by offerings from churches and church organizations and by funds otherwise secured by the Board for the purpose: always on condition that, before payment is made, a college shall satisfy the Board

(1) That it requires regular students to take systematic Bible study as a part of the curriculum required for graduation ;

(2) That its financial administration is conservative and safe;

(3) That it has used every reasonable effort to secure funds from its vicinage, within agreed presbyterial or synodical lines ;

(4) That it carries adequate insurance on its buildings and their valuable contents ; and

(5) That no mortgage is placed upon the property without previous consent in writing by the Board.

The Board will co-operate most heartily with Colleges

1. That are evidently needed, conditions of population and location of other educational institutions being considered ; (Constitution, 9.)

2. That have local interest, opportunity for growth and promise of permanence ;

3. That do educational work of high grade ;

4. That seek to form Christian character, influencing students toward Bible study, saving faith, right living and consecration to service ; and

5. That are prudently and conservatively financed, in estimating probable income, in preparing budgets of expenses, and in the investment of permanent funds. Colleges may never properly, under any conditions, use endowment or special funds, even temporarily, for current expenses or deficit. Such a course is regarded as a misuse of trust funds. The Board will not recommend to givers any college thus misappropriating trust funds. Colleges will be expected to carry adequate insurance on their buildings and other destructible property.

3. Co-operation with Colleges and Givers to Secure Co-operation Between Them.

The Board will endeavor, in co-operation with colleges, to make known to givers the nature and needs of Presbyterian educational institutions.

It will endeavor, in co-operation with colleges, to secure gifts:

(1) The Board will expect every church to make an offering for the cause. (Constitution, 5 (e) and 7 (b).)

Colleges approved by the Annual College Conference and the Board, and recommended for aid on current expenses, may solicit and receive the College Board offerings of their home regions as these may be agreed upon.

As the Board must depend mainly on church offerings for funds to pay appropriations voted for unendowed colleges and academies, it is expected that stronger colleges—while seeking individual gifts and, on occasion, additional special offerings from the churches—will not attempt to secure the regular College Board offerings for themselves.

(2) The Board will expect much from individual givers.

Colleges will be asked to restrict their solicitation of funds in outside fields only as the Annual College Conference may advise and the Board approve.

The Board requests that colleges, planning to solicit funds outside of their home fields, will first consult with the Board, that the interests of all co-operating parties may be conserved; otherwise it will be understood that such colleges will not ask or expect any special co-operation from the Board.

(3) The Board will seek for its own Treasury:

(a) Very large gifts and legacies for use in accordance with the expressed wishes of donors, or, if such wishes are not expressed, for use in the discretion of the Board.

(b) Smaller gifts and legacies for emergency aid to colleges.

(4) The Board will seek for colleges approved by the Annual College Conference and the Board:

(a) Large gifts and legacies for permanent endowment.

(b) Smaller gifts and legacies for colleges recommended for aid on current expenses. These should ordinarily take the form of Scholarships, paying the tuition of a student, from $50 to $100 a year; Professor's Chairs, from $200, when home and its necessities are provided by the college, to $2,000 a year; and Sustentation, carrying the actual annual deficit of a college, from $2,500 a year upwards. Any of these may be given for a single year; but it is in every way better that they should be pledged, by an individual, by a church, by the churches of a city, by a presbytery or by a synod, for from two to five or ten years while the college is securing endowment. Thus the interest of the giver may be localized in an individual college or several colleges and, if the college continue to commend itself to him, lead to increasing and permanent co-operation between them.

The Board will always seek first, in co-operation with a college, to develop the interest and gifts of its home field, both for endowment, for temporary aid in Scholarship, Chairs and Sustentation, and in emergencies, and afterward in other fields, as may seem wise and practicable.

The Board will report, in the Annual Report, all gifts passing through its Treasury, in a list of contributing churches and an alphabetical list of givers, indicating the destination of any gift designated by the giver for an individual institution. Such designated gifts will all be reported, in classified totals, in an alphabetical list of colleges, with a statement that they are itemized elsewhere in the Annual Report.

The Treasurer of the Board will send, on the first of March of each year, to all Presbyterian universities, colleges, academies and schools of which the Board may have knowledge, blanks for reports of gifts received by the institution during the year ending April first; and all gifts reported by such institutions to the Board will be reported by the Board.

(a) Gifts reported by approved colleges and academies, on the special blanks prepared for their use by the Board, will be treated as receipts of the Board. Treasurers of such institutions are Deputy Treasurers of the Board, authorized to handle and account for College Board gifts secured in co-operation with the Board and sent by the giver directly to the college. Church offerings so reported will appear on the books of the Board, and in its Annual Report, in the list of contributing churches, in the alphabetical list of individual givers, and in the alphabetical list of colleges, in the latter in classified totals, with a statement that they are itemized elsewhere in the Annual Report.

(b) Gifts, other than those specified in (a) reported by institutions, will be reported in the Annual Report, in the alphabetical list of institutions, in classified totals; except that an individual gift of $1,000, or upward, will be itemized with the name of the donor, if it is so desired.

Academies.

1. The Board does not see its way clear to approve the establishing of any new academy in the northern section of the country, where the High School development is already marked.

2. The Board will consider applications regarding academies in the southern section as on a different basis, emphasizing, however, its feeling that such institutions will in most cases be temporary in their character.

3. The Board does not see its way clear to encourage a general appeal for endowment for academies, but will cooperate in any local movement so far as may be in its power.

4. Regarding existing academies, the Board will enter into each case separately to determine which of the three following courses may be wise :

(a) To proceed in a movement for permanence in view of the peculiar need of the locality and the history of the institution, with reference to the previous understanding of the community.

(b) To co-operate in securing funds for current expenses for a fixed term of years, until local plans can be made for endowment or other methods of permanence.

5. This statement has reference solely to academies independent of colleges, the Board continuing its hearty approval and its offers of assistance for academic departments of colleges.

Presbyterian Students in State Institutions.

The Board is earnestly and sympathetically studying the matter of the religious culture of Presbyterian students in State universities, committed to the Board by the General Assembly. Correspondence is invited from those informed on the conditions and interested in their improvement.

THE COLLEGE CONFERENCE

The Second Annual Meeting of The College Conference was held in connection with the meeting of the General Assembly at Des Moines, on May 16, 1906. That Conference brings together representatives of The College Board and accredited representatives, Presidents and Trustees, of the Presbyterian Colleges. These representatives, meeting in this capacity, are recognized by The College Board as a source of authority upon educational matters, and action taken at this Conference is received by the Board as the basis for any decision along educational lines that may be required. The following actions taken at the Conference are of special interest to the Church:

(1) As to Required Bible Study.

A Committee appointed for the purpose reported that for a College course of four years one period a week should be given to required Bible study. It was unanimously voted, with this understanding, that 144 hours be the minimum for required Bible study in the College course. It was further understood that College Faculties should be at liberty to arrange the thirty-six hours of a given year according to their judgment.

(2) As to Synodical Agents.

"Your Special Committee to which was referred the consideration of the subject matter of Item 4 of the program respectfully reports, recommending the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, That The College Board be requested to appoint each year, in each Synod, a College President to serve during that year as a 'Synodical Agent,' to cooperate with the Board and with the Synodical and Presbyterian Chairmen of the Permanent Committees on The College Board in bringing the work of the Colleges and of the Board prominently before the Synod and its churches.

Resolved, That where there are more than one College in a Synod, the Presidents of the Colleges be appointed in succession to serve as such 'Synodical Agents,' the Presidents of the other Colleges serving in such a case as members of a Committee of which the 'Synodical Agent' shall be Chairman."

(3) As to College Status.

Resolved, That this Conference recommend The College Board to adopt the following description of a College, to be used as a test for determining what institutions are entitled to be classed with the Colleges for the benefit of which the Board exists and labors:

"(1) A College is an institution for the education of persons who have completed the studies required for graduation from the high schools of the State in which it is located, which require four years of study after the eighth or grammar grade, or a fair equivalent therefor;

"(2) And that provide courses of advanced study which ordinarily require four years for their completion;

"(3) And that include Latin, Greek, Philosophy, English and Rhetoric and a minimum requirement of Bible study of 144 hours within the four years;

"(4) And that sustain a Faculty of at least six Professors."

(4) As to the Mission of the Christian College.

"We would affirm our belief that the Christian College has a distinct and peculiar mission. Its grade of scholarship should be the highest and its advantages the best possible. It should be second to no other institutions of learning in intellectual development and general culture, but more important than this should be its effort to foster the moral and religious life of the students. Its work is Christian education. Every member of the Faculty should be a believer with a decided faith, and all subjects taught from the Christian point of view, and the Christian spirit so fostered that every unconverted student may be won to Christ, and the spiritual life so developed that all students may be led to a deeper consecration to His cause; their vision so enlarged that the work of Christ and the world's needs may inspire them to higher character and greater efficiency in Christian service."

REPORT OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY'S STANDING COMMITTEE

AT DES MOINES, IOWA, MAY, 1906.

The following Report by the Rev. Cornelius M. Steffens, of Dubuque, Iowa, Chairman of the Assembly's Standing Committee on this Board, was unanimously adopted:

The Standing Committee on College Board respectfully submits the following report:

Your Committee have carefully studied the Twenty-third Annual Report of The College Board and also the written minutes for the year, and find that the principles of coöperation and progress are its two most prominent characteristics. The prophecy of the "new policy" for the reorganized Board has become a reality. To Dr. Robert Mackenzie, an ideal President; Dr. James Stuart Dickson, the genial and able Secretary, and Dr. Edward C. Ray, the ever-faithful servant of Christian education, the college interests are deservedly committed. The wisdom of reorganization has been firmly established. The present Board has a strong and representative membership, men of unquestioned ability and consecration. The confidence of the Presbyterian Church in the small college should enable this Board to evolve the "begging college" into a self-respecting, thoroughly furnished and aggressive agency in training young manhood and womanhood for the highest vocations in life.

We mention a number of changes in the executive management of the Colleges. Mr. J. Willis Baer, of the Home Board, has been elected President of Occidental College and will take up his new duties during the coming summer. Dr. Guy W. Wadsworth, the former President of Occidental, has taken the Presidency of Bellevue and has finished his first year's work at that institution. President Dr. David R. Kerr, formerly of Bellevue, Nebraska, has taken up the work in Westminster, Missouri, having gone to that institution at the beginning of the college year. In October, Mr. Harry R. Crooks became the President of Albany College, in Oregon. Rev. B. H. Kroese, D.D., who had been Vice-President of Lenox, Iowa, became the President of Whitworth, at Tacoma, Washington. Dr. Henry D. Lindsay, of Allegheny, has just become the President for the Pennsylvania College for Women, at Pittsburg; and Dr. E. Van Dyke Wight, who has been for ten years pastor of our church in Hastings, Nebraska, and for four years President of the College, has resigned from the Church in order to give his whole time to that institution.

A further examination of the report reveals a most encouraging situation. Many churches and individuals have contributed for the first time to the cause of Christian education through the Board, so that a large increase in the gifts appear to the credit of the cause. Some of these gifts have been munificent and were given directly to the work of which the Board has charge, and so made possible a substantial enlargement of its sphere of activity.

Then there has been a marked advance in the ordinary offerings of the churches, enabling the Board to respond to many more appeals and to supplement the amounts appropriated early in the year. The increase of 271 in the contributing churches and 2,294 in the number of individual contributors, advancing the sum total of receipts $1,188,500.32 beyond last year—a record unparalleled in the annals of the Board—calls forth our profound gratitude to the Head of the Church, who has thus moved upon the heart and purse of the members of His Body.

We would call especial attention of the Assembly to the generous increase in large gifts that have been credited to a number of our institutions—making special mention of the $200,000 added to the endowment of Occidental College, at Los Angeles, California, and an equal amount placed to the credit of the Pennsylvania College for Women, at Pittsburg. We ask the Assembly to take note of the fact that generous gifts have been offered by Andrew Carnegie to a number of our institutions, on condition that like amounts be secured from other sources.

We would further call the attention of the General Assembly to the vast importance of the work among the non-English-speaking peoples that year by year crowd our shores. Probably one million immigrants, most of them speaking languages different from ours, will flow in upon us this present year. The supreme agency in transforming them from aliens into intelligent and vigorous American citizens and Christians is the simple Gospel of our Lord and Master, Jesus Christ. The Gospel must needs be first of all presented in their own language. Young men from foreign-speaking nationalities must be educated in college and seminary. To accomplish this tremendous task effectually a million of dollars would not be too much to put into such special educational institutions as are approved by The College Board.

We would call the special attention of the Assembly to the increase of candidates for the Gospel ministry in our small colleges, eighty being referred to in four institutions, one of which had no candidate a year ago. This increase may be largely attributed to the spiritual efforts, notable in the work of Maryville College, where eighty-seven young people gave themselves to Christ; also at Poynette Academy, where forty were converted. These facts approve the aim of the Board in ever keeping her institutions definitely Christian, also its insistence upon the highest forms of Christian development through special effort in reaching the unconverted.

We offer the following recommendations:

1st. That we most heartily commend The College Board for the part it has taken in stimulating and developing interest in Christian education during the past year, and for its continuous correspondence in calling forth the unprecedented enlargement of gifts to the cause of Christian education.

2d. That we urge the continuation of the plan of coöperation in the methods of securing gifts for the work.

3rd. That $200,000 be the sum which the churches are asked to give to The College Board for appropriation to current expenses of colleges this year. This in addition to all such individual offerings as the influence and appeal of the colleges may call forth.

4th. That we heartily endorse the plan, so successful last year, by which large endowments have been secured, and that we commend to all the still wider use of the plan in securing increased gifts through such conditional gifts or pledges.

5th. That the Assembly again expresses its hearty approval of the policy of the Board in requiring Bible study as a basis of coöperation, and would suggest in addition a curriculum designed to develop Christian belief and character.

6th. That it commends the diligence of the Board in securing information from the colleges as to their needs and opportunities, and calls the attention of Presbyterian givers to the reliable information thus made accessible, enabling them to give intelligently to the cause of worthy institutions.

The General Assembly's Special Committee on Systematic Beneficence respectfully presents herewith its 26th Annual Report. Your committee would call the attention of the General Assembly to the actual condition of our Missionary and Benevolent work as indicated by the gifts of our various boards during the past ten years. This can best be done by a series of tables of statistics such as here follows :

Growth in Church Membership.

According to table 1, the Presbyterian Church during the past fifteen years has made slow but steady gains. The membership of the church was 775,903 in 1890 and in 1905 was 1,115,662, making a gain during the fifteen years of 339,759 or a yearly average of 22,651. But the religious work which during the past 15 years has been done in the various Synods of our church cannot be altogether judged by the increase indicated by this table. Under adverse conditions, some of the Synods have done heroic work in holding their own. In some Synods the character of the population has greatly changed during this brief time. There have been numerous removals of American families and their places have been taken by a foreign population, but the church as a whole is marching steadily forward, its membership steadily increasing.

Income of the Boards of the Church.

The year 1905 marks an era in the beneficences of our church, when the aggregate income of the Boards of our Church passed the 3,000,000 mark.

The table No. 2 indicates the steadiness of the income of our Boards from year to year. When we consider that the income of Boards comes from so many churches and individuals and from legacies, we are sometimes surprised at the fact that there is so little fluctuation of income, hardly ever amounting in aggregate to 10 per cent. of the income.

$3,388,308 seems like a large sum of money to be given to the Missionary and benevolent causes represented by our church, but we have a large constituency back of this giving and we all recognize the fact that the 1,100,000 communicants might have done better.

The membership of the church that have recently died gave about one-sixth of the whole income last year.

Income of the Boards from Legacies.

One of the important sources of income of our Boards is that derived from legacies. It is a fluctuating source of income, yet a very important one.

A person who is a liberal giver during life to any one of our Boards, out of love and devotion to the cause represented by the Board, is most apt to consider that Board almost as a member of the family to be remembered in the will.

The Boards of the church have been greatly blessed during the year in review, by being remembered to the extent of $538,112.

In table III will be found the income of our 8 Boards from legacies during the past fifteen years. During these years this source of income has varied from $224,000 in 1900 to $538,000 in the year 1905.

The average from legacies for all the Boards of the church for the past fifteen years is not far from $350,000 annually. The legacy gifts to our Boards is a tribute of love created by systematic and loving giving during life.

Income of the Board for Church Offerings.

In table 4 we have brought together the income of each of the Boards from the Sabbath offerings of the churches. For each Board there is little variation in the amount received from this source of income.

When it is considered that this income comes from about 32,000 offerings taken in the churches throughout the United States, at all seasons of the year and with all conditions of weather, it is rather remarkable that the fluctuations from year to year rarely vary more than $1.50 per offering, the greatest fluctuation being less than five dollars. So steady is this source of income of the Boards of the Church that you can almost tell in advance within a few thousand dollars what the Boards may reasonably expect to receive during the year.

CHURCH OFFERINGS.

The ordinary Sabbath plate collection for any one of our Missionary or Benevolent causes is very disappointing. It indicates that only a very small portion of our membership are interested in the Missionary and Benevolent work of the church. The contribution of most all is placed on the plate as a matter of form or habit. Aside from a few gifts that are made conscientiously and intelligently, the offerings of the people are about the same from Sabbath to Sabbath without regard to the cause announced. The five-cent people usually give their five cents; the ten-cent people their ten-cents; the twenty-five cent people their twenty-five cent pieces and so on to the end of the chapter. Not very long since one of our strong churches took its annual offering for Home Missions. When it was announced that the offering aggregated $1,800, the people probably congratulated themselves on the liberality of their church. Those who gave least or nothing at all, possibly referred most frequently to this large offering during the week following, but the analysis of the $1,800 offering is not very creditable to the interest or the liberality of the great majority of the congregation to the cause of Home Missions. When the collection was taken 683 persons were present. 156 gave under ten cents; 119 gave from 10 to twenty-five cents; 196 gave nothing at all; 471 of the 683 persons present gave the munificent sum of $39.52 toward the $1,800 annual offering of Home Missions; but these 471 congratulated themselves on their liberality by getting under the umbrellas of ten of the congregation, one of whom gave $200, two gave $150, two $125, and five gave $100 each, ten members of the congregation giving $1250.

An analysis of most of the offerings of our churches will indicate a similar condition of things. In most cases where the offering is at all respectable to the size of the congregation, it will be found that three-fourths of the offering will have been given by ten persons of the congregation.

A revival in conscientious giving is the need of the hour.

There are comparatively few of our churches that give an opportunity to the people to make an annual offering to each of the boards. The general custom among the churches that gave an offering to each of the boards of the church is the custom of frequent offerings for all the Boards of the Church and a division of the money collected by these offerings by the Session of the Church. In the year 1905 about twenty-five per cent. of the churches sent an offering to each of the Boards of the Church.

THE ENVELOPE SYSTEM.

There are comparatively few of our churches that depend entirely upon the renting of their pews to meet all expenses connected with church support. These few churches make use of the plate collections on the Sabbath for their Missionary and Benevolent offerings, some of them having a weekly schedule for the entire year of how the Sabbath offerings shall be used.

(2) There are a few of the churches that depend upon pew rents and the plate collections of the Sabbath for church support. In such churches some of the Trustees are apt to object to too many collections being taken on the Sabbath for Missionary and Benevolent purposes, judging that such collections interfere with and lessen the ordinary collections of the church for its support.

(3) In some churches the congregation is canvassed annually for subscriptions for church support which are payable quarterly. Most of these churches also depend upon the plate offerings to supplement the amount received from subscriptions.

(4) There are churches that have a regular pew rental and yet this rental is not sufficient to meet the current expenses of the church. In addition to the income thus derived from pew rents, the trustees also depend upon a weekly envelope offering from members of the congregation. In these cases the weekly Sabbath offering in envelopes goes to the church support and on any particular Sabbath, any money that is placed upon the plate loose goes for any Missionary or benevolent cause which the Pastor may mention before the collection is taken.

(5) Many of our churches have no pew rents but depend entirely upon the weekly envelope offerings for the support of their church.

(6) There are some of our churches that combine their regular church expenses with their Missionary and Benevolent offerings. A regular canvass is undertaken through the entire congregation and the effort is made to obtain a definite subscription from every family and from every member of every family that is at all regular in attendance upon the services of the church. It being understood that this subscription made to be paid weekly through the year, is the only appeal which will be made by the church for any purposes whatever, the people make their subscription correspondingly large with this understanding. Packages of envelopes are distributed to all subscribers. Quarterly statements are sent to all the subscribers, of the amount contributed by them during the quarter. The first charge upon the income thus derived is used to meet the current expenses of the church. The balance of the income is appropriated to the various Missionary and Benevolent objects to which the church is expected to contribute. Under this plan the subscribers have the privilege of designating the way in which they desire their subscriptions to be used.

(7) Seven is but a modification of six. A small number of churches follow the plan that is outlined in six, but differ in the manner of the division of the amount received through this system, determining that a certain per cent. for the missionary and benevolent objects of the church. In case there is any shortage in meeting the current expenses of the church, an extra subscription is made to meet the deficit or if the percentage for missionary and benevolent objects does not amount to quite as much as the officers consider that the church should contribute to these causes, an extra subscription is taken for this purpose.

(8) Most of our churches, however, keep the income for the support and work of the church entirely separate from the missionary and benevolent offerings of the church. Whatever scheme is adopted by the trustees for the raising the funds necessary to meet the current expenses of the church there are various methods in practice in the church for taking the offerings for missionary and benevolent purposes. We can only mention a few of these methods.

(a) In some churches all offerings for Missionary and benevolent purposes are extra offerings, taken up at the same time as the church offering is taken up for the support of the church. From month to month the envelopes for the various Boards of the church are placed in the racks. The pastor calls attention to these envelopes requesting the people in connection with their Sabbath morning offerings to use these envelopes which designate the cause for which the offering is made, several Sabbaths being given in this manner to each of the Boards. By this means every attendant upon the services of the church has the opportunity to contribute to each of the Boards.

(b) Some churches, for particular Boards of the church, make use of a regular pledge card with a regular canvas of the congregation.

(c) Some churches furnish the members of their congregation with two separate sets of envelopes of different color, one for the support of the church, and the other for missionary and benevolent purposes.

(d) Some churches follow the instructions as laid down in chapter VI of the Directory of Worship, and a weekly offering is taken for missionary and benevolent purposes by the regular use of envelopes. The amounts received through these envelopes, unless the object is specially designated by the givers is divided by the Session of the church according to some definite scheme of apportionment among the various missionary and benevolent objects. A portion that is assigned to the Boards of the church is frequently divided on the basis recommended by the General Assembly: 31 per cent. for Home Missions, 33 per cent. for Foreign Missions and six per cent. each to the other six Boards of the church.

SUBSCRIPTION BLANK No. 1.

For churches that decide to make a separate annual offering to each of the Boards of the church and which decide to obtain advanced subscriptions from the members of their congregations for each of the Boards of the church, the subscription blank below will be furnished free by our Committee in such quantities as may be desired.

SUBSCRIPTION BLANK.

Sometime before next April, I am willing to give the various amounts set opposite the names of the Boards of the Church as my church offerings for the causes represented.

"CHAPTER VI. OF THE WORSHIP OF GOD BY OFFERINGS."

I. "In order that every member of the congregation may be trained to give of his substance systematically, and as the Lord hath prospered him, to promote the preaching of the Gospel in all the world and to every creature, according to the command of the Lord Jesus Christ, it is proper and very desirable that an opportunity may be given for offerings by the congregation in this behalf every Lord's day, and that, in accordance with the Scriptures, the bringing of such offerings be performed as a solemn act of worship to Almighty God."

II. "The proper order, both as to the particular service of the day and the place in such service for receiving the offerings, may be left to the discretion of the minister and session of the church; but that it may be a separate and specific act of worship, the minister should either precede or immediately follow the same with a brief prayer, invoking the blessing of God upon it, and devoting the offerings to His service."

III. "The offerings received may be apportioned among the Boards of the church and among other benevolent and Christian objects, under the supervision of the Church session, in such proportion and upon such general plan as may from time to time be determined; but specific designation by the giver of an offering to any given cause or causes, shall always be respected, and the will of the donor carefully carried out."

IV. "It is the duty of every minister to cultivate the grace of liberal giving in his congregation, that every member thereof may offer according to his ability, whether it be much or little." (over)

For those churches that desire to follow closely the instructions as contained in the Directory of Worship, chapter 6, and where there is an indication that the people do not care to pledge in advance a definite amount to be paid during the year, subscription blank No. 2 can be used to advantage in obtaining a definite pledge of an offering of some kind from each member of the congregation. This subscription blank will be furnished free to Churches desiring to use them.

On the opposite side of this blank is also printed chapter 6 of the Directory of Worship.

WORSHIP OF GOD BY OFFERINGS.

I desire to conform to the advice contained in the Directory of Worship of the Presbyterian Church, chapter VI and bring an offering as the Lord has prospered me every Lord's day as a solemn act of worship to Almighty God.

ENVELOPES FURNISHED.

The Committee furnish Envelopes free for use by all members of congregations desiring to have their method of giving conform to the advice given in the directory of worship by offerings. One side of the envelope has on it the following printed matter.

Give unto the LORD the Glory due unto his name; bring an offering, and come before him: worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness.

An Offering as an Act of Worship.

If this offering is for a particular Board please check the one intended, otherwise it will be considered as for the entire missionary and benevolent work of the Church and will be accordingly distributed among all the Boards by the Session.

The spirit and enthusiasm with which any plan is used determines the success of the plan more than the plan itself. A careful examination of the offerings of the church during the past year, as indicated by the tables printed in this report will show that there are a very large number of our churches that have neither definite plans, or enthusiasm in taking offerings for our missionary and benevolent boards.

Whatever system is adopted, it will remain true that the largest offering for any Board of the Church is largely determined by the emphasis placed upon the object by the Pastor. Every member of the church should recognize his loyalty to the church by giving regularly through church offerings to the various missionary and benevolent causes and this giving should not be effected in any way whatever by the contributions which the church member may make through the various organizations of the church. No one should feel satisfied to substitute an offering through some one of the organizations of the church and neglect their giving through the church of which one is a member.

In addition to the envelope and subscription blanks which are furnished free by our committee, the committee have issued several leaflets on Systematic Giving which can be obtained free for general distribution among the membership of the church.

The list is as follows:

Rev. George P. Williams, a member of our committee, by request, has furnished us the following admirable statement of the responsibility of the Elder, in reference to Systematic Beneficence.

RESPONSIBILITY OF THE ELDER IN REFERENCE TO SYSTEMATIC BENEFICENCE.

The General Assembly in 1839 declared, "the eldership as essential to the successful operation of our system," and the Church has always recognized the eldership as one of its chief points of strength. Too much emphasis cannot be laid upon the Church's dependence on its lay leadership. The elder, from the very nature of the office to which he is called, has excellent and exceptional opportunity to do work which will enlarge the influence and increase the power of the Church.

Nor is the sphere of his influence limited by the boundaries of the parish that calls him to this high place of responsibility. His field is co-extensive with that into which the whole church seeks to go with her organized agencies for doing the Master's work. The office being that of leadership and administration, the responsibility which attaches is in its way as weighty as that which lies upon the teaching elder—the minister.

The Assembly's Committee on Systematic Beneficence believes that if the splendid resources of the Church are to be made available for the aggressive work of the Church as represented by its various Boards, the hearty and active co-operation of the eldership is indispensable. Very much depends upon the regularity of opportunity afforded the congregations to give as an act of worship. By our constitution the whole arrangement of a Church as to worship and order is committed to the minister and to the session and not to the minister alone. [Minutes of General Assembly 1845.]

In the mind of the Church as expressed in its directory of worship (Chapter 6) "In order—to promote the preaching of the gospel in all the world, and to every creature, according to the command of our Lord Jesus Christ, it is proper and very desirable that an opportunity be given for offerings by the congregation in this behalf on every Lord's Day, and that in accordance with the scriptures the bringing of such offerings be performed as a solemn act of worship to Almighty God. In harmony with this avowed conception of duty and privilege of the congregation, the elder in seeking to make place for such offering only embraces an opportunity of serving and discharges a weighty responsibility in the office to which he is called. The Committee has no disposition to indicate how or when the benevolent offering in the particular church shall be taken. It recognizes that the plan that would work admirably in one church might be altogether out of place in another. It only desires to see the elder recognize his personal responsibility as an integral part of the session to which is committed as a sacred trust this whole matter of church benevolence. The adoption of methodical systematic giving as an act of worship is the great need of the hour. Without it our agencies representing us in the various forms of christian enterprise must continue to be hampered. With it, we shall be able to speedily extend our influence and answer the cry now coming from the multitudes who need the gospel's help.

The purpose of this statement is simply to call the attention of the ruling elder to the personal responsibility and high privilege of his office. This having been done, we feel assured that this opportunity for service will not pass unheeded and that in the language of the General Assembly's call the "Elders will testify out of their own knowledge and experience to the benefits and blessings of systematic principled giving to the Lord," and that they will encourage the people to put themselves in line to receive a blessing on the same account (Minutes General Assembly, 1887, p. 121).

EXTRACTS FROM LETTERS.

"Will you kindly send me envelopes for offerings to Systematic Beneficence? I am glad to report that since receiving from you the subscription blanks we have thoroughly canvassed our Church in the interest of Systematic Beneficence with the happy result that we have largely increased our benevolences through this channel to the Boards. I think I may say we have doubled our contribution by pledge."

"We inaugurated the good method of Systematic Giving to our Boards last Sunday, and as a result we expect to receive close to $1,000 this year instead of $324 last, as a total of our Church's Sunday offerings to the Boards. We would like 1,000 of the envelopes such as you sent me samples of, with the names of the Boards printed on.

The literature you sent did fine work. I am sure the larger gifts were due to its influence, leading to a larger proportionate giving than ever before."

"Please send me for use in my Church envelopes with all of the names of the Boards on the one envelope, so that people have a chance to designate by pencil mark to which Board they desire to send their contributions."

"Will you please send me cards for Systematic Benevolence pledges for the year.

I desire to circulate them so that we may get the money just the same if the day appointed for the offering should be a day when but few were out. Please send also any literature on the line of giving."

"I have one of the hardest problems to deal with. I am pastor of two country churches that have never been brought to know the Gospel of service. I wish to make a campaign for a forward movement and want the Boards to help me with literature.

I wish you would send something that would make a good starter on Systematic Beneficence."

"Our Church is about to systematize its giving to the various Boards, and finding a good deal of difficulty in inducing people to give, I wish to ascertain if your committee can give me any assistance.

We wish to get the people to give with more system, and, too, that they may give their rightful proportion. As it is, the Boards receive contributions from not over one-fourth of the Church members. I do not personally believe in preaching periodic sermons and taking collections for the various causes, because but few of the members get a chance to give. Rather do I wish to get pledges for a definite sum from each to cover our budget."

"I am ashamed of the record of my Church in the matter of "Giving," and am anxious to raise the standard. Will you kindly send me leaflets that will be helpful in an educational way, one of each kind for each family? Then I should like to have blanks upon which subscriptions can be taken, and envelopes for all the Boards and blanks after each for the amount within to be written."

"Having had such good results in my former Church in the matter of Board offerings through the use of envelopes sent out by your committee, I am now writing for these envelopes that I may start the same plan here."

"Desiring to reorganize or rather organize a system of beneficence in my Church, I would be grateful for any aid the Systematic Beneficence Committee can render in the way of literature on the subject with blanks and envelopes."

"Is there some card known to your committee on which individual pledges for all the Boards can be taken at our canvass? We want our people to subscribe a definite amount to each of the Boards."

"Will you kindly send me some of your committee's publications on systematic and proportionate giving? I desire this aid for my own information and for the sake of this church, whose giving, alike to its support and to beneficences, has been irregular and hap-hazard,"

"We are making an effort to secure something from every member of our Presbytery, and to this end we want some of your literature placed in the hands of every member."

In closing this report the standing committee desires to express their appreciation of the faithful work being done in the interests of Systematic Beneficence by the various Synodical and Presbyterian committees.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

WM. H. HUBBARD,
Sec. of Committee.

BE STRONG.

Be Strong!

We are not here to play, to dream, to drift.
We have hard work to do, and loads to lift.
Shun not the struggle; face it. 'Tis God's gift.

Be Strong!

Say not the days are evil—Who's to blame?
And fold the hands and acquiesce—O shame!
Stand up, speak out, and bravely, in God's name.

Be Strong!

It matters not how deep entrenched the wrong,
How hard the battle goes, the day, how long.
Faint not, fight on! To-morrow comes the song.

Twenty-fifth Annual Report and
Year Book
1906

Presented to the General Assembly
at Des Moines, Iowa.

THE MARCH OF PROGRESS.

Twenty-five years is a short period in the life of a nation or in the history of a great moral reform, but it is sufficiently long, under proper conditions, to verify a theory, to establish a fact or to promulgate a truth which may change the customs of a country or liberate a race.

The last quarter of a century has witnessed marvelous inventions, valuable discoveries and amazing progress along all lines of thought and action. The Temperance Reform has participated in the general impulse. New organizations, new methods and new weapons have added powerfully to the effectiveness of former efforts to stay the tide of intemperance.

The Temperance advocate of today has many points of advantage over his brother of twenty-five years ago. Today science says that alcohol is a poison, and not a food; a narcotic irritant, and not a stimulant which gives strength; that it cannot sustain the body in weariness, and is injurious in the extremes of heat or cold, and that as a medicine there are better substitutes.

The United States Supreme Court has declared that no one has an inherent right to sell liquor, and that any State Legislature may restrict it to any degree or entirely prohibit its manufacture and sale within the borders of that State.

Life insurance companies discriminate in favor of total abstainers: business corporations, fraternal orders, health authorities, labor organizations, educators, practically all churches and a cloud of other witnesses testify against the use of and the traffic in strong drink.

HISTORY.

Twenty-five years ago when the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church established a Permanent Committee on Temperance, placing it on a parity with our Mission Boards, it was a new departure. No church, up to that time, had so magnified and dignified this cause as to make it a regular department of church work, to be supported as other enterprises of the church are supported, by an annual contribution.

Many doubted and some objected, but such men of God as John Hall, Theodore Cuyler, W. Y. Brown, Henry M. Booth, Francis Marling, Robert D. Harper, David M. Stiger, William E. Dodge and others of like character, zeal and wisdom saw its advantage and urged its importance and necessity.

Time has vindicated their judgment and history will record the establishment of this Committee as an epoch in the Temperance Reform.

But it is not the past, however instructive and inspiring, with which we are to deal in the enforced limits of this report. Suffice it to say that while always struggling with open enemy and secret foe, the greatest antagonist has been, not the strength of the opposition, but the indifference of friends.

DOES IT PAY?

Many letters come to us asking what has been accomplished. Most of these are frank, honest inquiries, and it is a pleasure to reply to them, for it affords an opportunity of bringing the inquirer into intelligent and sympathetic touch with the work. But, like the labor of many faithful pastors, the outline conveys a poor and imperfect idea of what has really been accomplished, for who can tabulate the prayer and the thought and the heart-throbs of a year's earnest labor? However, here is the outline:

The Chairman has given freely of his time, furnished his own office and stenographer, as he has done for years past, all without compensation. And yet he has his reward, for he has learned that it is more blessed to give than to receive, and in this sense he has been abundantly blessed.

From the office of the Corresponding Secretary, who receives no salary, but accepts $500.00 per year for clerical help, have gone many thousands of letters giving information to pastors, Clerks of Sessions, Sunday School Superintendents, officers of Endeavor and Missionary Societies, private individuals, general church officers, state and national officials and a memorial to the President of the United States.

Correspondence has been had with the Stated Clerk of every Synod and Presbytery and every Presbyterian Chairman of Temperance. The deliverances of the Assembly on Temperance have been supplied to hundreds of churches and many private individuals. From one to two pages have been supplied for each number of the Assembly Herald; one or more columns have been carried in some of our denominational papers; special articles have been prepared for magazines and journals and other periodicals. Several million pages of literature, in six languages, covering almost every phase of the temperance question, have gone to every state and territory in the Union, as well as to several foreign countries. The literature has gone to the great city church and to the mission station on the frontier. Other denominations have thought it sufficiently valuable to use it among their own people and to reprint it in their church publications.

Twelve new tracts have been issued aggregating several hundred thousand pages, and a number of tracts of standard issue have been revised and reprinted. A supplemental page has been provided for each quarterly temperance lesson in The Westminster Teacher and the Senior Quarterly, which have a combined circulation of more than 600,000. Facts and statistics have been compiled which many pastors have used in the preparation of sermons and addresses.

Owing to the fact that in several states local option contests are held at the time of the fall election, it has been the custom of many pastors to follow the suggestions of former Assemblies and observe the last Sunday in October as Temperance Day. With this in mind, correspondence was opened with the officials of leading temperance organizations, editors and other prominent individuals looking to the change of World's Temperance Sunday from the last Sunday in November to the last Sunday in October. Replies have been received from most of these communications, including those sent to some foreign countries, and without exception the change has been favored.

Our three Field Secretaries, the Chairman and one member of the Advisory Committee have labored in twenty states, addressing Synods, Presbyteries, Ministerial Associations, Sunday School Conventions, Temperance Institutes, Chautauquas, Y. M. C. A.'s, High Schools, Colleges and Theological Seminaries. They have preached in hundreds of our churches, including a number of the largest in the denomination. One of them has visited Washington City three times during the year in the interests of temperance legislation pending in Congress, particularly the Statehood Bill and Hepburn-Dolliver (now Littlefield) Bill. We have interviewed, petitioned and written Congressmen and Senators on every important measure which has been before our National Congress during the year.

We have assisted in scores of local option contests and in the discharge of their duties our Secretaries have traveled tens of thousands of miles, foregoing the comforts of home and of their families.

Besides Mr. Scanlon, who has been employed during the entire year, since January 1st we have had Rev. John Mayhew Fulton, D. D., until that time pastor of the Central Presbyterian Church of St. Paul, Minn.

As was expected, Dr. Fulton's experience as a pastor of important city churches, and his recognized ability as a gospel preacher, together with his zeal, wisdom and capacity for work, have made him a most valuable accession in this service. Most gratifying reports reach us from pastors as to the inspiration and helpfulness of his sermons and lectures.

Rev. R. W. Holman, the colored evangelist, a part of whose time we have had for some years, after long and faithful service with our Board of Freedmen, has severed that connection and now devotes himself exclusively to temperance work among his own race. Mr. Holman is an educated man whose earnestness and eloquence and character have earned for him the respect and confidence of both white and colored people, and we anticipate much good as the result of his labor.

No report of our Field work would be complete which did not include grateful acknowledgment of the valuable service of Hon. H. P. Faris, an elder in our church at Clinton, Mo., and one of our Advisory members.

Mr. Faris has not only given freely of his time and visited many of our churches and some of our Presbyteries and Synods, but in addition has paid his own traveling expenses. It is a pleasure to state that only the most cordial commendations have reached us concerning his work, and we regret that more of our elders are not so situated as to enable them to do as he has done.

OUR RESOURCES.

For all the purposes herein named, including office rent, large printing, postage and incidental expenses, we have had about $10,000.00 during the year.

The average cost, for home expenses, of maintaining the churches of our denomination last year was $1,728.85, while scores and perhaps hundreds of them spent more than the gross receipts of this Committee. If any of these larger churches have accomplished as much as we have, with an equal amount of money, is there a pastor or elder in the entire denomination who would question its usefulness or desire its discontinuance?

If our work is compared with that of other temperance organizations the showing is equally favorable to us. The Prohibition Party expended, for local, state and national work during the year, $150,000; the Anti-Saloon League about $500,000; the W. C. T. U. $60,000. The National Temperance Society, the Good Templars, the International Reform Bureau, the Catholic Total Abstinence Society, the Sons of Temperance and other organizations spent considerable sums. We cordially offer the hand of friendship to all these organizations, and at the same time are fully persuaded that there is not an agency in the whole field of this reform which can accomplish more, if as much, with the same amount of money, as this Committee can accomplish, because it requires no additional organization; we already have the excellent machinery of the church and simply need to keep it in operation.

QUESTIONS ANSWERED.

What has been the effect of this Committee upon our own and other denominations?

It has placed the Presbyterian Church in the forefront of all other denominations in temperance work. Ours was the first to have a Permanent Committee; the first ecclesiastical body to recommend a World's Temperance Sunday; the first to begin to organize temperance societies in the Churches, Sunday Schools, Young People's Societies and Missionary Societies, making such organizations an organic part of our regular work; the first and is now the only denomination having Field Secretaries of Temperance who are employed upon salary by the church at large, and who are under control of and responsible to the church.

Each of our Secretaries has himself been a pastor and is therefore familiar with and in sympathy with the work of the pastorate. It is a comforting assurance to feel that the man whom you invite into your pulpit will not say or do anything which will embarrass you at the time or annoy you when he is gone.

It is no accident that our church holds first place in this reform. It is plainly the result of faithful, diligent and long protracted labor. The constant pressure and discipline which have resulted from this agency have had a most wholesome, if unconscious, influence throughout the entire church. Like our other denominational agencies, it has furnished information, inspiration, directed our forces, guarded our interests in state and national legislation, spoken officially for us and brought pressure to bear at the right time and place.

A leading United States Senator said to one of our Secretaries who was interviewing him at the National Capital on the Statehood Bill that "if all the denominations would act in this orderly, official manner they could get anything in reason."

The influence has also been favorable upon other churches. Whereas none of them had such a Committee when ours was established, now the Methodist Episcopal, the Congregational, the United Brethren, the United Presbyterian, the Cumberland Presbyterian, the United Evangelical, the Universalists, one branch of Lutherans, the Friends and perhaps others have them. After working through other organizations and watching our progress, they have decided that the special advantages of this form of work amply justifies the necessary outlay.

What is the relation of this Committee to other organizations, such as the Prohibition Party, the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, the Anti-Saloon League, etc.?

There is no organic relation. It is simply that of friendly co-operation so far as the plan and purpose of our work and theirs permit.

Why not work through some of the more prominent of these agencies?

Because they are not under the control of or accountable to our Church. If they employ agents or pursue policies contrary to the wishes and principles of our denomination we have no redress or means of making official protest. It is an accepted principle in this country, both of Church and State, that with authority must go corresponding responsibility and accountability. We must have assurance that those who are permitted to speak and act for us shall not misrepresent us.

Is not the probability that we would be misrepresented by any such agency very remote?

It is not remote enough to make it either safe or satisfactory. Within the past few months two specific instances have occurred when a prominent agency sanctioned what our Assembly for years has opposed and consented to what we believe was a compromise of principle.

Are there not some kinds of work which require the united effort of all denominations?

Yes, and for this reason our Committee has been urging the importance of

A REAL CHURCH TEMPERANCE FEDERATION.

Is not the Anti-Saloon League such an organization?

It is not. It is a voluntary, non-ecclesiastical federation in which the churches are invited to become factors or units. It is not under the control of the churches and is not officially responsible to them.

Do the churches as such have a voice in deciding the basis or character of representation in the League?

They do not; the League decides this.

What organizations are given representation by the League?

All churches, with 10,000 or more members, provided they recognize the League; all Temperance Societies, with the consent of the trustees, and all "other organizations pledging co-operation."

Are secular organizations received on an equality with churches?

Yes, they are, and for this reason our General Assembly has refused to recognize the League and maintained that it was inexpedient if not unconstitutional to treat with a secular or non-ecclesiastical organization. This is consistent with the principles and traditions of the Presbyterian Church.

Does the Anti-Saloon League stand for total abstinence?

It does not, while our Church for many years has maintained that it was inconsistent to oppose the traffic in a commodity which it was not wrong to use, and that we could not logically defend total abstinence without favoring prohibition. For this reason our Assembly has stood firmly for both total abstinence and the principle of prohibition.

What is the plan of federation which our Church proposes?

That the proper officials of one denomination shall issue an invitation to all other denominations to appoint the delegates to a National Inter-Church Conference to consider the feasibility of a Church Temperance Federation. When these delegates have formulated and agreed upon a basis of federation and this basis shall have been ratified by the participating churches it shall then become operative. The churches, through their proper authorities, will appoint or elect the officers of the Federation, according to the terms of agreement. The Federation will be controlled and supported by the constituent churches and have such departments and pursue such lines of work as shall have been agreed upon in the Articles of Federation.

Any church may pursue other lines of work or adopt any policy which is not contrary to the spirit of the Federation.

What would be the advantages of such a federation?

It would be purely a federation of churches, therefore in sympathy with and under the control of the churches, supported by the churches and responsible to the churches, and have the prestige of the millions of members of the united church, with authority to speak officially for them.

How would such an organization harmonize with the denominational work now carried on by our own and other churches?

The various churches could carry on their work just as they do now, while this Federation with branches in each State or Synod could act for the united church in the several States and in national affairs.

What could this Federation do in law enforcement?

If it so desired, it could do much more than any existing voluntary organization, for it would have more money and more influence. But it is a question how far it is wise to tax ourselves a second time to do what we have already elected and sworn and paid our regular officials to do. It would seem more logical to prosecute the officers for neglect of duty.

How would such a Federation affect existing organizations?

Many of these organizations would undoubtedly continue, while others would be merged in the general Federation. The officers of such organizations as would be merged could be made available by the denominations to which such officers belong appointing them as their representatives, and some of them would no doubt become officers in the Federation.

Does the Anti-Saloon League desire to become a real federation of churches?

Many of the officers of the League have frequently expressed such a desire, and in some States the League has gone nearly as far in this direction as it can go under its present constitution. But as the matter now stands, the League simply invites the churches to co-operate with it, while, under the proposed plan, the Federation would be the Church itself in action.

Do other temperance organizations than the League resemble or claim to be federations?

They do not, and this, together with the fact that several members of the Assembly's Committee work with the League, has made us feel free to use it in a friendly spirit to illustrate the difference between a real and a nominal church federation.

What progress has been made toward the formation of this Federation?

The Assembly's Committee of the Presbyterian Church is now in correspondence with other churches relative to the calling of a conference for this purpose.

Does this invitation include all Protestant and Catholic churches?

It includes all churches, without regard to creed or nationality.

THE DUTY OF THE CHURCH.

The Church ought to lead, and was divinely intended to lead, in lightening the burdens and mitigating the sorrows and curing the ills and righting the wrongs which afflict humanity. The principles of the Christian religion challenge to unending struggle all base and lawless and selfish appetites.

Rev. Dr. Edward M. Miller, Professor in Auburn Theological Seminary, says: "Not only for the protection of her sons and to prevent the obstruction of her work, but to keep her leadership as a practical redemptive agency in society, the Church must take a more aggressive and determined stand in the temperance reform."

If the Church is right the saloon is wrong. They are diametrically opposed in motive, in tendency and in spirit. Let no one hesitate to say so. The gospel is the hope of the world, and the church which is not making war on the liquor traffic is untrue to Jesus Christ.

THE BURDEN OF THE CURSE.

Many great problems confront our people, moral, social, political, financial, sanitary, scientific, all pressing earnestly for solution. None, however, demands more earnest or thoughtful attention on the part of the patriotic, intelligent citizen than the temperance question.

Intoxicants (direct cost only)	- - -	$1,500,000,000

ECONOMICALLY

it is of the first magnitude. "The Corn Belt" estimates that in 1900 there were 661,554 persons engaged in the manufacture and sale of liquor in the United States. This vast army was withdrawn from productive labor, allowed to prey upon the public, degrading others and lessening their industrial efficiency, destroying a vast amount of wholesome food products and having their families supported by others, all without rendering any valuable return, and in spite of the harm they were doing.

According to the United States Statistical Abstract, there were consumed in the United States in 1905 1,694,392,765 gallons of liquor of all kinds, or 20.38 gallons per capita. Only eleven or twelve million gallons of this were used in the arts and manufactures.

The direct cost of this liquor—that is, the amount paid by the consumer—was not less than $1,500,000,000, and the indirect cost—that is, the cost of crime, pauperism, insanity, idiocy, loss of productive labor, shortened lives, etc.—was at least $1,000,000,000 more, making a total of fully $2,500,000,000 (twenty-five hundred million). Rev. Dr. J. B. Dunn, late Secretary of the National Temperance Society, estimated the total cost at $2,678,504,864. Other authorities place it lower. The figures first given are probably not far from correct and, while an estimate, are based upon government reports and other wide generalizations.

Estimating our population at 80,000,000, this harmful and useless thing costs directly and indirectly more than $30.00 per capita, or $150.00 to every family in the United States. This seems almost incredible and is entirely beyond comprehension.

The entire internal revenue receipts from this source for 1905 were $186,319,066, and the customs receipts—that is, the duty paid on imported liquors—were $12,097,799, making the total receipts of the general government from this source $198,416,865.

If we add to this $100,000,000 for State, municipal and county license, it gives a gross sum of $298,416,865. From this we must deduct the cost of collection, which, for the internal revenue, was 1.85 per cent of receipts, and for the customs receipts 3.48 per cent. Summing it all up, it is safe to say that the liquor traffic cost more than eight times what it paid, to say nothing of the moral ruin which it wrought and the untold misery which it caused.

THE ENEMY OF LABOR.

Some will say it gives employment to labor and creates a demand for material. Prof. Barker says: "It purchases less material, employs fewer men and pays a lower rate of wages than any industry with which it may be equitably compared. It ranks lowest in the aggregate number of wage earners in a list of fifty-five industries. It pays only eight per cent. for labor, while the general manufacturer pays twenty per cent for labor." The United States Department of Labor found upon inquiry that 72 per cent of agriculturists, 79 per cent of manufactures, 80 per cent of tradesmen, and 90 per cent of railroads officials discriminate against men who drink.

THE FRIEND OF CRIME.

Under this head, Dr. Barker, in his very helpful book, "The Saloon Problem and Social Reform,"* says: "The officials of prisons and penitentiaries and reform schools all over the country unite in testifying that a large proportion of crime is due directly to the liquor traffic. Not long since a general average of testimony gathered from 1,017 keepers of county jails in various portions of the United States showed that the proportion of crime due to drink was 72%. That the saloon is destructive of social order is abundantly confirmed by prison statistics. The whole number of cases brought before the Boston municipal criminal court for the year ending October 1, 1903, was 23,525; of this number 17,118 were cases of drunks. There were 8,525 cases of commitments for jail offenses in Connecticut for 1902; 4,617 of these were for drunkenness, and 6,946 of the total, or about 82%, by their own confession pleaded guilty as drinkers of intoxicants. In one year there were 82,000 arrests made in Chicago. The city prosecutor recently said: "It is true that three-fourths of the crimes of Chicago are due to liquor." The Superintendent of Bridewell says: "Liquor is the cause of the incarceration of 80% of those who are committed to the Bridewell." The prison warden of Pittsburgh reports: "Of 7,579 convicts sent to jail during 1902, nearly every one was treated for alcoholism, while of this number 709 suffered from acute delirium tremens, seven dying." Mayor A. F. Knotts, of Hammond, Indiana, says: "Ninety-five per cent of all crime is caused directly or indirectly by drink. The police records of our city show that more than 90% of all the offenses committed are the results of intemperance, and that our police force, maintained at an expense of $15,000 a year, is almost exclusively employed in watching and caring for men, women and children affected by drink." Hon. S. M. Nichols, former mayor of Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania, with a population of 60,000, and one hundred and twenty-six saloons, testifies thus: "During my seven years' tenure of office I have had about seven thousand cases before me, and I am satisfied that about 90% of them were the result of drunkenness." Judge Severance says: "During my nineteen years as judge of the district court I have sentenced nearly four hundred people to the penitentiary, and I have traced 90% of this crime to liquor drinking." The report of the Massachusetts Bureau of Statistics on the influence of the liquor traffic in regard to criminals informs us that "82% were in liquor at the time of offense," and that "in 84% the intemperate habits of the offenders led to a condition which induced the crime." More than this that, "excluding minors, ninety-six to every one hundred were addicted to the use of liquors."

*"The Saloon Problem and Social Reform," by J. M. Barker. Ph. D., Everett Press, Boston, Mass. $1.00.

Mr. Theodore W. Alvord of Parkersburg, W. Va., furnishes the following instructive facts, which have been widely published, concerning conditions in that State:

There are fifty-five counties in West Virginia.

Thirty-two counties grant no liquor licenses.

Twelve counties grant licenses in one town each.

Eleven grant licenses wherever an application is made.

There were 748 prisoners in the penitentiary on the first day of October last.

Of this number 106 came from the thirty-two no-license counties; 184 came from the twelve one-town license counties; 458 came from the eleven license counties.

One hundred and fifty-nine came from Fayette county, which has three per cent of the population of the State and twenty per cent of the inmates of the penitentiary.

Fayette county has fifty-three men in the penitentiary more than have the thirty-two no-license counties.

The license counties have one man in the penitentiary for every 599 of their population; the twelve one-town license counties have one for every 1,371; while the thirty-two no-license counties have one for every 4,022.

Several no-license counties have no one in the penitentiary, several have one each, and the highest number from any no-license county is nine.

Hancock county, which has not had a saloon for sixty years, had not one cent of criminal expense for the year ending October 1, 1904.

The criminal expenses of the no-license counties averaged seventy-two mills for each inhabitant; the one-town license counties averaged ninety-three mills, and the license counties averaged 267 mills.

Fayette county and McDowell are each a paradise for the saloon—that is, each has saloons everywhere any one thinks he can make the business pay, and the saloons are run without any reference to the law. The first has one person in the penitentiary for every 202 of population, and McDowell has one for every 190; the criminal expenses in Fayette are 491 mills for each inhabitant, and in McDowell 919 mills for each inhabitant.

AN ORGANIZED FOE.

There are five great liquor organizations in the United States:

1. The United States Brewers' Association.

2. The National Wholesale Liquor Dealers' Association.
3. The National Retail Liquor Dealers' Association.
4. The National Protective Bureau.
5. The German-American Alliance.

These five organizations are, of course, in league and usually supply men, money and literature in every local contest where there is a possibility of the saloon being defeated.

The Protective Bureau, so called, is chiefly a distributing agency for saloon literature, edited by Cyrus C. Turner, with headquarters in New York. According to The American Brewers' Journal, during 1902-1905 this bureau sent out fifteen different tracts, aggregating more than 10,000,000 pages. Most of this is mailed directly to voters whose names and addresses are furnished by friends of the trade.

These organizations have in their employ some of the best legal and editorial talent in the country, not to protect their rights, but to mislead the people; not to insure justice, but to escape it. In addition they have an army of men going over the country like minions to annoy the strong, to tempt the weak, to deceive the credulous, and to tighten the fetters on those who are bound.

They maintain under one name or another a mutual protection fund. If a member is put on trial for violation of the liquor laws, his expenses are paid from this fund. If convicted, the fund is drawn upon for payment of his fine. With this fund delays may be secured, needed testimony may be procured, and, perhaps, acquittal may be purchased.

To meet this aggregation of evil, good people must mass their might and their means. No mob, however large or determined, can successfully oppose well drilled, well seasoned, well equipped soldiers. To conserve their energies, to economize in time and means, and to direct their forces, temperance people must organize. Papers and parties and politicians fear the liquor traffic because it is organized. When temperance people are as closely and thoroughly organized as the saloon forces, their wishes will be respected. "As a man thinketh into the ballot box, so is he."

THE FIELD IN GENERAL.

The Hepburn-Dolliver (now Littlefield) Bill at this writing is pending before Congress, with the issue still uncertain. Nothing definite can be reported concerning the temperance clause of the Statehood Bill for Oklahoma and Indian Territory, as that bill has not yet passed Congress.

The most notable temperance victories of the year have been the defeat of Gov. Herrick in Ohio on account of his attitude on the local option question and the election of William H. Berry, a strong prohibitionist, as State Treasurer of Pennsylvania. Govs. Folk of Missouri, Hoch of Kansas, Cobb of Maine, Hanley of Indiana and Mayor David P. Jones of Minneapolis have all shown that liquor laws can be enforced when the proper officials will to do it.

After a trial of nearly thirteen years, on account of the gross corruption, fraud and graft connected with it, South Carolina has abolished the Dispensary. This is another illustration of the truth that it is impossible to make sin safe, and dangerous to try to make it respectable. The Dispensary law never contemplated the destruction of the liquor traffic. If liquor selling is detrimental to society when conducted by the individual it does not have a different influence when conducted by the state.

Scientific Temperance. Comparatively few people realize the fundamental importance of The Scientific Temperance Instruction which is required in our public schools. The first of these laws was passed in 1882 by Vermont, and by 1902 every state and territory in the Union had made such instruction compulsory. This remarkable achievement was accomplished by Mrs. Mary H. Hunt of Boston, Mass., undoubtedly one of the greatest women of the present generation.

This instruction is purely a matter of science and has always desired to be considered on its merits as such. We regret that a company of men of such high reputation as "The Committee of Fifty" should persist in opposing and misrepresenting this work, and especially after their well-endowed opinions have been openly repudiated by the United States Senate and by more than 15,000 leading physicians of Great Britain, besides many on this side of the water.

The accuracy and value of Mrs. Hunt's work has received striking confirmation in the past few months when, by Imperial decree, Scientific Temperance has been made a part of the regular course of instruction in the schools throughout the German Empire, and The New Century Series of text books, approved by Mrs. Hunt, adopted as standards.

Here it is our painful duty to record the death of Mrs. Hunt, which occurred at her home in Boston April 24th.

Mrs. Hunt was everywhere recognized as the greatest authority in the world on Scientific Temperance. The leading universities of Europe and America sought her instruction and trusted her counsel.

We were highly honored recently by her acceptance of our invitation to superintend this new department of our work, and now we must look for a successor.

We fully agree with the recent statement of an eminent German authority who declared that "history would pronounce the achievements of Mrs. Hunt the greatest piece of constructive statesmanship of this generation."

The workers rest, but the work goes on. We heartily commend the Bureau of Scientific Temperance Instruction to the confidence and liberality of our people.

The Patent Medicine frauds have received much deserved exposure in several of the leading magazines during the year. One of the significant events in this connection has been the action of the Internal Revenue Commissioner in prohibiting both the manufacture and sale of many of these so-called medicines, except by those who take out regular liquor licenses. The following belong to the proscribed list, and there may be others:

Atwood's La Grippe Specific, Cuban Gingeric, De Witt's Stomach Bitters, Dr. Bouvier's Buchu Gin, Dr. Fowler's Meat and Malt, Duffy's Malt Whiskey, Gilbert's Rejuvenating Iron and Herb Juice, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, Kudros, Peruna and Rockandy Cough Cure.

Good Templars. The event of the year in the Independent Order of Good Templars has been the establishment of a National Grand Lodge, which will hold its Convention in Boston, Mass., July, 1906. This organization has done a good work and wielded a wide influence. It now numbers about 50,000 in the United States. The international body reported a net gain last year of 85,000 members, the greatest advance being made in Germany and the Scandinavian Peninsula. B. F. Parker, Sec., Milwaukee, Wis., R. W. G. S. J. T., Miss Jessie Forsyth, Boston, Mass.

Prohibition. The political history of this country shows no example of conviction, perseverance and unselfish sacrifice superior to that of the Prohibition Party in its struggle against the liquor traffic. It has organizations in more than 40 states, and for local, state and national work last year employed 150 men and women and raised $150,000. The Chairman of the National Committee reports 500 party prohibitionists holding office in 14 states. Presidential vote in 1904, 257,419. C. R. Jones, Chairman, The Temple, Chicago.

College Work. The Inter-Collegiate Prohibition Association, with headquarters in The Temple, Chicago, is one of the largest student organizations in the country. It has organizations in 18 states, three traveling Secretaries, a Corresponding Secretary and other officers who each year visit hundreds of Colleges, Universities and Theological Seminaries. It prepares and issues literature of a high order, systematic courses of study in the history and philosophy of prohibition, "The Inter-Collegiate Statesman," an ably edited paper, and is doing more to interest and inform College students on the temperance question than any other agency. H. S. Warner, Sec.

Anti-Saloon League. This organization scored the most notable victory in its history last fall in Ohio, and a great one it was. It is vigorously pushing its work in nearly 40 states, had in its employ last year about 400 men and raised $500,000 for all purposes. Its merits and methods are too well known to need comment. Rev. P. A. Baker, Supt., Columbus, Ohio.

The National Temperance Society has carried on the great work during the year which it has successfully prosecuted for more than 40 years. Rev. J. B. Dunn, D. D., the Corresponding Secretary, was called from labor to reward March 19th. The Presbyterian Church, in which he had a long and honorable record as a minister, in common with all denominations, mourns the loss of this truly good and useful man.

We desire in this connection to make acknowledgment of and express our appreciation of a small though valuable library from this mother of temperance societies. Those who need sound temperance literature should write to The National Temperance Society, No. 3 East Fourteenth St., New York.

The International Reform Bureau, of which Dr. W. F. Crafts is the Superintendent, has continued its labors along many lines of reform with unflagging zeal and much success. The Bureau works against intemperance, impurity, gambling and Sabbath desecration "as the four sides of one frowning fortress." The Bureau has been represented at many hearings in Congress and has labored most diligently for the protection of native races against liquor, opium and fire arms. It has enlisted the interest of several foreign governments and many distinguished individuals. It has headquarters at No. 206 Pennsylvania Ave., S. E., Washington, D. C.

The Young People's Christian Temperance Union, of which Miss Eva Marshall Shontz is President, with headquarters in The Temple, Chicago, continues to show vigor and enterprise. Its monthly rallies in Willard Hall have attracted attention and aroused interest by bringing large numbers of young people together to hear some of the strongest speakers in the country.

The National W. C. T. U. is the largest single society of women in the world. It has a membership of over 300,000 and organizations in fifty-nine (59) different countries. It maintains forty separate departments, and besides "The Union Signal" and "The Crusader Monthly," which are national organs, publishes papers in forty-one states of the Union. It distributes more millions of pages of temperance literature than any single agency in the world. It maintains a legislative department in Washington, D. C., and has taken an active interest in every temperance measure before Congress in many years. The national headquarters are at Evanston, Ill., where information will be cheerfully given concerning the great work of this remarkable organization, which had less than $60,000 for all purposes during the year. The World's W. C. T. U. Convention is to be held in Boston, October 17th-23rd of this year, and the National at Hartford, Conn., Oct. 26th-31st.

The Women of the Presbyterian Church of Pennsylvania, with the authority of the Synod of that state, several years ago entered upon a new phase of temperance work. It consisted in an effort to enlist the interest of the Home and Foreign Missionary Societies in this subject. Mrs. J. F. Hill was made President and Mrs. Ellen M. Watson, of Pittsburgh, Corresponding Secretary. The plan was to have a Temperance Secretary appointed in each Presbytery and in each local society. The duties of this Secretary were to bring this subject before her society about once a month in a brief, well-digested resume of the most important happenings in the temperance world, and to keep before them the intimate relation between temperance and mission. It was not, as we understand, designed to raise money, for none of the officers receive salary, but with the increased interest in this subject have always come sufficient funds to meet its needs for literature. It has distributed a very large amount of temperance tracts, periodicals and books. The Secretary reports the election of two Synodical Secretaries, eleven Presbyterial Secretaries and some hundreds of Secretaries in local societies, forty-eight of the latter being in Pittsburgh, where Mrs. V. C. Euwer is the efficient Presbyterial Secretary.

Those who know the optimism, determination and capacity for work of Mrs. Watson, notwithstanding her seventy-six years, will not be surprised to learn that voluntary contributions aggregating nearly $2,000 were placed at her disposal during the year, and that her success has inspired the Methodist, Baptist and United Presbyterian Churches to establish similar departments.

Summing up the whole situation, we find that a little more than half of the entire area of the United States is now free from legalized saloons and 33,000,000 of our people live under the prohibitory laws. There is everywhere a widening and deepening conviction that this guilty traffic ought to die.

The President of the National Retail Liquor Dealers' Association in his address before their Convention in Pittsburgh said: “Peer into every city, town and hamlet; then read the city ordinances; visit the different Legislatures and the halls of the Congress of the United States; consult with your law-makers, and you will be astonished at the combinations arrayed against the traffic that we represent. The truth is the enemy is gaining ground rapidly upon us, and we are being overpowered by the tremendous forces battling against us.”

The day of God will dawn. Then the dramshop will be consigned to the museum of the past with the thumb screw, the rack, the scalping knife, the tomahawk, the pirate ship, the Inquisition and other relics of barbarism, while the noblest aspirations of a noble people are embodied in the noblest laws by noblest men.

In this faith we abide, in this service we labor, and in this hope we pray, even so, come Lord Jesus.

Once again it becomes our sad duty to report that your Committee has sustained the loss of a faithful and valued member.

Mr. Thos. McFadden, Jr., who had been a member for several years, entered into his reward Sept. 7th, 1905.

Supplement.

Reply of Representative Temperance People of America to the Proposal of the Central Association of Science and Mathematics Teachers' to Substitute Moral Suasion for Scientific Temperance Instruction in Our Public Schools.

---

Prepared by Mrs. Mary H. Hunt.

Our attention is called to certain resolutions offered by J. E. Armstrong, Chairman of the Committee on Temperance, and adopted by the Central Association of Science and Mathematics Teachers at a meeting held in Chicago, December 1st and 2nd, 1905, which resolutions relate to the study of temperance physiology as now required to be pursued by the pupils in all the public schools of this country. Whereas these resolutions boldly propose a plan to secure the co-operation of public school teachers in an effort for the practical repeal of the present laws requiring the above study for reasons presented that are neither valid nor true, therefore,

The Permanent Committee on Temperance of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. calls the attention of all teachers in this country and of the public generally to the erroneous claims in the preamble and resolutions above referred to, which read as follows:

“Whereas, We believe that the teachers of science are in practical accord with your committee in disapproving of the general scheme of trying to teach temperance through a scientific knowledge of physiology, and believing that temperance is a moral rather than a physiological question, and believing that the ends of both temperance and education would be better served by a more rational course of study based upon hygiene rather than upon physiology, therefore be it

“Resolved, That the Secretary of this Association be instructed to send a request to the Executive Committees of the State Teachers’ Associations of each of the states represented to prepare a course of study in hygiene which shall recognize that the great bodies of teachers in our states are among the leaders of moral and scientific education of the children: a course of study that shall not require our teachers to violate the laws of teaching or their own consciences: and be it further

“Resolved .That we commend the action of the teachers of Massachusetts in securing the co-operation of the temperance organizations of that state in preparing the course of study issued by the Committee of Twelve of that State, and recommend that when these courses of study are adopted steps be taken to have them adopted by the Legislatures instead of the present laws.”

In refutation of these propositions we reply:

The laws of this land require that the children in all its public schools shall be taught physiology and hygiene, including in each division of the subject the effects of alcoholic drinks and other narcotics; or, as in the case of the National law passed by Congress and those passed by many of the states, this branch is described as the study of the nature of alcoholic drinks and other narcotics and their effects upon the human system in connection with each division of the subject of physiology and hygiene.

In either case the meaning, which is the same, is that all the children enrolled in the public schools of this country shall be taught progressively the physiological reasons for obeying the laws of health, including those that teach the consequences which follow the use of alcoholic drinks and other narcotics.

It is the glory of our twentieth century education that it enables the youth and children of our land to reason by teaching them the whys. Nevertheless, the foregoing preamble and resolutions present the anomaly of a company of teachers objecting to the rising generation being taught the physiological reasons that should guide the formation of physical habits!

In defense of their objections they say first that "temperance is a moral rather than a physiological question," and as such they want it taught with no physiology, but with hygiene as its basis.

These teachers should know that morality is a question of the choice of the right or wrong in action. Whether it is morally right or wrong to drink alcoholic liquors depends upon whether alcohol has the power to injure the physical structure and consequently the mental and moral nature. Hence, morals in connection with the temperance question depend upon physiological truth as their basis; otherwise moral teaching on this question is mere exhortation. As the engineer needs to know something of the structure of his engine in order to know how to care for it, what will injure it, and why, so our children need to know something of the organs of their bodies to understand the reasons for their care. Hygiene with no physiology is assertion or rules without the reasons for same. Evidently dogmatic exhortation is what these teachers would have take the place of the intelligent study of the physiological reasons for obeying the laws of health that is helping to secure a strong, sober American race.

Such a proposition is not new. It is the old moral suasion argument. During the great campaigns that have put these laws on the statute books of this nation those who foresaw what it means to have all the children of this land learn the real character and effects of beer and other alcoholic liquors moved as a substitute some form of this moral exhortation plan, which was swiftly voted down.

The statement in the first resolution that implies that the teachers in our states were the leaders in securing scientific temperance education of the children does not hold good. It was not the teachers as a class, but the people, the source of power in this country, who demanded that this study should be compulsory. The laws that these teachers would practically nullify were enacted in response to the petitions of millions and millions of fathers and mothers of the children in our public schools.

These teachers say they want "a course of study" on this subject "that will not require our teachers to violate the laws of teaching and their own consciences." Only an enlightened conscience is a safe guide. Any teacher who is so ignorant of pedagogics and of the findings of modern science concerning the nature of alcoholic drinks and of their power for evil as to be unable to conscientiously teach the same as our laws require, has too limited a knowledge to be intrusted with the education of American children, or to make out a course of study in these topics.

As representatives of a Christian church with more than a million members, we decline utterly the suggestion in the last resolution, of co-operating with anyone or any "Committee of Twelve" or any other number in any plan to emasculate our temperance education laws, as proposed by these resolutions, or by omitting the study of temperance physiology in any grade below the second year of the high school, or by failing to provide text books for all pupils who use books on other studies beginning with the fourth grade.

The results of the system now in use in our schools are good, and only good. Since the schools began to teach the physiological fact that alcohol is a narcotic poison which reduces strength, blunts the senses, impairs judgment and thus injures working ability, results have followed that moral suasion alone could not secure. The railroads and other responsible business interests in this country demand total abstinence of employes as an essential to safe and productive workmanship. That this greater sobriety of the American workman is a factor in the commercial supremacy of America, and that it is a result of public school instruction concerning the nature and effects of alcohol, are freely admitted. Justus Gaule, M. D., Professor of Physiology, University of Zurich, Switzerland, says:

"The alcohol-free atmosphere of America is a result of the instruction in the public schools concerning the influence of alcohol. The Americans by this instruction concerning alcohol have done their country a greater service than they think. Such instruction can not be imparted without a foundation in physiology, giving the idea that human life is based upon definite laws," and it should begin in the earliest years.

It would be as reasonable to propose that this age of steam and electricity should go back to the stage coach methods of transportation of one hundred years ago as that moral suasion should now take the place of physiological temperance instruction in our public schools.

TEMPERANCE ACTION OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF 1906.

The following resolutions were offered by the Standing Committee of which Rev. E. Trumball Lee, D. D. was Chairman:

1. That the Minutes and Treasurer's report, of the Permanent Committee, having been examined and found correct be approved.

2. That the following gentlemen, whose term of office has expired, be elected to succeed themselves, viz: Rev. John F. Hill, D.D., Rev. Edwin R. Worrell, Mr. Wm. R. Zeigler, O. L. Miller, M. D., and that the vacancy caused by the death of Thomas McFadden, Jr., be filled by the election of Mr. Graham C. Wells, of Pittsburg, Pa.

3. That the General Assembly is unalterably opposed to the license system as wrong in principle, contrary to the Gospel of Christ and futile in practice as a temperance measure. Presbyterians are hereby most solemnly warned against renting property for saloon purposes, signing petitions which legalize the liquor traffic, or presenting them in court, or in any other way aiding or abetting this terrible evil.

4. That Treasurers of Boards to whom undersigned offerings may be sent are directed to send 1% of the same to the Treasurer of the Assembly's Temperance Committee prior to dividing it among the Boards upon the ratio recommended by a former Assembly.

5. That we protest against the issuance of federal tax receipts (construed by the holders as licenses) to sell liquor in States or communities where prohibitory legislation has been enacted. The Permanent Committee is instructed on behalf of this Assembly to memorialize Congress asking that such receipts be no longer issued in such States or communities.

6. That this Assembly recommends that the last Sabbath in October be observed as Temperance Day in our churches, Sabbath Schools and Young People's Societies, and that so far as practicable, offerings be taken at that time for the Temperance work under the direction of the Assembly.

7. That the Permanent Committee be instructed to prepare an order of service for the use of Sabbath Schools and Young People's Societies on Temperance Day.

8. That we approve of the plan of Church Federation in temperance work as outlined in the report of the Permanent Committee (See pp. 8-9).

9. That the Assembly calls special attention to the Annual Report and Year Book which may be used as a valuable compendium of information (Bound with reports of Boards or furnished upon application). Our churches and Sabbath Schools are urged to make liberal use of the valuable literature furnished free by the Permanent Committee.

10. That in view of the large and rapidly increasing demand for temperance literature, the advisability of publishing a monthly bulletin of temperance facts and progress, the urgent calls from churches, presbyteries and synods for the service of the Committee's representatives, and to enable the Committee to conduct the temperance work of our Church on a scale commensurate with its importance, the Permanent Committee is hereby recommended to the churches for the sum of $25,000.

The following resolution, offered from the floor of the Assembly, was adopted with the others:

That inasmuch as it is the instruction of science that the use of tobacco is injurious, especially to the young, we urge our ministers and elders, both by precept and example, to discourage its use in any and all forms.

A request from the Anti-Saloon League that the Assembly appoint delegates to a conference was answered in the negative by the Committee on Bills and Overtures and the answer approved by the Assembly.

The Committee on Church Polity unanimously recommended that persons continuing in the renting of property, signing petitions and endorsing bonds for the encouragement of the liquor traffic, are subject to discipline, if such conduct is persisted in after timely admonition. Adopted by the Assembly.

The Committee appointed to examine the minutes of the Synod of Indian Territory, having noted an exception to the appointment of delegates to the Anti-Saloon League by the Synod, the General Assembly sustained the exception.

The Assembly ordered a column placed in its minutes for offerings to Temperance with those for other agencies of the church.
